ing to thine ⁴ordinances: for all are thy servants.

92 Unless ⁵thy law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine affliction.

93 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quicken me.

94 I am ⁶thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts.

95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.

96 I ⁷have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

MEM.

97 O how love I thy law! ⁸it is my meditation all the day.

98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me ⁹wiser than mine enemies; for ¹⁰they are ever with me.

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: ¹¹for thy testimonies are my meditation.

100 I ¹²understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.

101 I have ¹³refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.

102 I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me.

103 How ¹⁴sweet are thy words unto my ¹⁵taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

104 Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

NUN.

105 Thy word is a ¹⁶lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

106 I ¹⁷have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.

107 I am afflicted very much:
quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.

108 Accept, I beseech thee, ¹⁸the free-will offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy judgments.

109 My ^k soul is continually in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law.

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I erred not from thy precepts.

111 Thy ^l testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

112 I have inclined mine heart ¹⁹to perform thy statutes alway, even unto the end.

SAMECH.

113 I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love.

114 Thou ^m art my hiding-place and my shield: I hope in thy word.

115 Depart ⁿ from me, ye evil-doers: for I will keep the commandments of my God.

116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not ^o be ashamed of my hope.

117 Hold ^p thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

118 Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes: for their deceit is falsehood.

119 Thou ²⁰ puttest away all the wicked of the earth ^q like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies.

120 My ^r flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.

AIN.

121 I have done judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors.

122 Be ^s surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me.

123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.

124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy, and teach me thy statutes.

125 I am thy servant; give me understanding, that I may know thy testimonies.

126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work; for they have made void thy law.

127 Therefore ^t I love thy commandments above gold, yea, above fine gold.

128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way.

loving-kindness: O LORD, quicken me according to thy judgment. They draw nigh that follow for mischief: they are far from law. Thou art near, O LORD; and thy commandments are truth. Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast ended them for ever.

RESH.

Consider mine affliction, and quicken me; for I do not forget thy law.

Plead my cause, and deliver me: quicken me according to thy law.

Salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not thy statutes. Great are thy tender mercies, O LORD: quicken me according to thy judgments.

Many are my persecutors and mine enemies; yet do I not decline from thy testimonies.

I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved; because they kept thy word.

Consider how I love thy precepts: quicken me, O LORD, according to thy loving-kindness.

Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

SCHIN.

Princes have persecuted me without cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.

I rejoice at thy word, as one findeth great spoil.

I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love.

Seven times a day do I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments.

Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.

The idols of the heathen are r and gold, the work of men's hands.

They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths.

They that make them are like them: so is every one that trusteth in them.

prophet curses Edom and Babel.

BY ^athe rivers of Babylon, there we sat down; yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion.

2 We hanged our ^bharps upon the willows in the midst thereof.

3 For there they that carried us away captive required of us ¹a song; and they that ²wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

4 How shall we sing the LORD's song in a ³strange land?

A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee with my whole heart: before ^athe gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 I will worship ^btoward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy loving-kindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified ^cthy word above all thy name.

3 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and ^dstrengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD.

6 Though the LORD be high, yet ^ehath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

7 Though ^fI walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me; thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

¹ Masehil of David; A Prayer ^awhen he was in the cave.

I CRIED unto the LORD with my voice; with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaint before him; I showed before him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 ²I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge ³failed me; ⁴no man cared for my soul.

5 I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge and ^bmy portion in the land of the living.

A Psalm of David.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

2 And ^aenter not into judgment with thy servant: for ^bin thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate.

5 I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land. Selah.

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD; my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, ¹lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear thy loving-kindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies: I ²flee unto thee to hide me.

10 Teach ^cme to do thy will; for thou art my God: ^dthy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.

THE BOOK OF PROVERBS.

CHAPTER 1.

Use of the Proverbs. 7 Exhortation to fear God, and regard parents: 10 to avoid the enticings of sinners. 20 Wisdom complains of the contempt of corners.

THE ^aProverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel; To know wisdom and instruction: perceive the words of understanding;

To ^breceive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

To give subtilty to the simple. the young man knowledge and discretion.

A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

^cThe fear of the LORD is ^dthe beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

For they shall be ^ean ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

^fMy son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

If they say, Come with us, let us ^gdelay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, ^has those that go down into the pit:

We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

My son, ⁱwalk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

For ^jtheir feet run to evil, and take haste to shed blood:

(Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird:)

And they lay wait for their ^kown blood; they lurk privily for their ^lown lives.

So ^mare the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

²⁰ ^xWisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

²¹ She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

²² How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorers delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

²³ Turn you at my reproof: behold, ^yI will pour out my Spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

²⁵ But ye ^bhave set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

²⁶ I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

²⁸ Then ^cshall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

²⁹ For that they ^dhated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD:

³⁰ They would none of my counsel; they despised all my reproof:

³¹ Therefore ^eshall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

³² For the ^fturning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

³³ But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Wisdom promises godliness to her children, 10 protection from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;

So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and ¹lifest up thy voice for understanding;

4 If ^athou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

6 For ^bthe LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: ^c*he is* a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth ^dthe way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, ^eunderstanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk ^fin the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoyce to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 Which ^gforsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the ^hcovenant of her God.

18 For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19 None ⁱthat go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

20 That thou mayest ^jwalk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be ^krooted out of it.

either of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

fidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

27 ¶ Withhold ^unot good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.

28 Say ^vnot unto thy neighbour, to, and come again, and to-morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.

29 ⁸Devise not evil against thy curely by thee.

30 Strive ^wnot with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

31 ¶ Envy thou not ⁹the oppressor, to the LORD: but his secret is with the righteous.

33 The ^xcurse of the LORD is in the 14 ¶ Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

16 For they sleep not, except they

CHAPTER 5.

1 Solomon exhorts to study wisdom: 3 mischief of whoredom and riot: 15 he exhorts to contentedness, liberality, and chastity.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding;

2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may ^akeep knowledge.

3 ¶ For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her ¹mouth is smoother than oil:

4 But her end is ^bbitter as worm-wood, sharp ^cas a two-edged sword.

5 Her feet go down ^dto death; her steps take hold on hell.

6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house;

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel;

10 Lest strangers be filled with ²thy wealth, and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

11 And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

12 And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;

13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

14 I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

15 ¶ Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Against suretyship, 6 and idleness. Seven things hateful to God. 20 Blessings of obedience. 25 Mischief of idleness.

MY son, ^aif thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast ^bstricken thy hand with a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the word of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, ¹and make sure thy friend

4 Give ^cnot sleep to thine eyes nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 ¶ Go ^dto the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

9 How long wilt thou sleep, sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

10 Yea a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

12 ¶ A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

13 He ^ewinketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

14 Frowardness is in his heart; he deviseth mischief continually; he ²soweth discord.

15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he ³be broken without remedy.

16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate; yea, seven are an abomination ³unto him:

17 ⁴A proud look, ⁵a lying tongue, and hands ⁶that shed innocent blood,

18 An ⁷heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, ⁸feet that be swift in running to mischief,

19 A ⁹false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

20 ¶ My ^mson, keep thy father's commandment. and forsake not the of thy mother:

1 Bind them continually upon ine heart, and tie them about y neck.

2 When thou goest, it shall lead ee; when thou sleepest, it shall ep thee; and when thou awakest, shall talk with thee.

3 For "the commandment is a amp; and the law is light; and proofs of instruction are the way life:

4 To keep thee from the evil oman, from the flattery ⁶ of the ngue of a strange woman.

5 Lust ^o not after her beauty in ine heart; neither let her take ee with her eyelids:

6 For ^p by means of a whorish oman a man is brought to a ece of bread; and ⁷ the adulress will ^q hunt for the precious fe.

7 Can a man take fire in his osom, and his clothes not be urnt?

8 Can one go upon hot coals, and is feet not be burnt?

9 So he that goeth in to his neighour's wife; whosoever toucheth er shall not be innocent.

10 Men do not despise a thief, if e steal to satisfy his soul when he hungry:

11 But if he be found, ^r he shall estore sevenfold; he shall give all e substance of his house.

12 But whoso committeth adultery ith a woman lacketh ^s understand-g: he that doeth it ^t destroyeth his wn soul.

13 A wound and dishonour shall e get; and his reproach shall not e wiped away.

14 For jealousy is the rage of a an; therefore he will not spare e the day of vengeance.

15 ^u He will not regard any ransom;

ou givest many gifts.

4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

6 " For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among ¹ the youths, a young man void ^d of understanding,

8 Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house,

9 In ^e the twilight, ² in the evening, in the black and dark night:

10 And, behold, there met him a woman with the ³ attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

11 (She is loud and stubborn; ^g her feet abide not in her house:

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and ³ with an impudent face said unto him,

14 ⁴ I have peace offerings with me;
this day have I paid my vows:

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with ^h fine linen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning; let us solace ourselves with loves:

19 For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:

20 He hath taken a bag of money
⁵ with him, and will come home at ⁶ the day appointed.

21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her ⁷ straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 ¶ Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths:

26 For she hath cast down many wounded; yea, ¹many strong men have been slain by her.

27 Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

1 Fame, 6 and evidence of wisdom: 10 its excellency, 12 nature. 15 power, 18 riches, 22 eternity, 32 and desirableness.

DOOTH not ^awisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths;

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors:

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom; and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of ^bexcellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak ^ctruth; and wickedness is ¹an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing ²froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For ^dwisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I wisdom dwell with ³prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

CHAPTER 10.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth are sundry observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

THE Proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father:
but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 Treasures ^a of wickedness profit nothing: ^b but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 The ^c LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away ¹ the substance of the wicked.

4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but ^d the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but ^e violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 The ^f memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but ² a prating fool ³ shall fall.

9 He ^g that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: but a prating fool
⁴ shall fall.

11 The ^h mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but ⁱ violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but ^j love covereth all sins.

13 In the ^k lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found:
but a rod is for the back of him that is void of ⁵ understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge:
but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The ^l rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof ⁶ erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 In ^mthe multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but ⁿhe that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want ⁷of wisdom.

22 The ^eblessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The ^pfear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but ^qthe desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but ^rthe righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

27 The fear of the LORD ^sprolongeth days: but ^tthe years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The ^uhope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the ^vexpectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is ^wstrength to the upright: ^xbut destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

31 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked ^yspeaketh ^zfrowardness.

CHAPTER 11.

A ¹FALSE balance is abomination to the LORD: but ²a just weight is his delight.

2 When ^apride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.

3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

4 Riches ^bprofit not in the day of wrath: but ^crighteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall ^ddirect his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

7 When a wicked man dieth, ^lexpectation shall perish; and ^mthe hope of unjust men perisheth.

8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh to his stead.

9 An ⁿhypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10 When ^oit goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth; and when the wicked perish, there shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is ^pvoid of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 ^qA talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

15 He that is surety for a stranger ^sshall smart for it; and he that hateth ^tsuretiship is sure.

16 A gracious woman retaineth honour; and strong men retain riches.

17 The ^umerciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but ^vto him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tendeth to life, so he that pursueth evil pursueth to his own death.

20 They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are his delight.

21 Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which ^wwithout discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous only good: but the expectation of the wicked is ^xwrath.

24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that holdeth more than is meet, it tendeth to poverty.

⁹The liberal soul shall be made and ¹he that watereth shall be tered also himself.

⁶He ^mthat withholdeth corn, people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of n that selleth it.

⁷He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: ⁹but he that seek-mischief, it shall come unto n.

⁸He ^pthat trusteth in his riches shall fall: but ^qthe righteous shall enrich as a branch.

⁹He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind; and the bl shall be servant to the wise of art.

¹⁰The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that ¹⁰winneth souls is wise.

¹¹Behold, ^athe righteous shall be compensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAPTER 12.

WHOSO loveth instruction loveth knowledge; but he that teth reproof is brutish.

A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked deeds will he condemn.

A man shall not be established in wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

A ^avirtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that lacketh ashamed is as ^brottenness to his bones.

The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

The words of the wicked are to be in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver him.

The ^cwicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: ^dbut he that ¹of a perverse heart shall be spised.

He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that moureth himself, and lacketh

the wicked seduceth them.

²⁷ The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

²⁸ In the way of righteousness ^pis

there is no death.

CHAPTER 13.

A WISE son heareth his father's instruction: ^abut a scorner heareth not rebuke.

² A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.

3 He ^bthat keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

4 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

5 A righteous man hateth ^clying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

6 Righteousness ^dkeepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth ¹the sinner.

7 There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

8 The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the ²lamp of the wicked shall be put out.

10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well-advised is wisdom.

11 Wealth ^e*gotten* by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth ³by labour shall increase.

12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoso ^fdespiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment ⁴shall be rewarded.

14 The ^glaw of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from ^hthe snares of death.

22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children; and ¹the wealth of the sinner is laid for the just.

23 Much ^mfood is in the tillage, the poor: but there is that destroyed for want of judgment.

24 He ⁿthat spareth his rod hate his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

CHAPTER 14.

EVERY ^awise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: ^bbut he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is rod of pride: ^cbut the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A ^dfaithful witness will not lie, but a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but ^eknowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the ^ffolly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools ^gmake a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth ¹his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 The ^hhouse of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 There ⁱis a way which seemeth right unto a man; but ^jthe end thereof are the ways of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and ^kthe end of the mirth is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be ^lfilled with his own ways; and ^ma good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A ⁿwise man feareth, and parteth from evil: but the fool geth, and is confident.

He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly; and a man of wicked vices is hated.
 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
 The evil bow before the good;
 and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.
 The poor is hated even of his neighbour: but the rich hath many friends.
 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: ²but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.
 Do they not err that devise ill? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.
 In all labour there is profit:
 but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.
 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.
 A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.
 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence; and his children shall have a place of refuge.
 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.
 In the multitude of people is the king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.
He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth himself.
 A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the rottenness of the bones.
 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker: but he that poureth him hath mercy on the poor.
 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath hope in his death.
 Wisdom resteth in the heart of the just that hath understanding: but the heart of the wicked is made known by his words.
 Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.
 The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

CHAPTER 15.

A SOFT answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

3 The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

10 Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him; neither will he go unto the wise.

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge:
 but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 Better is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure, and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Folly is joy to him that is ⁵despotic of wisdom: ⁶but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth; and a word spoken ⁶in due season, how good is it!

24 The ^hway of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are ⁷pleasant words.

27 He ⁱthat is greedy of gain troubleth his own house: but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The LORD is ^kfar from the wicked: but he ^lheareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart; and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth ⁸instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that ⁹heareth reproof ¹⁰getteth understanding.

33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is a cloud of the latter rain.

16 How much better is it to give wisdom than gold? and to give understanding rather to be chosen than silver?

18 Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

20 ⁶He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good; and when he trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent; and the sweetness of his lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is a well-spring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

¹⁷ A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

¹⁸ A man void of ⁸ understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

¹⁹ He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

²⁰ ⁹ He that hath a froward heart findeth no good; and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

13 He that ⁶ answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity: but a wounded spirit who can bear?

29 The glory of young men is their strength; and the beauty of old men is the grey head.

30 The blueness of a wound ¹⁰cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAPTER 21.

THE king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: ^abut the LORD pondereth the hearts.

3 To ^bdo justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

4 ¹An high look, and a proud heart, and ²the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty, only to want.

6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall ³destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with ⁴a brawling woman in ⁵a wide house.

10 The ⁶soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour ⁶findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

12 The ^arighteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth ^cthe wicked for their wickedness.

13 Whoso ^fstoppereth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifieth anger, and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

CHAPTER 28.

Of impiety and religious integrity.

THE wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but ¹by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 A ^apoor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain ²which leaveth no food.

4 They that forsake the law praise the wicked: ^bbut such as keep the law contend with them.

5 Evil men understand not judgment: but they ^cthat seek the LORD understand all things.

6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that ³is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 He that by usury and ⁴unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 He ^dthat turneth away his ear from hearing the law, ^eeven his prayer shall be abomination.

10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: ^fbut the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise ⁵in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is ⁶hidden.

13 He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man that feareth alway: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so ^gis a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor:

but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be ⁷in-nocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good; for, for ^ha piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 ⁸He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 He that rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of ⁹a destroyer.

25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: ⁱbut he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.

26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He ^jthat giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAPTER 29.

1 Of public government, 15 and of private. 22 Of anger, pride, theft, cowardice, and corruption.

HE ¹that, being often reprov'd, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are ²in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 Whoso ^aloveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but ³he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

7 The ^brighteous considereth cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scornful men ⁴bring a city a snare: but wise men turn a wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he laugh, there is no rest.

10 ⁵The blood-thirsty hate upright: but the just seek soul.

11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and ⁶the deceitful man meet together; ^cthe Lord lighteneth both their eyes.

14 The king that ^dfaithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increase: ^ebut the righteous shall see them fall.

17 Correct ^fthy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where ^gthere is no vision, the people ⁷perish: but ^hhe that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words; for though he understand he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is haughty in his words? there is more hope for a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth his servant from a child shall himself become his son at the length.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 A ⁱman's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: ^jhe beareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The ^kfear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD ⁹shall be safe.

26 Many seek ¹⁰the ruler's favour: but every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.

An unjust man is an abomination to the just; and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

confession and instructions of Agur.

THE words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: the spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ucal, surely ¹I am more brutish than man, and have not the understanding of a man.

neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy. Who ²hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? ³who hath numbered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, thou canst tell?

Every ⁴word of God is ⁵pure: it is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add ⁶thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be called a liar.

Two things have I required of thee; ⁷deny me them not before I die:

Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; ⁸feed me with food ⁹convenient for me:

Lest ¹⁰I be full, and ¹¹deny thee, saying, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

¹²Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

There is a generation that curse their father, and doth not bless their mother.

There is a generation ¹³that are blind in their own eyes, and yet is washed from their filthiness.

There is a generation, O how many are their eyes! and their eyes are lifted up.

There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaws as knives, ¹⁴to devour the poor off the earth, and the needy among men.

The horse-leach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things not, ¹⁵It is enough:

17 The ²eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of ³the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air, the way of a serpent upon a rock, the way of a ship in the ⁴midst of the sea, and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 For ⁵a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are ⁶exceeding wise:

25 The ⁷ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26 The ⁸conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them ⁹by bands;

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

30 A ¹⁰lion, which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

31 A ¹¹greyhound; an he-goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, ¹²lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood; so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

ECCLESIASTES;

OR, THE PREACHER.

CHAPTER 1.

The Preacher shows that all things here below are vain.

THE words of the Preacher, the son of David, king of Jerusalem.

CHAP. 1.

^b Ro. 8. 20.

^c ch. 3. 9.

2 Vanity ^aof vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all vanity.

3 What ^cprofit hath a man of his labour which he taketh under the sun?

One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh:
at the earth abideth for ever.
The sun also ariseth, and the moon goeth down, and he hasteth to his place where he arose.

The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually; and the wind returneth again according to his course.

All the rivers run into the sea;
yet the sea is not full: unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.

All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, and it shall be before us.

There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall remain after.

I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem;

And I gave my heart to seek out search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail which God given to the sons of man,
I have exercised therewith.

I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

That which is crooked cannot be made straight; and that which wanting cannot be numbered.

I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to the estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem; yea, my heart had great experience of dom and knowledge.

And I gave my heart to know dom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vanity of spirit.

For in much wisdom is much sorrow; and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. 18 Vanity of human labour, the fruit of which must soon be left to others.

I SAID ^a in mine heart, Go to now,
I will prove thee with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, ^b this also is vanity.

2 I said ^c of laughter, It is mad;
and of mirth, What doeth it?

3 I ^d sought in mine heart ^e to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom, and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men which they should do under the heaven ^f all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards;

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits;

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees;

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had ^g servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me;

8 I ^h gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces; I gat me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as ⁱ musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So ^j I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and ^k this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do; and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 ^l And I turned myself to behold wisdom, ^m and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? ⁿ even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw ^o that wisdom excel-leth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 The 'wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it⁷ happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had⁸ taken under the sun; because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or 'a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have showed myself wise under the sun. This is also m vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he⁹ leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

22 For n what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days are o sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 ¶ There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he ¹⁰ should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good ¹¹ in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER 3.

1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail. 18 Men and beasts equally subject to mortality.

TO every thing there is a season and a time ^a to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time ¹ to be born, and ^b a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted:

3 A ^c time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and time to build up;

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and time ^d to dance;

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; time to embrace, and a time ^e to refrain from embracing;

6 A time to ^f get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; ^g a time to keep silence, and time to speak;

8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 What ^h profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 I ⁱ have seen the travail which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 He ^j hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart; so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice and to do good in his life.

13 And also ^k that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: 'nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it that men should fear before him.

15 That ^m which hath been is now, and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth ⁿ that which is past.

16 And moreover ⁿ I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, ^o God shall judge the righteous and the wicked there is a time there for every pose and for every work.

I said in mine heart concern-the estate of the sons of men, at God might manifest them, that they might see that they selves are beasts.

For ^Pthat which befalleth the s of men befalleth beasts; even thing befalleth them: as the dieth, so dieth the other; yea, y have all one breath: so that a n hath no pre-eminence above a st: for all is vanity.

All go unto one place; ^Qall are the dust, and all turn to dust in.

Who knoweth the spirit ⁶of man t goeth upward, and the spirit the beast that goeth downward he earth?

Wherefore I perceive that there nothing better, than that a man ould rejoice in his own works; ^Rthat is his portion: for who ll bring him to see what shall after him?

CHAPTER 4.

anity increased unto men by oppression,
by envy, 5 by idleness, 7 by covetousness, by solitariness, 13 and by wilfulness.

I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done der the sun: and behold the rs of such as were oppressed, l they had no comforter; and the ¹side of their oppressors re was power; but they had no afterer.

Wherefore ^aI praised the dead ich are already dead, more than living which are yet alive.

Yea, ^bbetter is he than both they ich hath not yet been, who hath seen the evil work that is done der the sun.

^cAgain, I considered all travail, ¹²every right work, that ³for this an is envied of his neighbour.
is is also vanity and vexation of rit.

^eThe ^cfool foldeth his hands ether, and eateth his own flesh.
Better is an handful with quiet-is, than both the hands full with vail and vexation of spirit.

^fThen I returned, and I saw nity under the sun.

There is one alone, and there is ; a second; yea, he hath neither ld nor brother; yet is there no l of all his labour; neither is his re satisfied with riches; ^gneither saith he, For whom do I labour, travail.

9 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, ⁴who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him.
Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Vanities in divine service, 8 in murmuring against oppression, 9 and in riches.

18 To live contentedly is the gift of God.

KEEP ^athy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear ^bthan to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any ¹thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth; therefore let thy ^cwords be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

4 When ^dthou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: ^epay that which thou hast vowed.

5 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; ^gneither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but ^h fear thou God.

8 ¶ If thou ⁱ *seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not ² *at the matter: for ^j he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and *there be higher than they.

9 ¶ Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase. This is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There ^k is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail; and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 As ^l he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and ^m what profit hath he that ⁿ hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also he ^o eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold that which I have seen: ³ it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun ⁴ all the days of his life, which God giveth him; for it is his portion.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Vanity of riches without use; 3 of children, and long life, without 7 of insatiable desires, etc.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, ^a so that he wanteth nothing for his soul all that he desireth, yet ^b God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity and it is an evil disease.

3 ¶ If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and ^c also that he have no burial, I say, ^d that an untimely birth is better than he:

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: though he hath more rest than the other.

6 Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 All ^e the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the ¹ appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 Better is the sight of the eyes ² than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 ¶ That which hath been named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, ³ all the days of his vain life which he spendeth ⁴ as a shadow? for ^h who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

CHAPTER 7.

Remedies against vanity are a good one, 2 mortification, 7 patience, 11 wisdom. 23 Difficulty of getting wisdom.

GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and ^athe of death than the day of one's th.

^a It is better to go to the ^bhouse mourning than to go to the use of feasting: for that is the of all men; and the living will it to his heart.

Sorrow is better than laughter: by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

The heart of the wise is in the use of mourning: but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear song of fools.

For as the ²crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of fool. This also is vanity.

Surely oppression maketh a man mad; ^dand a gift depreyeth the heart.

Better is the end of a thing than beginning thereof; and ^ethe patient in spirit is better than the mad in spirit.

Be ^fnot hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the womb of fools.

Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not require ³wisely concerning this.

⁴ Wisdom is good with an inheritance; and ^{by it} there is profit them that see the sun.

For wisdom is a ⁵defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

Consider the work of God: ⁹for who can make that straight which hath made crooked?

In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath ⁶set the over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing under his hand.

All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: ^hthere is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

Be ⁱnot righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise:

18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 For ^lthere is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also ⁹take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

24 That which is far off, and ^mexceeding deep, who can find it out?

25 ¹⁰I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: ¹¹whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, saith the Preacher, ¹²counting one by one, to find out the account;

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, ⁿthat God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

CHAPTER 8.

² Kings greatly to be respected. ⁶ Divine providence to be observed. ¹⁶ Work of God unsearchable.

WHO is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and ¹the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, ^aand that in regard of the oath of God.

3 Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power; and ^bwho may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment ²shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6 Because ^cto every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 For ^dhe knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him ³when it shall be?

8 There ^eis no man that hath power *f*over the spirit, to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no ⁴discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein ^oone man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done. This is also vanity.

11 Because ^hsentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 Though ⁱa sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it ^khappeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous. I said, that this also is vanity.

15 Then ^lI commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry; for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which ^mGod giveth him under the sun.

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a ²man cannot find the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not it; yea farther, though a wise man think to know it, ^oyet shall he be able to find it.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Like things happen to good and bad. How to enjoy the good of this life. Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this ¹I considered in my heart, even to declare all ^athat the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 All ^bthings come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean, to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 For to him that is joined to the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die, but ^cthe dead know any thing, neither have they any more a reward: for ^dthe memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 ¶ Go thy way, ^eeat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack ointment.

9 ²Live joyfully with the woman whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is the ion in this life, and in thy labour ch thou takest under the sun.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor wledge, nor wisdom, in the earth, whither thou goest.

¶ I returned, ⁹ and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor riches to men of understanding, neither yet favour to men of skill; but all comes and chance happeneth to them all.

For ^h man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so the sons of men ⁱ snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

¶ This wisdom have I seen under the sun, and it seemed unto me:

There ^j was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it.

Now there was found in it a wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

Then ^k said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless ^l the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

The ^m words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of many that ruleth among fools.

¶ Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but ⁿ "one sinner destroyeth much good."

CHAPTER 10.

of wisdom and folly, 16 of riot, 18 slothfulness, 19 and money. 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent.

HEAD ¹ Flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a fool folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

A wise ^a man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

Yea also, when he that is a fool talketh by the way, ² his wisdom reproveth him, ^b and he saith to every man that he is a fool.

If the spirit of the ruler rise against thee, ^c leave not thy place; for ^d yielding pacifieth great wrathes.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth ³ from the ruler:

6 Folly is set ⁴ in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants ⁵ upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite
⁷ without enchantment; and ⁸ a babbling is no better.

12 The words of a wise man's mouth ⁹ are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of ¹⁰ his talk is mischievous madness.

14 A fool also ¹¹ is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be ¹² after him, who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wear-eth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 ¶ Woe ¹³ to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 ¶ By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 ¶ A feast is made for laughter, and wine ¹⁴ maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

20 ¶ Curse ¹⁵ not the king, nor not in thy ¹⁶ thought; and curse not the rich in thy bed-chamber: for ¹⁷ a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Directions for charity. 7 Death ought to be remembered in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth.

CAST thy bread ¹ upon the waters:
² for thou shalt find it after many days.

2 Give ^ba portion ^cto seven, and also to eight; ^dfor thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As ^ethou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand; for thou knowest not whether ²shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 ¶ Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all, yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 ¶ Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, ^fand walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things ^gGod will bring thee into judgment.

10 Therefore remove ³sorrow from thy heart, and ^hput away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

CHAPTER 12.

1 The Creator to be remembered in the days of youth, and must not be deferred.
13 The fear of God the chief concern of man.

REMEMBER now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

7 Then ^fshall the dust return to the earth as it was; ^gand the spirit shall return unto God ^hwho gave it.

8 ¶ Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

9 And ²moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The Preacher sought to find out ³acceptable words; and that which was written was upright, and words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my soul be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 ¶ ⁵Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For ⁴God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, whether it be evil.

the church's love to Christ: 5 she confesses her deformity, 7 and prays to be rected to his flock. 12 The church and Christ congratulate each other.

THE ^aSong of songs, which is Solomon's.

Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for ¹thy love is better than wine.

Because of the savour of thy odours, thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the ^bvirgins love thee.

Draw ^cme, we ^dwill run after thee. The King ^ehath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee; ^fwill remember thy love more than wine: ²the upright love thee.

I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the sun is darkened by the curtains of ^gommon.

Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath darkened upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be ³as one that turneth aside from the flocks of his companions?

If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way through by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

I have compared thee, ⁴O my love, to a company of horses in ^haraoh's chariots.

Thy cheeks are comely with ⁱjewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

We will make thee borders of gold, with studs of silver.

While the King sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth its smell thereof.

⁸ ¶ The ^cvoice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

⁹ My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, ⁶showing himself through the lattice.

¹⁰ My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

¹¹ For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

¹² The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of ^dbirds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;

¹³ The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, ^alet me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us ^athe foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

1 Christ sets forth the graces of the church 8 he shows his love to her. 16 she proves to be made fit for his presence.

BEHOLD, ^athou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; ^hthou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as ^ba flock of goats, ¹that appear from mount Gilead.

2 Thy ^cteeth are like a flock of shewbread that are even shorn, which came from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is come out of thy temples: are like a piece of pomegranate within thy locks.

6 Until the day ²break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

7 Thou ^oart all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

8 ¶ Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amanah, from the top of Shenir and ^hHermah, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

9 Thou hast ³ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thy ointments than all spices!

11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is ^klike the smell of Lebanon.

black as a raven:

12 His ⁹eyes are as the eyes of

O daughters of Jerusalem.

toward her.

WHITHER is thy beloved gone, ^aO thou fairest among women?
whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, ^eterrible as an army with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me, for ¹they have overcome me: thy hair is ^fas a flock of goats that appear from Gilead:

6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

7 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

8 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

10 ¶ Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

11 I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and ⁹to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded.

12 ²Or ever I was aware, my soul ³made me like the chariots of Ammi-nadib.

13 Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company ⁴of two armies.

HOW beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O ^aprince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman:

2 Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not ¹liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies:

3 Thy ^btwo breasts are like two young roes that are twins:

4 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fish-pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus:

5 Thine head upon thee is like ²Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple: the king is ³held in the galleries.

6 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us ^csee if the vine flourishes, whether the tender grape ^cappears, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will ^fI give thee my loves.

13 The ⁹mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates ^hare all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Love of the church to Christ. 6 Vehement love. 8 Calling of the Gentiles. Christ's coming prayed for.

OH that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, and would instruct me: I would cat thee to drink of ^aspiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 His ^bleft hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, ²that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

5 ¶ Who is this that cometh from ^cthe wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth; there she brought thee forth that beareth thee.

6 Set ^dme as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for ^clove is strong as death; jealousy is ³cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which have a most vehement flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, he would utterly be condemned.

8 ¶ We ⁹have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver; and she be ^ha door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.

10 I ⁱam a wall, and ^jmy breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found ⁴favour.

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baithamon; he ^klet out the vineyard keepers; every one for the thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must bring a thousand, and those that eat the fruit thereof two hundred.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

ISAIAH.

CHAPTER 1.

Isaiah's complaint of Judah; 5 their universal corruption: 16 he exhorts to penitence, with promises and threatenings.

HE ^avision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel hath not known, my people doth not consider.

A sinful nation, a people ¹laden with iniquity, a ^dseed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! They have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel to anger, they are ²gone away backward.

Why ^cshould ye be stricken any more? ye will ³revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it: but wounds, and bruises, and scabbing sores: they ⁴have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ⁴ointment.

Your ⁵country is desolate, your cities are burnt with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, ⁵as a wilderness thrown by strangers.

And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a watch-tower in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

Except ⁶the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 ^cHear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of ^cSodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah:

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your ^dsacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of ^ehe-goats.

12 When ye come ^fto appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more vain oblations: incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is ^giniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

15 And ^hwhen ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; ⁱyea, when ye ^jmake many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of ^kblood.

16 Wash ^lyou, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; ^mcease to do evil:

17 Learn to do well; ⁿseek judgment. ^orelieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 ^pCome now, and ^qlet us reason together, saith the LORD: Though your sins be as scarlet, ^rthey shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ^sye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: *for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 ¶ How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

23 Thy ^tprinces are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, ^uI will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

25 And I ^vwill turn my hand upon thee, and ¹²purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, The faithful city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and ¹³her converts with righteousness.

28 And the ¹⁴destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of ^wthe oaks which ye have desired, ^xand ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, ¹⁵and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, ^cjudge I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done unto my vineyard, that I have done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth vipers?

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and I will break down the wall thereof, and it shall be ⁴trodden down:

9 ⁸In mine ears said the LORD hosts, ⁹Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one ^cbath, and the seed of homer shall yield an ephah.

11 ¶ Woe unto them that rise early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine ¹⁰flame them!

IN the year that ^a king Uzziah sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and ¹ his train filled the 2 Above it stood the seraphim:

each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And ² one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts: ³ the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the ⁴ door moved the house was filled with smoke.

5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am ⁵ undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips:
for mine eyes have seen the King,
the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, ⁶ having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off ^c the altar:

7 And he ⁷ laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for ^d us? Then said
I, ⁸ Here am I; send me.

9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, ⁹Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye ¹⁰indeed, but perceive not.

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be ¹¹utterly desolate, 12 And the LORD have ⁶removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 But yet in it shall be a tenth, ¹²and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose ¹³substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the sholy seed shall be the substance thereof.

AND it came to pass, in the days of Ahaz ^athe son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria ¹is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and ²Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the ^bconduit of the upper pool in the ³highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, ⁴neither be faint-hearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

And on all hills that shall be covered with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be the sending forth of oxen, and the treading of lesser cattle.

FOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning ¹Mahar-shalal-hash-baz.

And I took unto me faithful messengers to record, ^aUriah the seer, and Zechariah the son of Berechiah.

And I ²went unto the prophet; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Mahar-shalal-hash-baz:

For ^bbefore the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, ³the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Syria.

¶ The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

Forasmuch as this people retheth the waters of ^cShiloah that softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Mahaliah's son;

Now therefore, behold, the LORD bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and cover all his banks.

And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over; he shall reach even to the neck: and ⁴the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of the land, O ^dImmanuel.

¹¹ For the LORD spake thus to me ⁶with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

¹² Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; ⁹neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

²² And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

2 The ^cpeople that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and ²not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

4 ³For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day ^dof Midian.

5 ⁴For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; ⁵but this shall be with burning and ⁶fuel of fire.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace ^kthere shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

18 ¶ For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in thickets of the forest; and the mountains shall mount up like the lifting of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the ¹³fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother.

WOE unto them that decree void the righteous decrees, and ¹that write grievousness which they have prescribed;

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people: that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

and what will ye do in "the day of visitation, and in the desolation when shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. All this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out against them.

O ³ Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, ⁴and the staff in their hand mine indignation.

As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

Wherefore it shall come to pass, that, when the Lord hath perfected his whole work upon mount Zion, and on Jerusalem, I will finish the fruit ⁷of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

For ^hhe saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: I have removed the bounds of people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants ⁱlike a valiant man.

20 ¹³ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

young men to pieces; and they

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be ⁷as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

20 It ^kshall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there:

21 But ⁸wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of ⁹doleful creatures; and ¹⁰owls shall dwell there, and ¹¹satyrs shall dance there.

22 And ¹²the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their ¹³desolate houses, and ¹⁴dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

CHAPTER 14.

1 God's merciful restoration of Israel. 3 Israel's triumph in the fall of Babylon.

FOR the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and ^awill yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: ^band the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, ¹whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

3 And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,

4 That thou ^cshalt take up this ²proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the ³golden city ceased!

5 The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath with ⁴a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

8 Yea, ^dthe fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

9 ⁵Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the ⁶chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

12 How art thou fallen from heaven, ⁷O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

13 For thou hast said in thine heart, ^eI will ascend into heaven, ^fI will exalt my throne above the 17 That made the world a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that ^jopened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house:

19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stone of the pit; as a carcase trodden under feet.

20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain the people: the seed of evil-doers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut from Babylon the name, and remnant, ^kand son, and nephew, saith the LORD.

23 I will also make it a possession for the bitter, and pools of water, and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 ¶ The LORD of hosts hath sworn saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand.

25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27 For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disan-

In the year that ^mking Ahaz was this burden.
Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that e thee is broken: for out of serpent's root shall come forth a scorpion, and his fruit shall be a flying serpent.
And the first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie in safety: and I will kill thy remnant with famine, and he shall slay the remnant.

Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou, O Palestina, art dissolved: for ye shall come from the north, and none shall be alone at appointed times.
What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? the LORD hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall dwell in it.

Because in the night ^bAr of Moab is waste, and ¹brought to silence; in the night Kir of Moab is waste, and brought to silence; he is gone up to Bajith, and to on, the high places, to weep: he shall howl over Nebo, and Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard shall fall off.

In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the roofs of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, ²weep abundantly.

And ^cHeshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry: his life shall be grievous unto his heart shall cry out for Moab; fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, a city of three years old: for ^dby mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of ⁴destruction.

For the waters ^eof Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Moab exhorted to obedience to the throne of David, 6 and threatened for his pride with lamentable judgments.

SEND ^aye the lamb to the ruler ^bof the land from ¹Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, that as a wandering bird ²cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of ^bArnon.

3 ³Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noon-day; hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the ⁴extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, ⁵the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy ^cshall the throne be ⁶established; and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

6 ^cWe have heard of the ^dpride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: ⁷but his lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of ^eKir-hareseth shall ye ⁸mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are ⁹stretched out, they are gone over the sea:

9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh; for ¹⁰the shouting for thy summer fruits, and for thy harvest, is fallen.

10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-haresh.

12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the *f*high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, ⁹as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and ¹¹feeble.

3 The ^cfortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and ^dthe fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 And ^eit shall be as when the harvest-mangathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

3 All ye inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth, see when he lifteth up an ensign on mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

For so the LORD said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will ⁵conquer in my dwelling place like a man's heat ⁶upon herbs, and like a man's heat of dew in the heat of harvest. For afore the harvest, when the sun is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and take away and cut in the branches. They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the beasts shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall feed upon them.

In that time ^ashall the present be brought unto the LORD of hosts a people ⁷scattered and peeled, from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation cut out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, and the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

And I will ¹set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

And the spirit of Egypt ²shall be in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to charmers, and to them that are familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

And the Egyptians will I ⁴give into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts.

1 The prophet in vision sees the fall of Babylon by the Medes and Persians, he gives warning to Edom.

THE burden of the desert of the sea. As^a whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible place.

2 A¹ grievous vision is declared unto me; the^b treacherous dealer^c dealeth treacherously, and spoiler spoileth. ^dGo up, O Eliphaz, besiege, O Media: all the sight thereof have I made to cease.

3 Therefore are my loins filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4² My heart panted, fearfully affrighted me: ^dthe night of pleasure hath he³ turned into bitterness unto me.

5 Prepare^e the table, watch in the watch-tower, eat, drink: arise, princes, and anoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set a watchman, him declare what he seeth.

7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; he hearkened diligently with much heed:

8 And⁴ he cried, A lion: My lord stand continually upon the watch-tower in the day-time, and I am in my ward⁵ whole nights;

9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, ⁶Babylon is fallen, is fallen, and all the graven images of gods he hath broken unto the ground.

10 O⁷ my threshing, and the^c cutting of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 ¶ The⁸ burden of Dumah. calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: ye will enquire, enquire ye: return ye.

13 ¶ The burden upon Arabia. the forest in Arabia shall lodge, O ye travelling company of Dedanim.

The inhabitants of the land of ma⁷ brought water to him that thirsty, they prevented with bread him that fled.

For they fled^s from the swords, in the drawn sword, and from the bow, and from the grievousness of war.

For thus hath the Lord said unto me: Within a year, according to the curse of an hireling, and all the city of Kedar shall fail:

And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD^m God of Israel hath spoken it.

THE burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the use-tops?

Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound¹ by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far. Therefore said I, Look away from me: ² I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the railing of the daughter of my people.

For it is a day of trouble, and of weeping down, and of perplexity: for the LORD God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

And ^b Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and ^r uncovered the shield.

And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array⁵ at the gate.

12 And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13 And ^b behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: ⁷ let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall die.

14 And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall^a not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts.

15 ^c Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, evenⁱ unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say,

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all

1 Miserable overthrow of Tyre: 17 her restoration after seventy years, etc.

THE ^aburden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be ¹still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and ^bshe is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon; for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As ^cat the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your ^djoyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her ²afar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, ^ethe crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, ³to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more ⁴strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea; he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment ⁵against ⁶the merchant city, to destroy the ⁷strong holds thereof.

1 God's judgments upon the land. 12 remnant shall joyfully praise him.

BEHOOLD, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh waste, and ¹turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the ²priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; ^aas with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

1 The prophet praises God for his past judgments; 6 for future salvation of his people, and for his victory over their enemies.

O LORD, thou art my God; ^aI will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy ^bcounsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made ^cof a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin; a palace of strangers to be no city;
it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people ^dglorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, ^ea refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in this mountain shall ^fthe LORD of hosts make unto ^gall people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will ¹destroy in this mountain the face of the covering ²cast over all people, and ^hthe veil that is spread over all nations.

8 He will ⁱswallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will ^jwipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth:
for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; ^k we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be ³trodden down under him, even as straw is ⁴trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands.

12 And the ¹fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAPTER 26.

IN that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

2 Open ^aye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the ¹truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him ²in perfect peace, whose ³mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

5 ¶ For he bringeth down them that dwell on high: the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is uprightness: thou, ^bmost upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, ^cin the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 With ^dmy soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for ^ewhen thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

12 ¶ LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works ⁶in us.

13 O LORD our God, ⁱother lords besides thee have had dominion over us; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hast removed it far unto all ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out their prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of delivery, is in pain, and crieth in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, have been in pain, we have been brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in earth, neither have ^kthe inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Thy ^ldead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

In that day sing ye unto her,

the LORD do keep it; I will keep it every moment: lest any man hurt it, I will keep it night and day.
Grief is not in me: who would take the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through thorns, I would burn them together.
Or let him take hold of my

of the world with fruit.

Hath he smitten him, as he he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

In measure, when it shooteth

By this therefore shall the

1 Ephraim threatened. 16 Christ pro-

WOE to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are to overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the LORD hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet:

4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up.

5 ¶ In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

11 For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 ¶ Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation ^aa stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place.

18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be ⁸trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night; and it shall be a vexation only ⁹to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in ¹⁰mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of ¹¹Gibeon, that he may do his work, ¹²his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong; for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

23 ¶ Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in ¹⁰the principal wheat, and the appointed barley, and the ¹¹rye, in their ¹²place?

26 ¹³For his God doth instruct to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor bruise it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, ¹⁴which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

CHAPTER 29.

¹ God's judgment upon Jerusalem: ² 9 of senselessness, 13 and deep hypocrisy. A promise of better things in succeeding times.

WOE ¹to Ariel, to Ariel, city where David dwelt! ²ye year to year; let them ³sacrifices.

2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me Ariel.

3 And I will camp against the round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and will raise forts against thee.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, ⁴out of the ground, and thy speech shall ⁵whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible one shall be as chaff that passeth away; yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.

6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

7 And the multitude of all nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her a munition, and that distress shall be as a dream of a night on.

It shall even be as when an gry man dreameth, and, behold, ateth; but he awaketh, and his is empty: or as when a thirsty dreameth, and, behold, he keteth; but he awaketh, and, old, he is faint, and his soul appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight not mount Zion.

Stay yourselves, and wonder; ye out, and cry: they are aken, but not with wine; they ger, but not with strong drink. For the LORD hath poured out in you the spirit of deep sleep, hath closed your eyes: the shets and your rulers, the seers he covered.

And the vision of all is become o you as the words of a book is sealed, which men deliver to that is learned, saying, Read, I pray thee: and he saith, I not; for it is sealed:

And the book is delivered to that is not learned, saying, nd this, I pray thee: and he nd, I am not learned.

¶ Wherefore the Lord said, asmuch as this people draw me with their mouth, and with r lips do honour me, but have oved their heart far from me, their fear toward me is taught he precept of men:

Therefore, behold, I will pro to do a marvellous work among people, even a marvellous work a wonder; for the wisdom of r wise men shall perish, and the erstanding of their prudent men l be hid.

Woe unto them that seek deep hide their counsel from the D, and their works are in the x, and they say, Who seeth us? who knoweth us?

Surely your turning of things de down shall be esteemed as otter's clay: for shall the work of him that made it, He made not? or shall the thing framed of him that framed it, He had understanding?

¶ Is it not yet a very little ie, and Lebanon shall be turned a fruitful field, and the fruit-field shall be esteemed as a st?

CHAPTER 30.

1 The people threatened for their confidence in Egypt, 8 and contempt of God's word. 18 His mercy to the church. 27 Destruction of Assyria.

WOE to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin:

2 That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

4 For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

5 They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

6 The burden of the beasts of the south: Into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.

8 ¶ Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever;

9 That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD:

10 Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits:

11 Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength; and ye would not.

16 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill.

18 And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you; and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God

19 ¶ For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear, he will answer thee.

20 And though the Lord give thee the bread of adversity, and water of affliction, yet shall thy teachers be removed in corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

21 And thine ears shall hear the word behind thee, saying, The way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

22 Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt break them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

23 Then shall he give the rain thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day thy cattle feed in large pastures.

24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be upon the high mountain, and upon the high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the slaughter, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of the people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 ¶ Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue devouring fire:

28 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity, and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err:

Ye shall have a song, as in the day, when a holy solemnity is kept; gladness of heart, as when one shall with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel.

And the LORD shall cause ¹⁴his precious voice to be heard, and will show the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of anger, and with the flame of a consuming fire, with scattering, and pest, and hailstones.

For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

And ¹⁵in every place where the wounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall ¹⁶lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he be ¹⁷with it.

For ¹⁸Tophet is ordained; yea, for the king it is prepared: hath made it deep and large; the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

TOE to them ^athat go down to Egypt for help, and ^bstay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong: but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, ^cneither seek the LORD!

Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not ¹call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

Now the Egyptians are ^dmen, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, and he that helpeth shall fall, and that which is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

For thus hath the LORD spoken to me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is led forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the ²noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even ^fwhen the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he ^gstand.

9 ¶ Rise up, ye women ^hthat are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless

16 Then ^fjudgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

1 Sennacherib invades Judah. 13 Rabshakeh's blasphemous persuasions to the people: 22 his words told to Hezekiah.

NOW ^ait came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defended cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from ^bLachish to Jerusalem, unto king Hezekiah, with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the

5 I say, sayest thou, (but thou hast ²vain words,) ³*I have* courage and strength for war: now whom dost thou trust, that rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the ⁴stars: this broken reed, on Egypt; w on if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not whose high places and ^cwhose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore ⁵give pledge to me, that thou wilt not say, I will pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee a thousand horses, if thou be able, that they may set riders upon thee.

9 How then wilt thou turn the face of one ⁶captain of the army, of my master's servants, and thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up with thee against this land to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna, and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Syriac I pray thee, unto thy servants: ⁷the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thee to speak these words? he hath not sent me to the men that are upon the wall, that they may stand idly by, and drink their piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Syrian language, and said, Hear ye words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let Hezekiah deceive you; for he is not able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make trust in the LORD, saying,

RD will surely deliver us: this shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

Hearken not to Hezekiah: for saith the king of Assyria, I have made an agreement with me by a sent, and come out to me: and ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink every one the waters of his own cern:

Until I come and take you away a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of oil and vineyards.

Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver you.

Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Ahaz the son of Asaph, the recorder, and Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, where-with the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee: and when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly, and shalt thou be delivered?

Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubim, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline ^j thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the ⁴ nations, and their countries,

19 And have ⁵ cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel. Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed; and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 ⁶ By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down ⁷ the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and ⁸ the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the ⁹ besieged places.

26 ¹⁰ Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were ¹¹ of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of ¹⁶ Armenia: Esar-haddon his son reigned in stead.

⁴ Hezekiah's life lengthened; ⁸ the sun ten degrees backward for a sign to ⁹ His thanksgiving.

IN ^a those days was Hezekiah brought unto death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, ¹Set thine house in fire: for thou shalt die, and not live.

Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, and said, ^bRemember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have stood before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have not departed: that which is good in thy eyes: and Hezekiah wept ²sore.

Then came the word of the LORD unto Isaiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

And I will deliver thee and this land out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and ^cI will defend this land.

And this shall be ^da sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath said:

1 Merodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah, hath notice of his treasures. 3 Isaiah foretells the Babylonian captivity.

AT ^athat time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And ^bHezekiah was glad of them, and showed them the house of his ¹precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his ²armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah showed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not showed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, ^cthat all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and ^dthey shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, ^eGood is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant,
Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my *e*friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ Fear thou not; *f*or I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be *6*ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and *7*they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them. even *8*them that contended with thee: *9*they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye *10*men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and *h*thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, *i*I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having *11*teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

16 Thou shalt *j*fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them:
and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will open ^krivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the ^lwilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together;

20 That ^mthey may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 ¶ ¹²Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

22 Let them bring them forth, and show us what shall happen: let them show the former things, what they be, that we may ¹³consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23 Show ⁿthe things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, ^odo good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

24 Behold, ye are ¹⁴of nothing, and your work ¹⁵of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun ^pshall he call upon my name; and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth; yea, there is none that declareth; yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 ¹⁶The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings.

28 For ^qI beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could ¹⁷answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their

CHAPTER 42.

1 Office of Christ: 5 God's promise to 10 Exhortation to praise God.

BEHOLD ^amy servant, who ^buphold; mine elect, in ^cwhom my soul ^ddelighteth: I ^ehave my Spirit upon him; he shall ^fbring forth judgment to the Gentiles:

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the ¹smoking flax shall he not ²quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He ^dshall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: ^eand the isles shall wait for his law.

5 ¶ Thus saith God the LORD, ^fhe that created the heavens, stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that will bring cometh out of it; ^ghe that giveth breath unto the people upon earth, and spirit to them that walk therein:

6 I the LORD have called thee righteous, and will hold thee by the hand, and will keep thee, and will be for a covenant to the people, for ^ha light of the Gentiles;

7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house.

8 I ^kam the LORD; that is my name: and my ^lglory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things will I declare: before they spring forth I will tell you of them.

10 ¶ Sing ^munto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the earth, ye ⁿthat go down to the sea, and ⁴all that is therein; isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit, let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war:

cry, yea, roar; he shall ⁵preagainst his enemies.

Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye

Who ^o is blind, but my servant?
af, as my messenger that I sent?
is blind as he that is perfect, blind as the LORD's servant?

Seeing many things, ^pbut thou vest not; opening the ears, he heareth not.

The LORD is well pleased for righteousness' sake; he will nify the law, and make ⁸it honoble.

But this is a people robbed and ed; ⁹they are all of them snared bles, and they are hid in prison es: they are for a prey, and delivereth; for ¹⁰a spoil, and saith, Restore.

Who among you will give ear

the time to come?

Who gave Jacob for a spoil, Israel to the robbers? did not LORD, he against whom we sinned? for they would not in his ways, neither were they cient unto his law.

Therefore he hath poured upon the fury of his anger, and the not; and it burned him, yet did it not to heart.

he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: ^afor I have redeemed thee, ^bI

2 When ^cthou passest through the waters, I ^dwill be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: ^fI gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast ^gprecious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy ^hlife.

5 Fear ⁱnot; for I am with thee:

yea, I have made him.

8 ^lBring ^kforth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and show us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye ^lare my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my ^mservant whom I have chosen; that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was ²no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, am the LORD; and besides me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have showed, when there was no ⁿstrange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 Yea, ^obefore the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall ³let it?

14 ^pThus saith the LORD, your
Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel;

For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their ⁴nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your ¹King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which ⁴maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which ⁷bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a ⁸new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beasts of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the ⁵owls: because ⁴I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This ²people have I formed for myself; they shall show forth my praise.

22 ¶ But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou ⁷hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast not brought me the ⁶small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices: I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou ⁷filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices; but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied ¹⁰me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that ⁸blotteth out thy transgressions ⁹for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy ²first father hath sinned, and thy ⁸teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore ⁴I have profaned the ⁹princes of the sanctuary, ⁶and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

CHAPTER 45.

1 God calls Cyrus for his church's sake:
5 he asserts his own omnipotency. 22
God's salvation extends to all nations.

THUS saith the LORD to his ¹anointed, to Cyrus, whose ²right hand I ³have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates; and 2 I will go before thee, and make and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I the LORD, which call ⁴thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For ⁵Jacob my servant's sake,

7 I form the light, and create darkness ; I make peace, and ^h create evil : I the LORD do all these things.

8 Drop ⁱ down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness : let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together ; I the LORD have created it.

18 For thus saith the LORD, created the heavens, God him that formed the earth, and made he hath established it, he created not in vain, he formed it to be habited : I am the LORD ; and there is none else.

19 I have not spoken in ^u secret a dark place of the earth : I called unto the seed of Jacob, I ye me in vain : ^v I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

CHAPTER 46.

1 The idols of Babylon could not save themselves. 3 God saves his people to the end. 5 Idols not comparable with God.

BEL ^a boweth down, Nebo stoopeth ; their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cat : your carriages were heavy load, ^b they are a burden to the weary beast.

2 They stoop, they bow down together ; they could not deliver their burden, but ^c themselves are gotten into captivity.

Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the seed of Israel, which ^care borne from the belly, which ^care tried from the womb:

And even to your old age ^dI am God; and even to hoar hairs ^ewill I try you: I have made, and I will carry; even I will carry, and will give you.

To whom will ye liken me, or make me equal, and compare; that we may be like?

They lavish gold out of the bag, weigh silver in the balance, hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, they worship.

They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one will cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his snare.

Remember this, and show yourselves men: bring it again to mind, ye transgressors.

Remember ^fthe former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me,

Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done, saying, ^gMy counsel shall stand, I will do all my pleasure:

Calling a ravenous bird from the east, ^hthe man that executeth counsel from a far country: ⁱI have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed, I will also do it.

I ^kbring near my righteousness; shall not be far off, and my salvation ^lshall not tarry: and I will give salvation in Zion for Israel's glory.

meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: ^dI will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 ¶ As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou ^esilent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: ^ffor thou shalt no more be called The lady of kingdoms.

6 I ^gwas wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst show them no mercy; ^hupon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be ⁱa lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, ^jI am, and none else besides me; ^kI shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But these two things shall come to thee in ^la moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection ^mfor the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 For thou ⁿhast trusted in thy wickedness: ^othou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath ^pperverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know ^qfrom whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to ^rput it off: and desolation ^sshall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the ^tastrologers, the stargazers, ^uthe monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as ^astubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver ^bthemselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even ^rthy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

CHAPTER 48.

1 God, to convince the people of their obstinacy, reveals his prophecies: 12 he exhorts them to obedience.

HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which ^aswear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and ^bstay themselves upon the God of Israel: The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them; I did them suddenly, ^cand they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art ¹obstinate, and ^dthy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I showed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have showed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a ^ctransgressor from the womb.

9 ¶ For ^fmy name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

TEN, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; the LORD hath called me from womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

CHAPTER 51.

1 The righteous exhorted, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ: 4 A taint of his salvation.

HEarken to me, ¹ye that fear the LORD, low after righteousness, that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged. 2 Look ²unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bore you: for I called him alone, blessed him, and increased him. 3 For the LORD ³shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her wastes; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found there: thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 ¶ Hearken unto me, my people, and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment rest for a light of the people.

5 My ⁵righteousness is near: salvation is gone forth, and my arms shall judge the people: isles shall wait upon me, and mine arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for ⁶the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall be like a molten metal, and the mountains shall be like chaff.

smoke, and the earth shall wax like a garment, and they that therein shall die in like manner; but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

Hearken unto me, ye that desire righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the approach of men, neither be ye ashamed of their revilings.

For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall devour them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

Awake! awake! I put on strength, O arm of the LORD; as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not that hath cut Rahab, and broken the dragon?

Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the deep; that hath made the paths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over?

Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting gladness shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

For even I, am he that comforteth the lowly, who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass;

And forgettest the LORD thy Maker, that hath stretched forth his heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day, because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor?

The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he will not die in the pit, nor that his read should fail.

But I am the LORD thy God, who have divided the sea, whose waves are broken: The LORD of hosts is his name.

And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and the foundations of the earth, say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 ¶ Awake! awake! stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury: thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee?

20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 ¶ Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine:

22 Thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

CHAPTER 52.

1 The church roused with God's promise of free redemption. 13 Prophecy of the glory of Christ after his sufferings.

AWAKE! awake! put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.

2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? They that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak; behold, it is I.

7 ¶ How ⁹beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see ^heye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and ^tall the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 ¶ Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ^kye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: ^tfor the LORD will go before you, ^mand the God of Israel will ¹be your rewarer.

13 ¶ Behold, ⁿmy servant shall ²deal prudently, ^ohe shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee; his visage ^pwas so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

15 So ^qshall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that ^rwhich had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

5 But he ⁱwas ³wounded for transgressions, he was bruise our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and his stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have astray; we have turned every to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquities of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: ⁱhe is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a lamb before her shearers is dumb, ^jopeneth not his mouth.

8 ^kHe was taken from prison from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for ^lhe cut off out of the land of the living for the transgression of my people ^mwas he stricken.

reproach of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widhood any more.

For thy Maker is thine husband;
the LORD of hosts is his name;
thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel: ^b The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

For the LORD hath called thee thou wast refused, saith thy God.

For ^c a small moment have I forgotten thee: but with great mercies will I gather thee.

calls to faith, 6 and to repentance. 8
Happy state of those who believe.

HO, ^a every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; ^b come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye ¹ spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good,
and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and ^c come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; ^d and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the ^e sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him ^f for a witness to the people, ^g a leader and 5 Behold, ^h thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; ⁱ for he hath glorified thee.

6 ¶ Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and ²the unrighteous man ^khis thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, ⁴and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for ³he will abundantly pardon.

8 ¶ For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater;

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that ^mmen may bring unto thee the ⁿforces of the Gentiles, and ^othat their kings may be brought.

12 For ^pthe nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, ^qthose nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The ^rglory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make ^sthe place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall ^tbow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD. The ^uZion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through ^vthee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that ^wI the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders: but thou shalt call ^uthy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 The ^vsun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and ^wthy God thy glory.

20 Thy ^xsun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they ^yshall inherit the land for ever, ^zthe branch of my planting, ^athe work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 A ^blittle one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

1 Office of Christ. 4 Restoration, 6 and blessedness of the church.

THE ^aSpirit of the LORD God is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me ^bto bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim ^cliberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To ^dproclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and ^ethe day of vengeance of our God; to ^fcomfort all that ⁿourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, ^gto give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called Trees of righteousness, The ^hplanting of the LORD, ⁱthat he might be glorified.

4 ¶ And they shall ^jbuild the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And ^kstrangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen, and your vine-dressers.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their spring among the people: all shall see them shall acknowledge that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

CHAPTER 62.

1 The prophet's fervent zeal for the accomplishment of God's promises to the church. 6 Ministers incited to importunity.

FOR Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until righteousness thereof go forth, brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 And the Gentiles shall see righteousness, and all kings shall glory: ^qand thou shalt be called a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a ^rcrowning glory in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem in the hand of God.

4 Thou ^sshalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed ¹Desolate: thou shalt be called ²Hephzibah, and thy land ³Beulah: for the LORD

lighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee; and ⁴as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy rejoice over thee.

I ^d have set watchmen upon the walls, O Jerusalem, which shall hold their peace day nor night: ⁵ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence, and give him no ⁶rest, till he publish, and till he make Jerusalem ^a a praise in the earth.

The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, ⁷ Surely I will no more eat thy corn to be meat for thine emies; and the sons of the anger shall not drink thy wine, the which thou hast laboured:
but they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; they that have brought it toward shall drink it ⁸ in the courts of holiness.

Go through, go through the desert; prepare ye the way of the highway; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people.

Behold, the LORD hath promised unto the end of the world, ye ye to the daughter of Zion, hold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his ⁹ reward is with him, and his work before him.

And they shall call them, The

there was none to uphold: there-tion unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and ^e make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the 7 ¶ I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they ^{are} my people, children that will not lie:
² so he was their Saviour.

9 In ^f all their affliction he was afflicted, and ^g the angel of his presence saved them: in ^h his love and in his pity he redeemed them;
and ⁱ he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and ^j vexed his Holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 ¶ Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the ³ shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his Holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name.

15 ¶ Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, ⁴the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our Father, though Abraham ^kbe ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our Father, ⁵our Redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

17 ¶ O LORD, why hast thou ^lmade us to err from thy ways, and ^mhardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The ⁿpeople of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; ⁶they were not called by thy name.

OH that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when ¹the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world men ^ahave not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye ²seen, O God, besides thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness; those that remember thee in thy ways; behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in ^cthose is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all ^dour righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And ^ethere is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast ³consumed us, ⁴because of our iniquities.

1 The Gentiles called. 2 The Jews rejected. 17 Blessed state of the new Jerusalem.

I^a AM sought of them that ascribe not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name.

2 I ^chave spread out my hands the day unto a rebellious people, which ^dwalketh in a way that is not good, after their own thought.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not ⁴cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and ⁹your bones shall flourish like an herb; and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The calling of Jeremiah: 11 his visions denoting God's speedy judgments. 17 God promises him his assistance.

were ¹in Anathoth in the land Benjamin:

2 To whom the ²word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the king of Judah, ³in the thirteenth year of his reign.

came also in the days of Jakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the ninth year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the bringing away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

Then said I, Ah, Lord God! I cannot speak; for I am dumb.

But the LORD said unto me, Say I am a child: for thou shalt say to all that I shall send thee, Whatsoever the LORD command thee thou shalt speak.

Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. Then the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

See, I have this day set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will perform my word to perform it.

And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see nothing but a pot; and the face thereof toward the north.

Then the LORD said unto me, Of the north an evil shall come forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne before the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against the cities of Judah.

And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto

CHAPTER 2.

1 God's expostulation with the Jews. 35 The vain confidences of Judah rejected.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the first-fruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass ³over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing:

11 Hath ⁹a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? ^hbut my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the ⁴fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 ¶ Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he ⁴spoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him, and ⁵yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burnt without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes ⁶have broken the crown of thy head.

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of ^kSihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own ^lwickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and ^mthou saidst, I will not ⁷transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had ⁿplanted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet ^othine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

11 ³And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treach-

12 Go and proclaim these words toward the ⁴north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you ⁷pastors according to mine heart, which shall ⁸feed you with knowledge and 16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they ⁹shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD;

neither shall it ¹⁰come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it, neither shall ¹¹that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the ¹²imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days ¹³the house of Judah shall walk ¹⁴with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to ¹⁵the land that I have ¹⁶given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a ¹⁷pleasant land, ¹⁸a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My ¹⁹father;
and shalt not turn away ²⁰from me.

20 Surely as a wife treacherously

departeth from her ¹²husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 ¶ A voice was heard upon ^vthe high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 Return, ^wye backsliding children, and I ^xwill heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly ^yin vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: ^ztruly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 For ^ashame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: ^bfor we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and ^chave not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

1 God calls Israel by his promises: 3 he exhorts Judah to repentance. 19 Lamentation for Judah.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, ^areturn unto me; and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 And ^bthou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in ^ctruth, in judgment, and in righteousness; ^dand the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him ^eshall they glory.

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, ^fBreak up your fallow ground, and ^gsow not among thorns.

4 Circumcise ^hyourself to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest ⁱmy fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Judgments of God upon the Jews for their depravity, 7 adultery, 20 and injustice.

RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, ^aif ye can find a man, ^bif there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.

2 And ^cthough they say, The LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not ^dthine eyes upon the truth? thou hast ^estricken them, but they have not grieved;
thou hast consumed them, but ^fthey have refused to receive correction:
they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for ^gthey know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for ^hthey have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken ⁱthe yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore ^ja lion out of the forest shall slay them, ^kand a wolf of the ^levenings shall spoil them, ^ma leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces:
because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings ⁿare increased.

7 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and ^osworn by them that ^pare no gods: ^qwhen I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 They ^rwere as fed horses in the morning: every one ^sneighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 Shall I not visit for these things?
saith the LORD: ^tand shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ Go ^uye up upon her walls, and destroy: but make not a full end: take away her battlements;
for they are not the LORD's.

11 For ^vthe house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They ^uhave belied the LORD, and said, It ^vis not he; neither shall evil come upon us; ^wneither shall we see sword nor famine:

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, ^xbehold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a ^ynation upon you from ^zfar, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine ^aharvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat; they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds; they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees; they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.

19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, ^bWherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so ^cshall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 ¶ Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O ^dfoolish people, and without ³understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:

22 Fear ^eye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the ^fbound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it; and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

31 The prophets prophesy ^afalse, and the priests ^bbear rule by means; and my people ^clove have it so: and what will ye in the end thereof?

CHAPTER 6.

1 The enemies sent against Judah courage themselves; 6 God direct siege. 18 The prophet proclaims judgments.

O YE children of ^aBenjamin, gather yourselves to flee of the midst of Jerusalem, blow the trumpet in Tekoa, set up a sign of fire in ^bBethcerem: for evil appeareth out the north, and great destruction. 2 I have likened the daughter Zion to a ^ccomely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; ^dthey pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her, arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day is away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

^h Ps. 136. 5.⁷ Or, noise.

CHAPTER 10.

¹ Great disparity between God and idols.
¹⁷ The people warned for a reformation:
¹⁹ Their desolation lamented.

HEAR ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

² Thus saith the LORD, ^a Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

³ For the ¹ customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest (the work of the hands of the workman) with the ax:

⁴ They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

⁵ They are upright as the palm tree, ^b but speak not: they must needs be ^c borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

⁶ Forasmuch as ^d there is none ^d like unto thee, O LORD: thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

⁷ Who ^e would not fear thee, O
King of nations? for ² to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, ^f there is none like unto thee.

⁸ But they are ^g altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

⁹ Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and ^h gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men.

¹⁰ But the LORD is the ⁴ true God, he is the ⁵ living God, and an ⁵ everlasting King: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

¹¹ ⁶ Thus shall ye say unto them,
The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, ⁱ even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

¹² He ^h hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

¹³ When he uttereth his voice, ^j there is a ⁷ multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings⁸ with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

14 Every man⁹ is brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

16 The¹ Portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and² Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name.

17 ¶ Gather up thy wares out of the land, O¹⁰ inhabitant of the fortress:

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them,¹¹ that they may find it so.

19 ¶ Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and¹ I must bear it.

20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 ¶ O LORD, I know that the¹² way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

24 O LORD, ¹³correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou ¹⁴bring me to nothing.

25 Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that¹⁵ know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant:

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, ⁵ Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: then shall ye be my people, and I will be your God:

5 That I may perform the words which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is said this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the² imagination of their heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to their iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words, and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and³ though they shall cry unto me, I will not hear them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem be a cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall have them at all in the time of trouble.

For according to the number of cities were thy gods, O Judah; according to the number of the cities of Jerusalem have ye set up s to that ⁵shameful thing, even s to burn incense unto Baal.
Therefore ¹pray not thou for people, neither lift up a cry or er for them: for I will not hear

CHAPTER 12.

¹Jeremiah, complaining of the wicked's prosperity, prays against them. ⁷God laments the desolation of his heritage, etc.

RIGHTEOUS^a art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee; yet ¹let me talk with thee of ^{the} judgments: ^bWherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? ^{wherefore} are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

²Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: ²they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: ^cthou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

³But thou, O LORD, knowest me:
thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for ^dthe day of slaughter.

⁴How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the ^ebeasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

⁵¶ If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and ^fif in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in ^gthe swelling of Jordan?

⁶For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, ^hthey have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak ⁱfair words unto thee.

⁷¶ I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage: I have given ^jthe dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

⁸My heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest: it ^kcrieth out against me: therefore ^lhave I hated it.

⁹My heritage is unto me as a ^mspeckled bird; the birds round about are against her: come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field,
ⁿcome to devour.

¹⁰Many pastors have destroyed
^omy vineyard, they have ^ptrodden my portion under foot, they have made my ¹⁰pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

¹¹They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because 'no man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 They ^mhave sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and ^lthey shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that ⁿtouch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will ^opluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 And ^pit shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out, I will return, and have compassion on them, ^qand will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, ^rto swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to ^sswear by Baal; then shall they be ^tbuilt in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not ^uobey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 13.

1 By the type of a linen girdle God prefigures his people's destruction. 12 By the bottles filled with wine their excess in misery foretold.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle, according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to ^aEuphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and 10 This evil people, which ^drefuse to hear my words, which ^ewalk in the ¹imagination of their heart, walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, so even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that ^fthey might be unto me for a people, ^gfor a name, and for a praise, for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel. Every bottle shall be filled with wine, and they shall say unto thee, we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine.

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of the land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.

14 And I will dash them ²against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, ³but destroy them.

15 ¶ Hear ⁴ye, and give ear; be proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 Give ⁵glory to the LORD your God, before he cause ^kdarkness, before your feet stumble upon dark mountains, and, while ye ⁶light for light, he turn it into ⁷shadow of death, and make it ⁸darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, your soul shall weep in secret places: your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

8 O ^w the Hope of Israel, the ^x Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and ^y we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 ^z Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet: therefore the LORD doth not accept them: ^a he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, ^b Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When ^c they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 ^d Then said I, Ah, Lord God!
behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you ^e assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me,
The prophets prophesy lies in my name: ^f I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall ^g those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be ^p cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword; and ^q they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; ^r Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: ^s for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the ^t field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest ^u go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hast ^v thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

20 We ^w acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we ^w have sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the ^x throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? ^y Art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee; for thou hast made all these things.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Though ^a Moses and ^b Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; ^c Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will ^d appoint over ^e four ¹ kinds, saith the LORD; sword to slay, and the dogs to ^f and ^e the fowls of the heaven, the beasts of the earth, to ^g and destroy.

4 And ^h I will cause them to ⁱ removed into all kingdoms of earth, because of Manasseh ^j of Hezekiah king of Judah, for which he hid in Jerusalem.

5 For ^k who shall have pity ^l thee, O Jerusalem? or who ^m bemoan thee? or who shall go ⁿ to ask how thou doest?

6 Thou hast forsaken me, ^o the LORD, thou art gone back; therefore will I stretch out hand against thee, and destroy ^p I am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with ^q in the gates of the land; I bereave ^r them of ^s children, I destroy my people, since they turn not from their ways.

8 Their widows are increased ^t me above the sand of the sea; have brought upon them ^u the mother of the young man; spoiler at noon-day; I have ^v him to fall upon it suddenly, terrors upon the city.

9 She ^w that hath born ^x languisheth: she hath given up ^y ghost; ^z her sun is gone down ^a it was yet day; she hath ^b ashamed and confounded: and residue of them will I deliver to sword before their enemies, ^c the LORD.

10 ^d Woe ^e is me, my mother, thou hast born me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither ^f on usury, nor men have lent to ^g on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily will cause the enemy to enter thee ^h well in the time of evil and the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron break the north ⁱ iron and the steel?

13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the ^j spoil without price, and ^k that for all thy sin even in all thy borders.

14 And I will make ^l thee to ^m with thine enemies into a ⁿ which thou knowest not: for ^o is kindled in mine anger, ^p shall burn upon you.

O LORD, ¹thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; ²do not leave me not away in thy long-suffering: know that ³for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

Thy words were found, and I ⁴eat them; and ⁵thy word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart: for ⁶I am called by thy name. O LORD God of hosts.

I ⁷sat not in the assembly of mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone, because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

Why is my ⁸pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be gathered unto ⁹me as a liar, and waters that ¹⁰fail?

Therefore thus saith the LORD, ¹¹If thou return, then will I forgive thee again, and thou shalt stand before me; and if thou ¹²takest the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let man return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brassen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but shall not prevail against thee: I am with thee to save thee, and deliver thee, saith the LORD.

And I will ¹³deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAPTER 16.

Two types the utter ruin of the Jews is foretold: 14 their return from captivity is more dangerous than their deliverance out of Egypt.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

Thou ¹shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

They shall die of grievous plagues; they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor ⁸make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men ⁹tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup ¹⁰of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt show this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, ¹¹Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, ¹²Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

12 And ye have done ¹³worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the ¹⁴imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:

13 Therefore I will I cast you out of this land ¹⁵into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not show you favour.

19 ¶ Thus said the LORD u

Go and stand in the gate of children of the people, whereby kings of Judah come in, and he which they go out, and in the gates of Jerusalem:

And say unto them, 'Hear ye word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all inhabitants of Jerusalem, that in by these gates:

Thus saith the LORD, 'Take ye to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor go in by the gates of Jerusalem;

Neither carry forth a burden of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work; but observe ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.

But they obeyed not, neither heeded their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, to receive instruction.

And it shall come to pass, if ye will not hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden upon the gates of this city on sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein; then shall there enter into the city of this city kings and princes, riding upon the throne of David, coming in chariots and on horses, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain for ever.

And they shall come from the south of Judah, and from the south about Jerusalem, and from the south of Benjamin, and from the south, and from the mountains, from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing offerings of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

But if ye will not hearken unto me, to hallow the sabbath day, and to bear a burden, even entering by the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house; and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things? the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burnt incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up;

16 To make their land ^mdesolate, and a perpetual ⁿhissing: every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

17 I ^owill scatter them ^pas with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 ¶ Then said they, ^qCome, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; ^rfor the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet: come, and let us smite him ^swith the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall ^tevil be recompensed for good? for ^uthey have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and ^vpour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me ^wto slay me: ^xforgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

 me, and I was ³deceived; ^cthou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed:
 I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, ^gI cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name: but his word was in mine heart as a ^hburning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and ⁱI could not stay.

10 For ^jI heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it.
^kAll my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he they shall not ^lprevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, that vengeance on them: for unto thee have I opened my cause.

13 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye

14 ¶ Cursed ^pbe the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD ^qoverthrew, and repented not: and let him ^rhear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noon-tide;

17 Because ^she slew me not from that my days should be consumed with shame?

CHAPTER 21.

1 Zedekiah enquires the event of Nebuchadrezzar's war. 3 A hard siege foretold.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him ^a Pashur the son of Melchiah, and ^b Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2 Enquire, ^c I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

3 ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and ^d I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight against you with an ^e outstretched hand, and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, ^f I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; ^g he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8 ¶ And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, ^h I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

9 He that ⁱ abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and ^j his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For I have ^k set my face against this city for evil, and not for good,

CHAPTER 22.

1 Exhortation to repentance. 10 Judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and Coniah.

THUS saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sitteth upon the throne of David, thou and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates;

3 Thus saith the LORD, ^a Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, ^b then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, I ^c swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah: Thou art Gilead unto me, and the house of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare to destroy nt thee, every one with his pous; and they shall cut down choice cedars, and / cast them the fire.

nd many nations shall pass by city, and they shall say every to his neighbour, ⁹ Wherefore the LORD done thus unto this t city?

hen they shall answer, ^h Because have forsaken the covenant of LORD their God, and worshipped r gods, and served them.

" Weep ye not for ⁱ the dead, her bemoan him; but weep sore

For thus saith the LORD touch-Shallum / the son of Josiah king udah, which reigned instead of ah his father, which went forth of this place. He shall not rethither any more:

But he shall die in the place ther they have led him captive,

CHAPTER 23.

1 Jeremiah prophesies a restoration of the scattered flock. 5 Christ promised. 9 Against false prophets.

WOE ^a be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

2 Therefore thus saith the LORD
God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people, Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them:

^b behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And ^c I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 Behold, ^d the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, ^e and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 In ^f his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and ^g this is his name whereby he shall be called, ^h THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, ^h and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 ⁱ Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; ^j all my bones shake: I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because ^k of ^l swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their ^m course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For ⁿ both prophet and priest are profane: yea, ^o in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 Wherefore ^p their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, ^q even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 24.
¹ By good and bad figs, ⁴ the prophet fore-shows the restoration from captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the residue of Jerusalem.
THE ^aLORD showed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar ^bking of Babylon had carried away captive ^cJeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.
² One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe;
and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, ¹they were so bad.
³ Then said the LORD unto me,
What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.
⁴ ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying.
⁵ Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, ^dso will I acknowledge ²them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.
⁶ For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and ^eI will bring them again to this land: and ^fI will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.
⁷ And I will give them an ^gheart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my ^hpeople, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me ⁱwith their whole heart.
⁸ ¶ And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil;
surely thus saith the LORD. So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them ^kthat dwell in the land of Egypt;

9 And I will deliver them ³to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, ¹to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt ^mand a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

CHAPTER 25.

1 Jeremiah, reproving the Jews for disregarding God by the prophets, 8 foretells the seventy years' captivity.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah ^ain the fourth year of Jehoia-kim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 From ^bthe thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his ^cservants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, ^dTurn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might ^eprovoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words,

9 Behold, I will send and take ^fall the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ^gmy servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations re about, and will utterly de- stroy them, and ^hmake them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover ¹I will take from the voice ⁱof mirth, and the voice ^jof gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be desolation, and an astonishment, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass when ²seventy years are accomplished, that I will ³punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity: the land of the Chaldeans, ^kand make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against the nations.

14 For many nations ^land kingdoms shall ^mserve themselves to them also: and ⁿI will recompense them according to their deeds, according to the works of their hands.

15 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of Israel unto me; Take the ^ocup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And ^pthey shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then I took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, ^qJerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, I made them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse, as it is this day;

19 Pharaoh ^rking of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and his people;

20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of ^sthe land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and ^tthe remnant of Ashdod,

21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon,

And all the kings of Tyrus, and the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the ⁴isles which are beyond the sea,

Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and ⁵that are in the utmost corners,

And ⁶all the kings of Arabia, and ⁷all the kings of the ⁸mingled people that dwell in the desert,

And all the kings of Zimri, and the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes,

And all the kings of the north, and near, one with another,

And all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: ⁹and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ¹⁰Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the word which I will send among you.

And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Ye shall certainly drink.

For, lo, ¹¹I begin to bring evil upon the city ¹²which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly punished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for ¹³I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall ¹⁴roar from a high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his ¹⁵habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

A noise shall come ¹⁶even to the ends of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations; he will plead with all flesh; he will give them ¹⁷that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the east of the earth.

And ¹⁸the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ¹⁹one end of the earth even unto the ²⁰other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ²¹the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ²²one end of the earth even unto the ²³other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ²⁴the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ²⁵one end of the earth even unto the ²⁶other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ²⁷the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ²⁸one end of the earth even unto the ²⁹other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ³⁰the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ³¹one end of the earth even unto the ³²other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ³³the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ³⁴one end of the earth even unto the ³⁵other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ³⁶the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ³⁷one end of the earth even unto the ³⁸other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ³⁹the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ⁴⁰one end of the earth even unto the ⁴¹other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ⁴²the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ⁴³one end of the earth even unto the ⁴⁴other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ⁴⁵the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ⁴⁶one end of the earth even unto the ⁴⁷other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ⁴⁸the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ⁴⁹one end of the earth even unto the ⁵⁰other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ⁵¹the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ⁵²one end of the earth even unto the ⁵³other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ⁵⁴the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ⁵⁵one end of the earth even unto the ⁵⁶other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

And ⁵⁷the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ⁵⁸one end of the earth even unto the ⁵⁹other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

CHAPTER 25.

¹ Jeremiah exhorts to repentance: ⁸ he is apprehended, ¹⁰ and arraigned: ¹² his apology: ¹⁶ he is acquitted in judgment.

In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,

² Thus saith the LORD, Stand in ³the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which ⁴come to worship in the LORD's house, ⁵all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish ⁶not a word:

³ If ⁷so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent ⁸me of the evil which I purpose to do unto them, because of the evil of their doings.

⁴ And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; ⁹If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

⁵ To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, ¹⁰whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

⁶ Then will I make this house like ¹¹Shiloh, and will make this city ¹²a curse to all the nations of the earth.

⁷ So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

⁸ ¶ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that ^k the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 ¶ When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down ¹ in the entry of the ¹ new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes, and to all the people, saying, ² This man is worthy to die; ^m for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 ¶ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes, and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now ⁿ amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, ^o I am in your hand: do with me ³ as seemeth good and meet unto you:

15 But know ye for certain, that, if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 ¶ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then ^p rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 Micah ^a the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, "Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

21 And when Jehoiakim the king with all his mighty men, and the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and ^w fled, and went into Egypt.

CHAPTER 27.

Under the type of bonds and yokes Jeremiah prophesies the subjection of the neighbouring kings unto Nebuchadnezzar.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus ¹ saith the LORD to me, Make thee bonds and yokes, ^b and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

CHAPTER 28.

¹ Hananiah's false prophecy: ¹⁰ he breaks Jeremiah's yoke. ¹² Jeremiah foretells of an iron yoke, ¹⁵ and Hananiah's death.

AND ^ait came to pass the same

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of ²Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the ³captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, ^eAmen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 The ^fprophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ^hfrom the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went ⁱhis way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, (after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah,) saying,

1 Jeremiah's letter to the captives in Babylon. 20 Fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah. 30 Shemaiah's doom foretold.

NOW these are the words of a letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon, ²(After that ¹Jeconiah the king and the queen, and the ²eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem.)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon,) Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And ^aseek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, ^band p

the LORD for it: for in the thereof shall ye have peace. For thus saith the LORD of the God of Israel; Let not prophets and your diviners, in the midst of you, deceive neither hearken to your words which ye cause to be heard.

For they prophesy ³ falsely unto me in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

For thus saith the LORD, after seventy ⁴ years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you in causing you to return to the land.

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an ⁴ expected end.

When shall ye ⁵ call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

And ye shall seek me, and find me: when ye shall search for me, I will answer you, saith the LORD.

And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn your captivity, and I will bring you from all the nations, from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the land whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

Know that thus saith the LORD the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, of your brethren that are not with you into captivity; thus saith the LORD of hosts; I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like ⁶ vile beasts that cannot be eaten, they are filth.

And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and the pestilence, and will ⁷ destroy them to be removed to all the corners of the earth, ⁵ to be a curse, and an astonishment, and a reproach, among the nations whither I have carried them;

Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which ^m I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 ¶ Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom ⁿ I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy ^o a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes;

22 And ^p of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah, and like Ahab, ^q whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;

23 Because ^r they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am ^s a witness, saith the LORD.

24 ¶ Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the ^t Nehelamite, saying,

25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, ^u and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be ^v officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is ^w mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest ^x put him in prison, and in the stocks.

27 Now therefore why hast thou not reproved ^y Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you?

28 For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, ^yand I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie;

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will ^zpunish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; ^abecause he hath taught ⁷rebellion against the LORD.

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, ^aWrite thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that ^bI will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD; and ^cI will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel, and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, ¹of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether ²a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! ^dfor that day is great, ^eso that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble. But he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and ^fDavid their king, whom I will ^graise up unto them.

10 Therefore ^hfear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days:

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I ⁿprayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord God! behold, ^othou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there ^pis nothing ³too hard for thee;

18 Thou showest ^qloving-kindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them:
The Great, ^rthe Mighty God, ^sthe
LORD of hosts, is his name;

19 Great ^tin counsel, and mighty in ⁴work: for thine ^ueyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: ^vto give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among ^wother men; and hast made thee ^wa name, as at this day;

21 And ^xhast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, ^ya land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they ^zobeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law: they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.

24 Behold the ⁵mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of ^athe sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken ^bis come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; ^cfor the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying;

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the ^dGod of all flesh: is ^dthere any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and ^eset fire on this city, and burn it with the houses ^fupon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah ^ghave only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For ^hthis city hath been to me as ^aa provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; ⁱthat I should remove it from before my face,

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel, and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, ^jthey, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the ^kback, and not the face: though I taught them, ^krising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they ^lset their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to ^mcause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire ⁿunto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that

37 Behold, I will ^ggather them of all countries whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto the place, and I will cause them to dwell safely:

41 Yea, ⁿI will rejoice over them to do them good, and ^oI will put them in this land ^passuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD, ^qI will be as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ^rye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and ^stake witnesses in ^tthe land of Benjamin, and in the place about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for ^uI will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 33.

1 A gracious return promised. 15 The Branch of righteousness promised.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the ^bma

reof, the LORD that formed it, establish it; ¹The LORD is his name;

Call ^cunto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by ^dthe sword, and by the sword;

They come to fight with the Philistines, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger, and in mine fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

Behold, ^eI will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and I will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

And I will cause the captivity of Judah, and the captivity of Israel, to return, and will build them, ^gas at the first.

And I will ^hcleanse them from their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

And it shall be to me a name of praise, a praise and an honour before the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall ^kfear and tremble for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity, that I procure unto it.

¶ Thus saith the LORD, Again ye shall be heard in this place, which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast,

The ^lvoice of joy, and the voice of gladness; the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; the voice of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring ⁿthe sacrifice of praise unto the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.

21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 As ^zthe host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

23 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? Thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD; If ^vmy covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not ^zappointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for ^aI will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

CHAPTER 34.

Jeremiah prophesies the destruction of Jerusalem, and the captivity of Zedekiah.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, ^a(when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the ^bkingdoms of the earth ¹of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof,) saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him; Thus saith the LORD, Behold, ^cI will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and ^dhe shall burn it with fire:

3 And ^ethou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and ²he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword;

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the ^fburnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so ^gshall they burn odours for thee; and ^hthey will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet ⁱspake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for ^jthese defended cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 ¶ This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD after that the king Zedekiah made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem to proclaim ^kliberty unto them: 9 That ^levery man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that ^mno man should serve himself of another's wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go. 11 But ⁿafterward they turned, and caused the servants and handmaids, whom they had let free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants for handmaids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying,

14 At the end of ^oseven years ye go every man his brother's Hebrew, which ³hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ears.

15 And ye were ⁴now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had ²made a covenant before me ^qin the house, which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned, and ⁷polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return and brought them into subjection to be unto you for servants and handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Ye have not ⁶hearkened unto me in proclaiming liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: ^tbehold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD.

the sword, to the pestilence, to the famine; and I will take you ⁶to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth.

And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the duties of the covenant which they made before me, when they brought the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

The princes of Judah, and the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between parts of the calf;

I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: their ^adead bodies shall be for food unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

And Zedekiah king of Judah, and his princes, will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and I will bring them into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, ^bwhich are gone up against you.

Behold, ^cI will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to turn to this city: and they shall stand against it, ^aand take it, and burn it with fire: and ^bI will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for ^aJonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ^bye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we ^cobeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when ^dNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Go and tell the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not ^ereceive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: ^fnotwithstanding I have spoken unto you, ^grising early and speaking; but ^hye hearkened not unto me.

15 I ⁱhave sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ^j"Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I ^o will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: ² because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 ¶ And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ³ Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you;

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ² Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man ^r to stand before me for ever.

CHAPTER 36.

1 Baruch writes Jeremiah's prophecy. 20 Jehoiakim burns the roll. 32 Baruch writes a new copy.

AND it came to pass, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a ^a roll of a book, and ^b write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against ^c all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of ^d Josiah, even unto this day.

3 It ^e may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may ^f return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah ^g called Baruch the son of Neriah: and ^h Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

7 It may be ¹ they will present supplication before the LORD, will return every one from his way: for ^k great is the anger the fury that the LORD pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Ne did according to all that Jerem the prophet commanded him, ^r ing in the book the words of LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the year of Jehoiakim the son of Jo king of Judah, in the ninth mo that ^t they proclaimed a fast be the LORD to all the people Jerusalem, and to all the pe that came from the cities of Ju unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the b the words of Jeremiah in the ho of the LORD, in the chambe Gemariah the son of Shaphan ² scribe, in the higher court, a ³ entry of the new gate of LORD's house, in the ears of all people.

11 ¶ When Michaijah the son Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard out of the book all the wo of the LORD,

12 Then he went down into king's house, into the scri chamber: and, lo, all the prin sat there, even Elishama the scri and Delaiah the son of Shema and Elnathan the son of Ach and Gemariah the son of Shaph and Zedekiah the son of Hanani and all the princes.

13 Then Michaijah declared u them all the words that he heard, when Baruch read the b in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes - Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, son of Shelemiah, the son of Cu unto Baruch, saying, Take in th hand the roll wherein thou l read in the ears of the people, come. So Baruch the son of Ne took the roll in his hand, and c ^m unto them.

15 And they said unto him, down now, and read it in our e So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, w had heard all the words, they were afraid, both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will tell the king of all these words.

And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write these words at his mouth?

Then Baruch answered them, I pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

¶ And they went in to the king to the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber: and Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

Now the king sat in the winter house, in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burn before him.

And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four verses, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

Nevertheless Elnathan, and Jaiah, and Gemariah, had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll; but he would not hear them.

But the king commanded Jehoniel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Elemliah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe, and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD said unto them,

¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, (after that the king had burnt the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah,) saying,

Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burnt.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burnt this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: but they hearkened not.

32 ¶ Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein, from the mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burnt in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

CHAPTER 37.

¹ The Egyptians having raised the Chaldeans' siege, Zedekiah sends to Jeremiah; ⁶ who prophesies the Chaldeans' return and victory.

AND king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that I sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

8 And ⁹the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD, Deceive not ²yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 For ⁴though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but ³wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was ⁴broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, ⁵to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fastest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, It is ⁶false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were ¹wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, ²and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into the ³dungeon, and into the ⁴cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out; and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, ¹Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophecies which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land.

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: ⁸let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should come and cast him ^minto the court of the prison, and ⁿthat they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, ^ountil all the bread in the city were spent. Then Jeremiah remained ^pin the court of the prison.

CHAPTER 38.

1 Jeremiah accused, and cast into the dungeon. 7 Ebed-melech gets him out of the dungeon: 14 his counsel to the king.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal ^athe son of Shelemiah, and ^bPashur the son of Malchiah, ^cheard the words which Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, ^dHe that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live: for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, ^eThis city shall surely be given into the hands of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, ^flet not this man be put to death, for thus shall he weaken the hands of the men of the war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, speaking such words unto the king: for this man seeketh not the ^glife of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is ^hin your hand: do not kill him. ⁱthe king is not he that can do anything against you.

6 Then ^khe took them Jeremiah, and cast him into ^lthe dungeon of Manasseh the son of Hammelech, ^mthe which was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was ar, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

Now, when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon, (the king then being in the gate of Benjamin,) Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

O my lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, in that they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, ere he die.

So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and thence old cast clouts and old worn rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now thy old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine arm-holes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet with him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will save thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? or if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

So Zedekiah the king swore secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this day, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath showed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee; thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon; and thou shalt cause this city to be burnt with fire.

24 Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

cause ye have sinned against the Lord, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

And now, behold, I loose thee from the chains which were upon thine hand. ^dIf it seemeth unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come, and ^eI will dwell well unto thee; but if it seemeth unto thee to come with me into Judah, forbear: behold, ^eall the eyes are before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

Now, while he was not yet gone, ^fhe said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ^fwhom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the remnant of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard ^ggave him victuals and a sword, and let him go.

Then ^hhe went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

Now, ⁱwhen all the captains of the forces which were in the land, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of ^kthe remnant of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even ^lIshmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Gedaliah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a chathite, and their men. And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, sware unto them, and to their men, saying, I will not ^mto serve the Chaldeans: I will dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, for they will come unto us; but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in vessels, and dwell in your houses that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all ^athe Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 ¶ Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,

14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that ^bBaalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah ^cto slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt ^dnot do this thing; for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAPTER 41.

1 Ishmael treacherously kills Gedaliah and others. 11 Johanan recovers the captives.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, ^athat Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ^bdid eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and ^csmote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also ^dslew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass, the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from ^cShechem, from ^fShiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, ^ghaving their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to ^hthe house of the LORD.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, ¹weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not; for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain ²because of Gedaliah, was it which ⁱAsa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom ^kNebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to ^lthe Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all ^mthe captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by ⁿthe great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captain forces that were with him they were glad.

14 So all the people that had carried away captive Mizpah cast about and re and went unto Johanan the Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son aniah escaped ^ofrom Johanan eight men, and went to the monites.

16 Then took Johanan the Kareah, and all the captain forces that were with him, remnant of the people who had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah, from ¹after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even men of war, and the women the children, and the ²whom he had brought again to Gibeon:

17 And they departed, and in the habitation of ³Chaldea which is by Beth-lehem, to enter into Egypt.

18 ³Because of the Chaldeans they were afraid of them, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam ⁴whom the king of Babylon had appointed governor in the land.

CHAPTER 42.

1 Johanan desires Jeremiah to go to the king, promising obedience. 7 Jeremiah answers, etc.

THEN all the captains of the forces, ^aand Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people the least even unto the youngest, came near,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, ¹Let, we beseech thee, thy supplication be accepted unto the LORD thy God, ²and ³pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for the remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do see us;)

3 That the LORD thy God show us the ^dway wherein we should walk, and the thing that we should do.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard your words, hold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words, and it shall come to pass, ^ewhatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare

I will keep nothing back from you.
 When they said to Jeremiah, "Thou shalt be a true and faithful witness against us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee."
 Whether it be good, or whether evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we have said; that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.
 And it came to pass after ten days that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.
 When he called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people, from the least unto the greatest, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto me, I have sent me to present your accusation before him;
 and ye will still abide in this land, and will I build you, and not pull down, and I will plant you, and I will suck you up: for I have repented me of the evil that I have done unto you.
 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be afraid of him, saith the LORD: I am with you to save you, and will deliver you from his hand.
 And I will show mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.
 But if ye say, We will not return in this land, neither will we obey the voice of the LORD your God, saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall find war, nor hear the sound of trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:
 And now therefore hear the voice of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of the God of Israel: If ye will not set your faces to enter into the land, and go to sojourn there; when it shall come to pass, that the word, which ye feared, shall come upon you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye are afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.
 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt

CHAPTER 43.

1 Johanan carries Jeremiah into Egypt.

8 Jeremiah by a type prophesies the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshai, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took ^call the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, ^dand every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD. Thus came they even to ^eTahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I ^fwill send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ^gmy servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And ^hwhen he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver ⁱsuch as are for death to death; and ^jsuch as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the ^jgods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the ¹images of ²Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

6 Wherefore ⁿmy fury and anger was poured forth, and I kindled in the cities of Judah in the streets of Jerusalem, ^othey are wasted and desolate, this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit this great evil ^pagainst your own selves, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, ^qout of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye ^rprovoke me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto gods in the land of Egypt, where ye be gone to dwell, that ye ^scut yourselves off, and that might be a ^tcurse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the ^uwickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which ye have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not ^vhumbled unto this day, neither have they ^wfeared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land ^ua desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant,
as at this day.

23 Because ye have burnt incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, ^xI have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that ^ymy name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 Behold, ^zI will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet ^aa small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, ^amine, or theirs.

29 ¶ And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall ^bsurely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^cI will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah ^dking of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

3 Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus, Behold, ^bthat which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And ^cseekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, ^dI will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD; but thy life will I give unto thee ^efor a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAPTER 47.

Destruction of the Philistines.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet ^aagainst the Philistines, ^bbefore that Pharaoh smote ¹Gaza.

2 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^cwaters rise up ^dout of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and ²all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the ^enoise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands,

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus ^fand Zidon every helper that remaineth; for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, ^gthe remnant of ³the country ^hof Caphtor.

5 Baldness ⁱis come upon Gaza;
Ashkelon is cut off ^{with} the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself?

6 O thou sword of the LORD, how long ^{will} it be ere thou be quiet?
⁴Put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7 ⁵How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given ^kit a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore? there hath ^lhe appointed it.

CHAPTER 48.

1 Judgment of Moab for several corrup- tions. 47 Restoration of Moab.

AGAINST ^aMoab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Woe ^bunto Nebo! for it is spoiled: Kiriathaim is confounded and taken; ¹Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation:
also thou shalt ²be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall ³pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the going up of Luhith ⁴ continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 ¶ Flee, save your lives, and be like ⁵ the heath in the wilderness.

7 For ^c because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken; and ^d Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together.

8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 Cursed ^e be he that doeth the work of the LORD ^f deceitfully, and cursed ^{be} he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 ¶ Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he ^g hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste ^h remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of ⁱ Chemosh, as the house of Israel ^h was ashamed of ⁱ Beth-el their confidence.

14 ¶ How say ye, ^j We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and ^k his chosen young men are gone ^k down to the slaughter, saith ^l the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, be-moan him; and all ye that know his name, say, ^m How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

CHAPTER 49.

1 *Judgment of the Ammonites, 7 of Edom,
23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam. 39 Restoration of Elam.*

CONCERNING ¹the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir?
why then doth ²their king inherit ^aGad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in ^bRabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burnt with fire:
then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, ^cgird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges: for ³their king shall go into captivity, and his ^dpriests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, ⁴thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, ^esaying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee;
and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And ^fafterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7 ¶ Concerning ^gEdom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^hIs wisdom no more in Teman? ⁱis counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

8 Flee ye, ⁵turn back, ^jdwell deep,
O inhabitants of ^kDedan; for I will ^lbring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If ^mgrape-gatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy ⁶till they have enough.

10 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and ^ahe is not.

11 Leave thy ^afatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they ^pwhose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For ^qI have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that ^rBozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a ^srumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy ^tnest as high as the eagle, ^uI will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every ^vone that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 As ^win the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 Behold, ^xhe shall come up like a lion from ^ythe swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for ^zwho is like me? and who will ^aappoint me the time? and ^awho is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 Therefore ^bhear the counsel of the LORD that he hath taken against Edom, and his purposes that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them

³⁵ Certain destruction of Babylon.

The word that the LORD spake against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans ¹by Jeremiah the prophet.

Declare ye among the nations, publish, and ²set up a standard; publish, and conceal not:
Babylon is taken, ³Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her ⁴idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

For out of the north there cometh a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and they shall dwell therein: they shall have, they shall depart, both man and beast.

In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they ⁵and the children of Judah together, going in weeping: they shall go, ⁶and
the LORD their God.

They shall ask the way to Zion, for their faces thitherward, say-

LORD it shall not be inhabited;
but it shall be wholly desolate:
every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

⁵⁷ 14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows; for she hath sinned against the LORD.

⁵⁸ 15 Shout against her round about:
she hath ⁵⁹given her hand: her foundations are fallen, ⁶⁰her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; ⁶¹as she hath done, do unto her.

they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 ¶ Israel is a ^ascattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first ^uthe king of Assyria hath devoured him, and last this ^vNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And ^wI will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow against it round about none thereof escape; recompense ^uher according to her work according to all that she hath done unto her: ^bfor she hath been proud against the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore ⁱshall her young men fall in the streets, and all her multitude of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, ¹²most proud, saith the LORD of hosts: for thy day is come the time that I will visit thee.

32 And ¹³the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I ^jwill kindle fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together; and all that took their lives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 Their ^kRedeemer is strong: ^lThe LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ A sword is upon the deans, saith the LORD, and against the inhabitants of Babylon ^mupon her princes, and upon ⁿwise men.

36 A sword is upon the ¹⁴liars: they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all ^othe mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 A ^qdrought is upon her waters, and they shall be dried up: ^ris the land of graven images: they are made upon their idols.

39 Therefore ^rthe wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there: the owls shall dwell therein: it shall be no more inhabited ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As ^tGod overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour eof, saith the LORD; so shall man abide there, neither shall son of man dwell therein.

Behold, ^ua people shall come from the north, and a great nation, many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

They ^vshall hold the bow and brance: ^wthey are cruel, and will show mercy: their ^xvoice shall be like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his arms waxed feeble: ^yanguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a man in travail.

Behold, he shall come up like a man from the swelling of Jordan to the habitation of the strong:
I will make them suddenly run from her: and who is a chosen one, that I may appoint over her?
who is like me? and who will point me the time? and ^zwho is that shepherd that will stand against me?

Therefore hear ye ^athe counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, which he hath purposed against the house of the Chaldeans: Surely ^bthe army of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

At ^cthe noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and Babylon is heard among the nations.

CHAPTER 51.

judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel, etc.

US saith the LORD; Behold,
I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, ^aa destroying wind; and I will send unto Babylon scourges, that shall fan her, and I will empty her land: ^cfor in the day of trouble they shall be against Babylon about.

Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and let him that lifteth himself up be as a brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye altogether all her host.

Thus the slain shall fall in the day of the Chaldeans, ^dand they shall be thrust through in her streets.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ¹⁹The broad walls of Babylon shall 59 ¶ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went ²¹with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a ²²quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah,
When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words,

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none ^jshall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be ²³desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, ^kthat thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary.
Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAPTER 52.

and taken. ⁸ Zedekiah's sons killed.
²⁴ Captives carried away.

ZEDEKIAH was ^aone and twenty years old when he ¹began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah ^b rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in the ^cninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched ^d against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the ^efamine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about :) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then ^fthey took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 And ^gthe king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he ^hput out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in ⁱchains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in ^jprison till the day of his death.

12 ¶ Now ^kin the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, ^lcame Nebuzar-adan, ^mcaptain of the guard, which ⁿserved the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

13 And ^oburned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all

17 Also ^kthe pillars of brass were in the house of the LORD, the bases, and the brasen sea was in the house of the LORD: Chaldeans brake, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

THE

LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER 1.

Jerusalem's misery for her sins: 12 she laments her afflictions, 18 and confesses God's judgments to be just.

OW doth the city sit solitary that was full of people! ^a how she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and dominant among the provinces, how she become tributary!

How ^c weepeth sore in the ^d night,
how her tears are on her cheeks:
how long all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have treacherously with her, they become her enemies.

How ^e Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and ¹ because of great servitude: she ^f dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

How the ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn assemblies: all her gates are desolate:

her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her ^h for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her ² pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries ⁱ saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she ³ is removed:
all that honoured her despise her.

because they have seen her nakedness; yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she ⁶remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction; for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her ⁴pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that ¹they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, ^mthey seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat ⁵to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 ¶ ⁶Is it nothing to you, all ye that ⁷pass by? behold, and see ⁿif there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaieth against them: he hath ^ospread a net for my feet; he hath turned me back; he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The ^pyoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand; they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall; the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: ^qthe LORD hath trodden ^sthe virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

16 For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should ⁹relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 ¶ The LORD is ^rrighteous; for I have rebelled ^sagainst his ¹⁰commandment: hear, I pray you, all

20 he complains thereof to God

HOW hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and ^acast down the heaven unto the earth ^bthe beauty of Israel, and remembered ^chis footstool in the day of anger!

2 The Lord hath swallowed up the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong hold of the daughter of Judah; he ¹brought them down to the ground: he ²hath polluted the kingdom the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his anger all the ^chorn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and hath burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He ⁹hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his hand as an adversary, and slew that were pleasant to the eye: he hath poured out his fury against Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

³⁷ his humble confession of sins.

I AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

6 He ^ahath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also ^bwhen I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone; he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He ^cwas unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled ^dme in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and ^eset me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the ¹arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a ^fderision to all my people, and their song all the day.

15 He hath ^gfilled me with ²bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth ^hwith gravel stones, he hath ³covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot ⁴prosperity.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath ^h kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and ⁱ all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 For ^j the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, ^k they have polluted themselves with blood, ⁶ so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; ⁷ it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The ⁸ anger of the LORD hath divided them: he will no more regard them: ^m they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, ⁿ our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching

4 And it came to pass, the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, ^ghaving their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to ^hthe house of the LORD.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, ¹weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not; for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain ²because of Gedaliah, was it which ³Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom ^kNebuzardan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to ^lthe Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all ^mthe captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by ⁿthe great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of forces that were with him, they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive to Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped ^ofrom Johanan and his men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even the men of war, and the women, the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again to Gibeon:

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of ^pChimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go and enter into Egypt,

18 ³Because of the Chaldeans, they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, ^qwhom the king of Babylon had appointed governor in the land.

CHAPTER 42.

1 Johanan desires Jeremiah to enquire of God, promising obedience. 7 Jeremiah answers, etc.

THEN all the captains of forces, ^aand Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people that were left even unto the great captivity, came near,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, ¹Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and ^bpray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all the remnant; (for we are left but ^ca few of many, as thine eyes do behold us);

3 That the LORD thy God show us the ^dway wherein we should walk, and the thing that we should do.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet answered them, I have heard you; hold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your word, and it shall come to pass, ^ewhatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you.

1; I will keep nothing back from you.

Then they said to Jeremiah, "The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee unto us.

Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we are committed; that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

¶ And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people, from the least unto the greatest,

And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

If ye will still abide in this land, I will build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and ye shall pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and deliver you from his hand.

And I will show mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

But if ye say, We will not return in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God, saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall take you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye are afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt

CHAPTER 43.

1 Johanan carries Jeremiah into Egypt.
8 Jeremiah by a type prophesies the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This ^awas the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, ^fI fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

AND he said unto me, Son of man, ^astand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And ^bthe spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious ¹nation that hath rebelled against me: ^cthey and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For ^dthey are ²impudent children, and stiff-hearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD.

5 And ^ethey, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet ^fshall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, ^gbe not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though ³briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: ^hbe not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, ⁱthough they be a rebellious house.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Ezekiel eats the roll: 15 God shows the rule of prophecy, 22 and shuts opens the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER he said unto ¹Son of man, eat that thou findest; ^aeat this roll, and gospel unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I ^beat it; and it was in my mouth as honey sweetness.

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to people ¹of a strange speech and an hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6 Not to many people ²of a strange speech and of an hard language whose words thou canst not understand: ³surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; ^cfor they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are ⁴impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As ^dan adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be rebellious house.

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them in the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then ^ethe spirit took me, and I heard behind me a voice a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from this place.

13 I heard also the noise of many wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and of the wheels over against n, and a noise of a great ning.

So the spirit lifted me up, and me away, and I went ⁶in erness, in the ⁷heat of my it; but ⁸the hand of the LORD strong upon me.
⁹ Then I came to them of the ivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by river of Chebar, and ⁹I sat
e they sat, and remained there nished among them seven days.
And it came to pass at the end even days, that the word of the D came unto me, saying,
Son of man, I have made thee watchman unto the house of el: therefore hear the word at mouth, and give them warning me.
When I say unto the wicked, u shalt surely die; and thou st him not warning, nor kest to warn the wicked from wicked way, ¹to save his life; same wicked man shall die in iniquity; but his blood will I ure at thine hand.
Yet if thou warn the wicked, he turn not from his wicked-nor from his wicked way, he l die in his iniquity; but ²thou delivered thy soul.
Again, When a ³righteous man turn from his ⁴righteousness, commit iniquity, and I lay a ublingblock before him, he l die: because thou hast not in him warning, he shall die in sin, and his righteousness which ath done shall not be rememed; but his blood will I require hine hand.
Nevertheless if thou warn the teous man, that the righteous not, and he doth not sin, he l surely ⁵live, because he is ned; also ⁶thou hast delivered soul.
⁷ And the hand of the LORD
there upon me; and he said
o me, Arise, go forth into ⁸the n, and I will there talk with thee.
Then I arose, and went forth the plain: and, behold, ⁹the y of the LORD stood there, as glory which I ¹⁰saw by the river
hebar: and I fell on my face.
Then ¹¹the spirit entered into and set me upon my feet, and 5 For I have laid upon thee the thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accom-days: I have appointed thee ⁴each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy

8 And, ⁶behold, I will lay bands thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and ⁶fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side; three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the ^dchildren of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, ^cAh Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted; for from my youth up, even till now, have I / not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces: neither came there ⁷abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the ^hstaff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall ⁱeat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

iel's vision of jealousy. 7 Chambers of jealousy. 17 God's wrath for idolatry.

it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Israel sat before me, that the hand of the Lord God fell there upon me. When I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even upward, fire; and from his loins downward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber. And he put forth the form of an angel, and took me by a lock of mine hair; and the spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the visions of the Lord to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which prophethood to jealousy.

And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and, behold, northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy was in entry.

He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do here? even the great abominations which the house of Israel committeth, that I should go far off from the sanctuary? But turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

And he brought me to the north of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold, a door.

And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations which they do here.

So I went in and saw; and, behold, every form of creeping things, and all the abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, poured upon the wall round about. And there stood before them twenty men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of the high priest, with every man his 12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The Lord seeth us not; the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the Lord's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the Lord's house; and, behold, at the door of the temple of the Lord, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the Lord, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

CHAPTER 9.

1 A vision, showing the preservation of the righteous, 5 and the destruction of the wicked.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn ³by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and ⁴set a mark upon the foreheads of the men ^cthat sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 And to the others he said in ⁵mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite; let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 Slay ⁶utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women; but come ^dnot near any man upon whom is the mark; and ^ebegin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I ^ffell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and ^gthe land is ⁷full of blood, and the city full of ⁸perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the ^hLORD seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but ⁱI will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, ⁹reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city;

³Which say, ⁴*It is* not near; let us build houses: ⁵this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

⁶¶ Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

⁷And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD, Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for ⁸I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

⁹Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

²²And ye shall know that I am the LORD: ²³for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have ²⁴done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

²⁵¶ And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that ²⁶Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then ²⁷fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

²⁸¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

²⁹Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD; unto us is this land given in possession.

³⁰Therefore say, Thus saith the LORD God; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and 17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; ¹ I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and ⁷ they shall take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 And ⁸ I will give them one heart, and I will put ¹ a new spirit within you; and I will take ² the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh;

20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and ³ they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them whose ⁴ heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God.

22 ¶ Then did the cherubim ² lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And ³ the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood ² upon the mountain ⁴ which is on the east side of the city.

24 ¶ Afterwards ⁶ the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I ¹ spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had showed me.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee ¹ stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place

2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto ¹them that prophesy out of their own ^ahearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

3 Thus saith the Lord God; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that ²follow their own spirit, ³and have seen nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are ^blike the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye ^chave not gone up into the ¹gaps, neither ²made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD.

6 They ^dhave seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith:
and the LORD hath not sent them:
and they have made ^eothers to ^fhope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying di-vination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith ^{it}; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord
God; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the ⁶assembly of my people, ⁷neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, ⁹neither shall they enter into the land of Israel: and ^hye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 Because, even because they have ⁱseduced my people, saying, ^jPeace; and ^{there} was no peace;
and one built up ⁷a wall, and, lo, others ^kdaubed it with untemper'd mortar:

11 Say unto them which daub ^{it} with untemper'd mortar, that it shall fall: there ^lshall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall: and a stormy wind shall rend ^{it}.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed ^{it}?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord
God; I will even rend ^{it} with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury, to consume ^{it}.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untem-per'd mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof; ¹⁴and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar; and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see ¹⁶visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, ¹⁷set thy face against ¹⁸the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all ¹⁸arm-holes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature, to hunt souls! Will ye ¹⁹hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people ¹⁹for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls ²⁰to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

22 Because with ²²lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and ²³strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, ²⁴by promising him life;

23 Therefore ²⁵ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

1 Hypocrites reprov'd, who enquire of God with idolatry in their heart. 15 Judgments threatened for sin.

THEN ^acame certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put ^bthe stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: ^cshould I be enquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols;

5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own ^dheart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 ¶ Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God Repent, and turn ¹yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which ^eseparateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself:

8 And ^fI will set my face against that man, and will make him ^gsign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD ^hhave deceived that prophet: and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

CHAPTER 15.

3 By the unfitness of the vine branch for any work, 6 is showed Jerusalem's rejection.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, What is the ^avine tree more than any tree, or than ^aa branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, ^bit is cast into the fire for fuel: the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burnt. ¹Is it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was ²meet for no work: how much less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

7 And ^cI will set my face against them; they ^dshall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them: ^eand ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have ³committed a trespass, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 16.

1 By a wretched infant is showed the original state of Jerusalem: 6 God's love to her: 35 she is threatened with severe judgments: 60 mercy promised her in the end.

AGAIN the word of the LORD
came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^acause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem; Thy ¹birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, ^bin the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water ²to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee ³polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 I have ⁴caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to ⁵excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; ⁶and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness; yea, I swear unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and ⁷thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy ⁸blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I ⁹put bracelets upon thy hands, ¹⁰and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy ¹¹forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; ¹²thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding ¹³beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

18 And tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: as thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 My ⁴meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for ⁵a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover ⁶thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast born unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them ⁷to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredom a small matter,

21 That thou hast slain ⁸my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abomination and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy ⁹youth when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass, after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord God,) ¹⁰

24 That thou hast also built unto thee an ¹¹eminent place, and ¹²hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place ¹³at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with ¹⁴the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the ¹⁵daughters of the Philistines which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

8 Thou ^hast played the whore so with the Assyrians, because ou wast unsatiate; yea, thou st played the harlot with them, id yet couldest not be satisfied.
 9 Thou hast moreover multiplied y fornication in the land of maan ^unto Chaldea; and yet ou wast not satisfied herewith.
 10 How weak is thine heart, saith e Lord GOD, seeing thou doest e these things, the work of an mperious whorish woman;
 11 In that thou buildest thine ninent place in the head of every ay, and makest thine high place every street; and hast not been an harlot, in that thou scornest re;
 12 But as a wife that committeth lultury, which taketh strangers stead of her husband!
 13 They give gifts to all whores; out thou givest thy gifts to all thy vers, and ¹⁴hirest them, that they ay come unto thee on every side r thy whoredom.
 14 And the contrary is in thee om other women in thy whore-oms, whereas none followeth thee commit whoredoms: and in that ou givest a reward, and no re-ard is given unto thee, therefore ou art contrary.
 15 ¶ Wherefore, O harlot, hear e word of the LORD:
 16 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thy filthiness was poured it, and thy nakedness discovered rough thy whoredoms with thy vers, and with all the idols of thy ominations, and by ¹⁷the blood of y children, which thou didst give to them;
 17 Behold, therefore ¹⁸I will gather l thy lovers, with whom thou st taken pleasure, and all them at thou hast loved, with all them at thou hast hated; I will even ther them round about against ee, and will discover thy naked-ss unto them, that they may see l thy nakedness.
 18 And I will judge thee, ¹⁹as omen that break wedlock and hed blood are judged; and I will ve thee blood in fury and jealousy.
 19 And I will also give thee into eir hand, and they shall throw own thine eminent place, and all break down thy high places:
 hey shall strip thee also of thy othes, and shall take ²⁰thy fair

42 So ^gwill I make my fury to-

43 Because ^hthou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore ⁱI also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord GOD: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 ¶ Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and ¹⁷thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, ¹⁸as if that were a very little thing, thou ^jwast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ^kSodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, ^lfulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, ^mneither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were haughty, and ⁿcommitted abomination before me: therefore I ^otook them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and ^p hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou; yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When ^q I shall bring again their captivity, ^r the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them;

54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art ^a a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not ¹ mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy ²⁰ pride, 57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy ^t reproach of the daughters of ²¹ Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which ²² despise thee round about.

58 Thou hast ²³ borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the LORD.

59 For thus saith the Lord God; I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised ^u the oath in breaking the covenant.

60 Nevertheless I will ^v remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee ¹⁰ an everlasting covenant.

61 Then ^x thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy ^y sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for ^z daughters, but ^a not by thy covenant.

62 And ^b I will establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD:

CHAPTER 17.

¹ By two eagles and a vine, it is shewed God's judgment upon Zedekiah, ² the promise of Christ's kingdom.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers, which had ¹ divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and ^a took the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into the land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and ² planted it in ^b a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it ^c as a willow tree.

6 And it grew, and became spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him; so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shewed forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers; and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good ³ soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a good vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? ^d shall it henceforth pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted shall it prosper? ^e shall it not utterly wither when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Say now to ^fthe rebellious ouse, Know ye not what these ings mean? tell them, Behold, he king of Babylon is come to rusalem, and hath taken the king ereof, and the princes thereof,
d led them with him to Babylon;
3 And ^hhath taken of the king's ed, and made a covenant with m, ⁱand hath ⁴taken an oath of m: he hath also taken the mighty he land:

4 That the kingdom might be ase, that it might not lift itself up, ⁵but that by keeping of his venant it might stand.

5 But ^khe rebelled against him, sending his ambassadors into gypt, ^lthat they might give him rses and much people. Shall he osper? shall he escape that doeth ch things? or shall he break the venant, and be delivered?

6 As I live, saith the Lord God, rely in ^mthe place where the king elleth that made him king, whose th he despised, and whose covent he brake, even with him in the idst of Babylon he shall die.

7 Neither ⁿshall Pharaoh with his hty army and great company ake for him in the war, ^oby cast-g up mounts, and building forts, cut off many persons:

8 Seeing he despised the oath by eaking the covenant, when, lo, he d ^pgiven his hand, and hath done these things, he shall not escape.
9 Therefore thus saith the Lord
od: As I live, surely mine oath at he hath despised, and my venant that he hath broken, even will I recompense upon his own ad.

10 And I will ^qspread my net upon m, and he shall be taken in my re; and I will bring him to bylon, and ^rwill plead with him ere for his trespass that he hath spassed against me.

11 And ^sall his fugitives with all bands shall fall by the sword, d they that remain shall be scatered toward all winds; and ye all know that I the LORD have oken it.

12 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; I ill also take of the highest ^tbranch the high cedar, and will set it; will crop off from the top of his ung twigs ^ua tender one, and will lant it upon an high mountain d eminent:

CHAPTER 18.

1 God disallows the parable of sour grapes:
25 he defends the equity of his dealings,
31 and exhorts to repentance.

THE word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

2 What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, ^aThe fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

3 As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

4 Behold, all ^bsouls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: ^cthe soul that sinneth, it shall die.

5 But if a man be just, and do ^dthat which is lawful and right,

6 And ^ehath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled ^fhis neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to ^ga menstruous woman,

7 And hath not ^hoppressed any, ⁱbut hath restored to the debtor his ^jpledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath ^kgiven his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

8 He ^lthat hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, ^mthat hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath ⁿexe-cuted true judgment between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he ^ois just, he shall surely ^plive, saith the Lord God.

10 ¶ If he beget a son ^qthat is a ^rrobber, ^sa shedder of blood, and ^tthat doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and ^odefiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath ^pcommitted abomination,

13 Hath ^qgiven forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his ^rblood shall be upon him.

14 ¶ Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, ^shath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath ^tgiven his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; ^uhe shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even ^vhe shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? ^wdoth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The ^xson shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: ^ythe righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But ^zif the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

23 Have ^bI any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD; and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 ¶ But ^cwhen the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? ^dAll his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, ^eThe way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, house of Israel; Is not ^fmy way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away ^gfrom his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore ^hI will judge you, house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord GOD.

ⁱ Repent, and turn ^jyourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ Cast ^kaway from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you ^la new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For ^mI have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn ⁿyourselves, and live ye.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Lamentation for the princes of Israel under the parable of lions' whelps taken in a pit; 10 for Jerusalem, by a wasteland vine.

MOREOVER ^atake thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,

2 And say, What is thy mother? Lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, when she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.

7 And he knew their desolate places, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the land of Babylon: they brought him to holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

10 Thy mother is like a vine of thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.

11 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was plucked up in fury, and was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered, the fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.

14 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong sceptre to rule. This is lamentation, and shall be for lamentation.

CHAPTER 20.

1 God refuses to be consulted by the elders of Israel: 4 their rebellions: 33 he threatens to rule them with rigour, but promises to gather them.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Are ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be enquired of by you.

4 Wilt thou judge them, son of man? wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:

5 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

11 And ¹I gave them my statutes, and ²showed them my judgments, ^mwhich if a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also I gave them my ⁿsabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they ^odespised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also ^pI lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;

16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for ^qtheir heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless ^rmine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols:

19 I am the LORD your God; ^swalk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;

20 And ^thallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding ^uthe children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 Nevertheless ^vI withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that ⁱI would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;

24 Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and ^jtheir eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore ^kI gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live:

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass ^lthrough the fire all that opened the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they ^mmight know that I am the LORD.

27 ¶ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Yet in this your fathers have ⁿblasphemed me, in that they have ^ocommitted a trespass against me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then ^pthey saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices: and there they presented the provocation of their offering: they also they made their ^qsweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings.

29 Then ^rI said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your gift, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and ^sshall I enquire of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you.

32 And that ^twhich cometh in your mind shall not be at all, thus say, We will be as the heathen as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you:

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:

38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will require your offerings, and the first-fruits of your oblations, with your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the nations.

42 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall bring you to the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings,

48 And all flesh shall see that I the Lord have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord God! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

CHAPTER 21.

1 Ezekiel prophecies against Israel with a sign of sighing. 8 Another prophecy of a bright and sharp sword.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel,

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north;

5 That all flesh may know that I the Lord have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more.

6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings, because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God.

8 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, ^aA sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? ²it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: ³terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: ⁴smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 ⁴Because it is a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord God.

14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite ⁵thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their ⁶privy chambers.

15 I have set the ⁶point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is ⁷wrapped up for the slaughter.

16 Go ⁸thine one way or other, either on the right hand, ⁸or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also ^msmite mine hands together, and ⁿI will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the ⁹parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to ¹⁰divination: he made ¹⁰his arrow bright, he consulted with ¹¹images he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was ¹²divination for Jerusalem, to a point ¹²captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to ¹³lift up the voice with shouting, ¹⁴to appoint battering-rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as false divination in their sight, ¹⁵as them that have ¹⁶sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance their iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the LORD God; Because ye ¹⁷have made your iniquity to be remembered, in your transgressions are discovered so that in all your doings your sin do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 ¶ And thou, ¹⁸profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day shall come, when iniquity shall have an end,

27 ²⁰I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: and it shall be no more, until ²¹he come whose right it is, and I will give it him.

28 ¶ And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD God ²²concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach, even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering:

29 Whiles they see vanity upon thee, whiles they divine a lie upon thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 ²³Shall I cause it to return in

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in ⁹ the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of ¹⁶ brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood ² shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the ² bloody city? yea, thou shalt ³ show her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the LORD God: The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh ^a idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast ^b shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made: and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore ^c have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

20 ¹² As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.

27 Her ^yprinces in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And ^zher prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the Lord hath not spoken.

29 The ^apeople of the land have used ^loppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy; yea, they have oppressed the stranger ^lwrongfully.

30 And ^bI sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the ^cgap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on ^cthe Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of the desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she ³committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were ⁴the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredom brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of ^dthe Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These ^ediscovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became ^ffamous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

12 She doted upon the ⁱAssyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers: clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the ^jimages of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 And ^kas soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the ^lBabylonians came to her into the bed of love, and the filed her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was ¹⁰ alienated from them.

8 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then ⁸ my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

9 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

10 For she doted upon their parnours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

11 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

12 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

13 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, and Shoa, and Kuz, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great men and renowned, all of them skilled upon horses.

14 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet and about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

15 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal maliciously with thee: they shall break away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

16 They shall also strip thee out thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

17 Thus will I make thy lewdness cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

18 For thus saith the Lord God; hold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom ^o thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated:

20 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall ^p leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast ^q gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her ^r cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord God; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: thou ^s shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt ^t even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou ^u hast forgotten me, and cast ^v me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The Lord said moreover unto me; Son of man, wilt thou ^w judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, ^x declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and ^y blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, ^z whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and ^a have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus ^b have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men ^c to come from far, ^d unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst ^cwash thyself, ^dpaintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a ¹⁴stately bed, and a table prepared before it, ^ewhereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men ¹⁵of the common sort were brought ¹⁶Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit ¹⁷whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord God; I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them ¹⁸to be removed and spoiled.

47 And ^gthe company shall stone them with stones, and ¹⁹dispatch them with their swords; ^hthey shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, ⁱthat all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols; and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

4 Gather the pieces thereof into even every good piece, the thigh and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock and ¹burn also the bones under, and make it boil well, and let the seethe the bones of it therein.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Woe to ^dthe bloody city, the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it bring it out piece by piece; let ^elot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of rock; ^fshe poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; ^gI have set her blood upon the top of a rock that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Woe ^hto the bloody city! will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice well, and let the bones be burnt.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and ⁱthe filthiness of it may be melted in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied ^jherself with lies, and her great scum went forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness, ^kbecause I have purged thee, thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, ^ltill I have caused thy fury to rest upon thee.

14 I ^mthe LORD have spoken it: shall come to pass, and I will do it. I will not go back, ⁿneither will I spare, neither will I repent: according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Also the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears ^orun down.

17 ^pForbear to cry, ^qmake mourning for the dead, ^rbind ire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and ²cover not thy ⁵lips, and eat lied: and I did in the morning as was commanded.

19 ¶ And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

21 Speak unto the house of Israel,
Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, ⁴the desire of your eyes, and ⁶that which our soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done:
ye shall not cover your lips, nor at the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon our heads, and your shoes upon our feet: ⁵ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ⁷ye shall pine away for our iniquities, and mourn one ward another.

24 Thus ²Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath one shall ye do; ⁹and when this cometh, ²ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be, in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and ⁷that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters,

26 That he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

27 In ^athat day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

Hear the word of the Lord God;
Thus saith the Lord God; ^bBecause thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;

4 Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the ¹men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink ^cthy milk.

5 And I will make ^dRabbah a stable for camels, and the Am-monites a couching place for flocks;
and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

6 For thus saith the Lord God;
Because thou hast clapped ^ethine ²hands, and stamped with the ³feet, and rejoiced in ⁴heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for ⁵a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries:
I will destroy thee; and thou shalt
know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God;
Because that ^eMoab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the ⁶side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim,

10 Unto the men of the east ⁷with
the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

12 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God;
Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah ⁸by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself
upon them;

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord
God; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and ⁹they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And ⁹I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; ^hBecause the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it ¹⁰for the old hatred;

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ⁱI will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off ^jthe Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the ¹¹sea coast.

17 And I will execute great ¹²vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall ^kknow that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

18 Now shall the isles tremble the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord God; When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee;

20 When I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set thy glory in the land of the living;

^h of Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made thy beauty perfect.

12 Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market.

14 They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules.

15 The men of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.

16 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate.

17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.

18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots.

21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue

15 clothes, and brodered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

25 The ¹ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

26 ¶ Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: ¹⁴ the east wind hath broken thee in the ¹⁶ midst of the seas.

27 Thy ¹⁷ riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, ¹⁷ and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the ¹⁸ midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

28 The ¹⁹ suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And ²⁰ all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall ²¹ cast up dust upon their heads, they shall ²² wallow themselves in the ashes:

31 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches, and of thy merchandise.

34 In the time when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, thy merchandise, and all thy company in the midst of thee, shall fall.

35 All ²³ the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people ²⁴ shall hiss at thee; thou shalt be ²⁵ a terror, and ²⁶ never shalt be any more.

CHAPTER 28.

1 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrus for his impious pride. 2¹ Judgment upon Zidon. 24 Restoration of Israel.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God: ^a Because thine heart is lifted and thou hast said, I am a god, I in the seat of God, in the ¹ midst of the seas; ^b yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

3 Behold, ^c thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that thou can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 ² By thy great wisdom and by thy traffic hast thou increased thine riches, and thine heart ^d is lifted because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast set ^e thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, ^f the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but he shall be a man, and no god, in the hand of him that ³ slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God; ⁴ Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in ¹ Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the ⁵ sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the ⁶ beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the ⁷ emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed ^kcherub that covereth; and I have set thee so; thou wast upon ^lthe holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty; thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I ^mwill lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy ⁷sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffic; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be ⁸a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, set thy face against Zidon, and prophesy against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^pI am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they ^qshall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be ^rsanctified in her.

23 For ^sI will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

24 ¶ And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God; When shall have ^ugathered the house of Israel from the people among

CHAPTER 29.

1 Judgment of Pharaoh for his treachery to Israel. 8 Desolation of Egypt. 17 Egypt Nebuchadrezzar's reward. 21 Israel shall flourish again.

IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and ^aagainst all Egypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^bBehold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great ^cdragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, ^dwhich hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But ^eI will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the ¹open fields; ^fthou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: ^gI have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a ^hstaff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 When ⁱthey took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder; and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 ¶ Yet thus saith the Lord God: At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled; yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil,

CHAPTER 30.

1 Desolation of Egypt and her helpers. The arm of Babylon shall be strengthened to break the arm of Egypt.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, prophesy and say Thus saith the Lord God; How ye, Woe worth the day!

3 For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the LORD: They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword saith the Lord God.

7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt; and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and a great pain shall come upon them as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord God: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon. 11 He and his people with him the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers ⁶ dry, and sell ^k the land into the hand of the wicked; and I will make the land waste, and ⁷ all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; I will also destroy ⁴ the idols, and I will cause their ⁸ images to cease out of ⁹ Noph; and ^m there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt; and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make ^o Pathros desolate, and will set fire in ¹⁰ Zoan, and will execute judgments in ¹¹ No.

15 And I will pour my fury upon ² Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No hall be rent asunder, and Noph hall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of ¹³ Aven and of ¹⁴ Phi-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At ^p Tehaphnehes also the day shall be ¹⁵ darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that am the LORD.

20 ¶ And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have ^a broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, ^r it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, or make it strong to hold the sword. 22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will ^s break his arms, the strong, and ^t that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And ^u I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

CHAPTER 31.

1 Glory of Assyria, 10 and fall thereof for pride: 18 like destruction to Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Behold, ^a the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon ¹ with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters ² made him great, the deep ³ set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her ⁴ little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore ^b his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, ⁶ when he shot forth.

6 All the ^c fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the ^d garden of God could not hide him; the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I ^ehave made him fair by the multitude of his branches; so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and ^shis heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; ^ehe shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, ^ethe terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: ^hupon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon ⁱhis ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees ⁷stand up in their height, all that drink water: for ^jthey are all delivered unto death, ^kto the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon ⁸to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to ^lshake at the sound of his fall, when I ^mcast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and ⁿall the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall ^obe comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that ^pdwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

CHAPTER 32.

1 Lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt. 11 The sword of Babylon shall destroy it, etc.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me saying,

2 Son of man, ^atake up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt and say unto him, Thou ^bart like a young lion of the nations, and ^cthou art as a ¹whale in the seas and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst ^dtheir rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord God; I will therefore ^espread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then ^fwill I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and ^gwill cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh ^hupon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood ²the land wherein thou swimmest even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall ³put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the ⁴bright lights of heaven will I make ⁵dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also ⁶vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people ⁷amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee

When I shall brandish my sword be-re them; and ^kthey shall tremble every moment, every man for

¶ For ^lthus saith the Lord GOD; the sword of the king of Babylon all come upon thee.

2 By the swords of the mighty all I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of m; and ⁿthey shall spoil the mp of Egypt, and all the multi-de thereof shall be destroyed.

3 I will destroy also all the beasts ereof from beside the great sters; ^oneither shall the foot of an trouble them any more, nor e hoofs of beasts trouble them.

4 Then will I make their waters ep, and cause their rivers to run e oil, saith the Lord GOD.

5 When I shall make the land of gypt desolate, and the country all be ⁷desstitute of that whereof was full, when I shall smite all em that dwell therein, then ^pshall ey know that I am the LORD.

6 This is the ^qlamentation where-th they shall lament her: the ughters of the nations shall la-ent her: they shall lament for r, even for Egypt, and for all her altitude, saith the Lord GOD.

7 ¶ It came to pass also in the

CHAPTER 33.

1 By the duty of a watchman Ezekiel is admonished of his duty. 10 God shows the justice of his ways. 30 The Jews reprov'd.

AGAIN came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to ^athe children of thy people, and say unto them, ¹When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their ^bwatchman:

3 If, when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then ²whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come and take him away, ^chis blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and ^dblow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 So ^ethou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, ^fO wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if ^ghe do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 ¶ Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we ^hpine away in them, how ⁱshould we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for ^kwhy will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The ^lrighteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, ^mhe shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness: neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if ⁿhe trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered: but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do ^othat which is lawful and right;

15 If the wicked restore the pledge, give ^pagain that he hath robbed, walk in the ^qstatutes of life, without committing iniquity, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None ^rof his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 ¶ Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but, as for them, the way is not equal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 Yet ye say, ^sThe way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 ¶ And it came to pass in the twelfth year ^tof our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, ^uthat one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, ^vThe city is smitten.

2 Now ^athe hand of the LORD was on me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came, and had opened my mouth, until he came unto me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

3 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
4 Son of man, ^athey that inhabit these wastes ^bof the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham ^cwas one, and he inherited the land: ^abut we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

5 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^bYe eat with the blood, and ^clift up your eyes toward your idols, and ^dshed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

6 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

8 For ^aI will lay the land ^bmost desolate, and the ^cpomp of her strength shall cease; and ^dthe mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through. Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.

9 Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are crying ^aagainst thee by the walls, and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray thee, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

10 And ^athey come unto thee ^bas my people cometh, and ^cthey sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

CHAPTER 34.

1 The shepherds of Israel reprov'd: 7 God's judgment against them: 11 his providence over his flock. 20 The Kingdom of Christ.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the "shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; ^bWoe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 Ye ^ceat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ^dye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The ^ediseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought for that which was lost; but with force ^fand with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they ^gwere scattered, ^hbecause there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 ¶ Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock: neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 ²As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in ^kthe cloudy and dark day.

13 And ^lI will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I ^mwill feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: ⁿthere shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 I ^owill seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God; ^pBehold, I judge between ^qcattle and cattle, between the rams and the ^rhe-goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must ^ttread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey;

CHAPTER 35.

Judgment of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel, and exulting over their distress.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and ^aprophesy against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against ee, and I will make thee ¹most desolate.

I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

Because thou hast had a ²perpetual hatred, and hast ³shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, ^bin the time that their iniquity had an end.

Therefore, as I live, saith the LORD God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: ^csith thou hast not shed blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that turneth.

And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

I ^dwill make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not turn; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

Because thou hast said, ^eThese nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess; ^fwhereas the LORD was there: I Therefore, as I live, saith the LORD God, I will even do ^gaccording to thine anger, and according to thine envy, which thou hast used against of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself ^hknown among them, when I have judged thee.

1 Israel comforted. 25 Blessings of Christ's kingdom.

ALSO, thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD:

2 Thus saith the Lord God; Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha! ^aeven the ancient high places are ours in possession:

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; ¹Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ²ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the ³rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey ^band derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Surely ^cin the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, ^dwhich have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have ^eborne the shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I have ^flifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and ^hthe wastes shall be builded:

11 And ⁱI will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit; and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings; ^jand ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; ^kand they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth ^lbereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; Because they say unto you, ^mThou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither ⁿbereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Neither ^owill I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD.

16 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, ^pthey defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as ^qthe uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them ^rfor the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their ^sidols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And I ^tscattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: ^uaccording to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they ^vprofaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity ^wfor mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, ^xbut for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify my glorious name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be ^wsanctified in ^xbefore ^ytheir eyes.

24 For ^zI will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 Then ^awill I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean ^bfrom all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A ^cnew heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my ^dSpirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 And ^eye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; ^fand ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also ^gsave you from all your uncleanness; and ^hI will cause you to increase and lay no famine upon you.

30 And ⁱI will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then ^jshall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and ^kshall loath yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 Not ^lfor your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities, I ^mwill also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And ⁿthe desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden ^m of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities ^{re} become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall ⁿ know that the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: for the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the LORD GOD; ^PI will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; and will increase them with men like flock.

38 As the ⁷ holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 37.

Revival of Israel prefigured. 15 Union of Israel with Judah. 20 Promises of Christ's kingdom.

THE hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out ^a in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, and caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open ¹ valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And answered, O Lord GOD, ^bthou knowest.

Again he said unto me, ^cProphecy on these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones, Behold, I will ^dcause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them: but there was no breath in them.

Then said he unto me, Prophecy to the ²wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied, as he commanded me, ^vand the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, ^hOur bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, ⁱO my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring ^jyou into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And ^kshall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live; and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, ^ltake thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for ^mthe children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, ⁿWilt thou not show us what thou meanest by these?

19 Say ^ounto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand ^pbefore their eyes.

21 ¶ And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, ^qI will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

22 And ^rI will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and ^sone king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 Neither ^tshall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but ^uI will save them out of all their dwelling-places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And ^vDavid my servant shall be king over them; and ^wthey all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children, ^xfor ever: and ^ymy servant David shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover I will make a ^zcovenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my ^asanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 My ^btabernacle also shall be with them; yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

14 ¶ Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God; In ^ythat day will I bring my people of Israel dwelleth safely: shalt thou not know it?

15 And ^a thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, ^t that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time ⁷ by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For ^u in my jealousy and ^v in the ire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; 20 So that ^x the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall quake at my presence, and ^y the mountains shall be thrown down, and the ^z steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will ^a call for a sword against him throughout all ^a my mountains, saith the Lord God: every man's sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and ^c great hailstones, ice, and brimstone.

I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

2 And I will turn thee back, and I leave but the sixth part of thee, ² and will cause thee to come up from ³ the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: ^b I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every ⁴ sort, and to the beasts of the field ⁵ to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon ⁶ the open field; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 And ^c I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell ⁷ carelessly in ^d the isles; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them ^e pollute my holy name any more: ^f and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

8 ¶ Behold, ^g it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day whereof ^h I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the ⁸ hand-staves, and the spears, and they shall ⁹ burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: ⁱ and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea; and it shall stop the ¹⁰ noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog, and all his multitude; and they shall call it, The valley of ¹¹ Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, ^j that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them ^{12a} a renown, the day that ^k I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

14 And they shall sever out ¹³ men of continual employment, passing through the land, to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he ¹⁴ set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamongog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be ¹⁵ Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 ¶ And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak ¹⁶ unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble ^l yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my ¹⁷ sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ^o ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, ^p with mighty men, and with all ¹⁹ men of war, saith the Lord GOD.

21 And ^q I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and ^r my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore ^s hid I my face from them, and ^t gave them into the hand of their enemies; so fell they all by the sword.

29 Neither ^c will I hide my face any more from them: for I have ^d poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the LORD GOD.

CHAPTER 40.

¹ Time, manner, and end of Ezekiel's vision. 39 Eight tables: 44 chambers for the singers.

IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that ^a the city was smitten, in the selfsame day ^b the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In ^c the visions of God brought me into the land of Israel, ^d and set me upon a very high mountain by which ^e was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and behold, ^f there was a man, whose appearance ^g was like ^e the appearance of brass, ^f with a line of flax in his hand, ^h and ⁱ a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, ^h Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and shew thine heart upon all that I shall show thee; for to the intent that I might show ⁱ them unto thee ^{art} thou brought hither: ^j declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold ^j a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring of six cubits long by the cubit an hand-breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, the reed; and the height, one reed.

Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad, and the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits: and the threshold of the gate, by the porch of the gate within, was one reed.

He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits;
the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

He measured then the gate in the roof of one little chamber and the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door into door.

He made also posts of three-teen cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

And from the face of the gate the entrance unto the face of the court of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to the posts within the gate round about it, and likewise to the arches;
the windows were round about ward: and upon each post were trees.

Then brought he me into the ward court, and lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made in the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates, over against the length of the gates, was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth, from the fore-front of the lower gate unto the fore-front of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 After that he brought me toward the south, and, behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them; and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits ¹³ broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and ^r palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they ^s washed the burnt offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering, and ^t the sin offering, and ^u the trespass offering.

40 And at the side without, ¹⁴ as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

cubit high: whereupon also ^t laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering ^u the sacrifice.

43 And within were ¹⁵ hooks, hand broad, fastened round about and upon the tables was the ^v of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner were the chambers of ^v the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward south; one at the side of the gate having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, ^T chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, ^w keepers of the ¹⁶ charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, ^x the keepers of charge of the altar: these are the sons of ^y Zadok among the sons of Levi, which ^z come near to the Lord to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, four-square: and the altar that was before the house.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured ^a each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The ^a length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth was eleven cubits; and he brought ^b by the steps whereby they went to it: and there were ^b pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER 41.

Measures, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

A^aFTERWARD he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the ^{1d} was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door two cubits, and the door six cubits, and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

So he ^bmeasured the length thereof, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, this is the most holy place.

After he measured the wall of the house six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber four cubits, round about the house on every side.

And ^cthe side chambers were three, ^done over another, and thirty in order; and they entered to the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might ^ehave hold, it they had not hold in the wall of the house.

And ^fthere was an enlarging and winding about still upward to the side chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house is still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

I saw also the height of the house round about: the ^gfoundations of the side chambers were a wall reed of six great cubits.

The thickness of the wall, which is for the side chamber without, is five cubits: and that which is left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

And between the chambers is the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place at was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof sixty cubits.

So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, and the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

21 The ^{ag}posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The ^{ah}altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the LORD.

23 And ^{ai}the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were ^{aj}narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

CHAPTER 42.

1 Priests' chambers: 13 the use thereof. 15 Outward court measured.

THEN ^ahe brought me forth into ^bthe outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries ¹were higher than these, ²than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the outer court on the fore part of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And ³from under these chambers was ⁴the entry on the east side, ⁵as one goeth into them from the outer court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the

CHAPTER 43.

1 The glory of God returns into the temple. 7 His promise to dwell there if the people put away their sins. 13 Of the altar.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate ^athat looketh toward the east:

2 And, ^bbehold, the glory of the LORD of Israel came from the way toward the east: and his ^cvoice was like the noise of many waters: ^dand the earth shined with his glory.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.
21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he ²²shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, ²³without the sanctuary.
22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering;
and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.
23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.
24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, ²⁵and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD.
25 Seven ²⁶days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall ^sconsecrate themselves.

27 And ^dwhen these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your ^apeace offerings; and I will ^eaccept you, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 44.

1 The east gate assigned only to the prince.

2 Idolaters incapable of the priest's office.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which ^alooketh toward the east, and it was shut.

2 Then said the LORD unto me, This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for ^bthe prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to ^ceat bread before the LORD; he ^dshall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 ¶ Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, ^ebehold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; and I fell upon my face.

5 And the LORD said unto me, ^aSon of man, ¹mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the ^brebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; O ye house of Israel, ⁱlet it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In ^jthat ye have brought into my sanctuary ²strangers, ^kuncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer ^lmy bread, ^mthe fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations.

ye have set keepers of my ³chain my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; ^astranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of ^bstranger that is among the child of Israel.

10 And ^cthe Levites that are away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went away from me after their idols, they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in sanctuary, ^dhaving charge at gates of the house, and minister to the house: they shall slay burnt offering and the sacrifice the people, and ^ethey shall stand before them to minister unto the house.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and ^fcaused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I ^glifted mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And ^hthey shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to ⁱmy holy things, in the most holy place; but they shall ^jbear the shame, and their abominations which they have committed:

14 But I will make them ^kkeepers of the charge of the house, for the service thereof, and for all things that shall be done therein.

15 ¶ But ^lthe priests the Levites ^mthe sons of Zadok, that kept charge of my sanctuary when children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near ⁿmy table, to minister unto me, and they shall ^okeep my charge.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass that when they enter in at the gate of the inner court, ^pthey shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them whiles they minister in the gate of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins: they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, ^cthey shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 Neither ^fshall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

21 Neither ^fshall any priest drink wine when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is ⁷put away; but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow ⁸that had a priest before.

23 And ⁹they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And ^hin controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep ⁱmy laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; ^jand they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And ^kafter he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth to the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord God.

28 And it shall be unto them for inheritance; I ^mam their inheritance: and ye shall give them possession in Israel; I ⁿam their possession.

29 They ⁿshall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every ⁹dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the ¹⁰first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, ^pthat he may

CHAPTER 45.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince, etc.

MOREOVER, ¹when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer ^aan oblation unto the LORD, ²an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five ^bhundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the ³suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the ^cpriests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD; and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 And ^dthe five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for ^etwenty chambers.

6 ¶ And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 ¶ And ^fa portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward; and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and ^gmy princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; ^aLet it suffice you, O princes of Israel: ⁱremove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your ^eexactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

10 Ye shall have just ^jbalances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the ^kshekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley.

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer:

15 And one ^llamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel, for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for ^mpeace offerings, ⁿto make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land ^oshall give this oblation ^pfor the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he ^qshall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the ^rpeace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord God; In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and ^scleanse the sanctuary:

19 And ^tthe priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon

CHAPTER 46.

1 Ordinances for the prince in his worship, and for the people, etc.

THUS saith the Lord God; The gate of the inner court, that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on ^{as}the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 And ^{at}the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering, and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth, but ^{au}the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise ^{av}the people of the land shall worship at the door of the gate before the LORD, in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

4 And ^{aw}the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath day shall be seven lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And ^{ax}the meat offering shall ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs ¹as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil an ephah.

And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish.

And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for six lambs according as his hands shall attain unto, and an hin of oil an ephah.

And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the arch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

¶ But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

And in the feasts and in the solemnities, the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil an ephah.

Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary ^hburnt offering, peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, ⁱone shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then shall he go forth; and after his going forth ^jone shall shut the gate.

Thou shalt daily prepare a meat offering unto the LORD of a bushel ²of the first year without blemish; thou shalt prepare it every morning.

And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the chief part of an ephah, and the chief part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.

1 The vision of the holy waters: 6 the virtue of them. 13 Borders of the land, &c.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, ^awaters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the outer gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when ^bthe man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the ¹waters were to the ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, ²waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the ³bank of the river were very many trees ^con the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the ⁴desert, and go into the sea; which being brought forth into the sea, the waters ^dshall be healed.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side from the great sea, the ^kway of Hethlon, as men go to ^lZedad;

16 ^mHamath, ⁿBerothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; ¹¹Hazar-hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the east shall be ^oHazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall measure ¹²from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan from the border unto the east side. And this is the east side.

19 And the south side southward from Tamar even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the ¹⁴river to the great sea. And this is the south side ¹⁵southward.

20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till man come over against Hamath. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for inheritance unto you, and ^pto strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you; ^qand they shall be unto you as born in the country among children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 48.

23 Portions of the twelve tribes, 8 of the sanctuary. 30 Gates of the city.

NOW these are the names of the tribes. From ^athe north end the coast of the way of Hethlon, one goeth to Hamath, Hazaran, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath; for these are his sides east and west; ¹a portion for Dan.

And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Asher.

And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Manasseh.

And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim.

And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reuben.

And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Judah.

And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be ^bthe offering which shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

The oblation that ye shall offer to the LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of five thousand in breadth.

And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof.

²It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, which have kept my ³charge, which

CHAPTER 1.

1 Jehoiakim's captivity. 3 Ashpenaz takes Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah, to instruct them: 17 their excellency in wisdom.

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah ^acame Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with ^bpart of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried ^cinto the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 ¶ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring ¹certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

in all wisdom, and cunning knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom ^ethey might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them daily provision of the king's meat, and of ²the wine which he drank, so nourishing them three years: that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were, of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah;

7 Unto ^fwhom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: ^gfor he gave unto Daniel the name of Belshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishaël, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 ¶ But Daniel purposed in his art that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

Now God had brought Daniel to favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed you meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me danger my head to the king.

Then said Daniel to Melzar, Sometime the prince of the eunuchs did set over Daniel, Hananiah, Ishael, and Azariah, Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat; and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine at they should drink, and gave them pulse.

¶ As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in visions and dreams.

Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Ishael, and Azariah: therefore God showed them before the king.

And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king required of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in his realm.

21 And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Nebuchadnezzar forgets his dream: 14 it is revealed to Daniel. 31 The dream.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, ^a wherewith his spirit was troubled, and ^b his sleep brake from him.

2 Then ^c the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to show the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriac, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be ¹ cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill:

6 But if ye show the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and ² rewards and great honour: therefore show me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would ³ gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, ^d there is but one decree for you; for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can show me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth; and there is none other that can show it before the king, ^eexcept the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Daniel ⁴answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the ⁵captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree ^{so} hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would show the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies ⁶of the God of heaven concerning this secret; ⁷that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 ¶ Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel ⁹in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, ^hBlessed be the name of God for ever and ever: ⁱfor wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth ^jthe times and the seasons: ^khe removeth kings, and setteth up kings: ^lhe giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 He ^mrevealeth the deep and secret things: ⁿhe knoweth what is in the darkness, and ^othe light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and ^phast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast ^{now} made known unto us the king's matter.

24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, ⁸I have found a ⁹chief of the captives of Judah that can make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said unto Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot be revealed unto thee by the wisdom of the magicians, the soothsayers, or the enchanters, but I will shew unto the king:

28 But ⁹there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and ¹⁰maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter day. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these:

29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts ¹¹came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter; and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

30 But ¹²as for me, this secret is revealed to me for ^{any} wisdom that I have more than any living, ¹³that I might shew thee the interpretation of the dream, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 ¶ Thou, O king, ¹³sawest, and beheld, a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and thou sawest thereof ^{was} terrible.

32 This image's head ^{was} of gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his ¹⁴thighs of brass, 33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out ¹⁵without hands, which smote the image upon his feet, and the image was broken in pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind ried them away, that no place was and for them: and the stone that rote the image ^abecame a great ountain, ^tand filled the whole rth.

³ ¶ This is the dream; and we ll tell the interpretation thereof for the king.

⁴ Thou, ^uO king, art a king of ngs: for ^vthe God of heaven hath en thee a kingdom, power, and length, and glory.

And ^wwheresoever the children men dwell, the beasts of the field d the fowls of the heaven hath ou art this head of gold.

And after thee shall arise ^xanother third kingdom of brass, ich shall bear rule over all the th.

And ^ythe fourth kingdom shall strong as iron: forasmuch as n breaketh in pieces and subeth all things: and as iron that aketh all these, shall it break in ces and bruise.

And whereas thou sawest the t and toes, part of potter's clay, part of iron, the kingdom shall divided; but there shall be in f the strength of the iron, forasch as thou sawest the iron mixed h miry clay.

And as the toes of the feet
e part of iron, and part of clay, the kingdom shall be partly ng, and partly ¹⁶broken.

And whereas thou sawest iron ted with miry clay, they shall gle themselves with the seed of a: but they shall not cleave one o another, even as iron is not ted with clay.

And in ¹⁸the days of these kings ll the God of heaven set up a gdom, which ^zshall never be de-oyed: and the ¹⁹kingdom shall be left to other people, ^abut it ll break in pieces and consume these kingdoms, and it shall d for ever.

46 ¶ Then ^cthe king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worthat they should offer an oblation ^dand sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and ^echief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and ^fhe set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon:
but Daniel ^gsat in the gate of the king.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Nebuchadnezzar commands to worship a golden image: 8 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego refuse.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made ^aan image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the ^bprinces, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up;
and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then an herald cried ¹aloud, To you ²it is commanded, ^cO people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, ³dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up.

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same ^dhour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psalter, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, ⁹O king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psalter, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There ^hare certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, ⁴have not regarded thee; they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then ¹they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it ⁵true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my ^jgods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psalter, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, ^kwell; but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; ^land who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, ^mwe are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and ¹will deliver us out of thine hands, O king.

18 But if not, ^obe it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar ⁶full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; ⁷therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the ⁷mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound with their ⁸coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their ⁹other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the king's ¹⁰commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, ¹¹the flame of the fire slew those that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his ¹²counsellors, Did not we command three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo see four men loose, ⁴walking in the midst of the fire, and ¹³they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth ¹⁴like ^rthe Son of God.

26 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the ¹⁴mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said unto Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ¹⁵ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come ^{hither}. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego came forth of the midst of the furnace.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw them, ¹⁶upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither was their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's mind, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god except their own God.

Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

CHAPTER 4.

Nebuchadnezzar acknowledges God's eternal dominion: 4 he relates a dream: 5 Daniel interprets it: 28 the dream fulfilled.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, said unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

I thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my head troubled me.

Therefore made I a decree to call in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

Then came in the magicians, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream unto them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of the God, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying.

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven:

14 He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the "dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It ^vis thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, ^wand thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, ^xand let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord ^ythe king:

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee ^zto eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, ^atill thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and ^bgiveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the ^cheavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and ^dbreak off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; ^eif it may be ^fa lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked ^gin the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king ^hspake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 While ⁱthe word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken. The kingdom is departed from thee:

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The ^jsame hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and he did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days, Nebuchadnezzar lifted up his eyes unto heaven, and mine eyes standing returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised and honoured him ^kthat liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And ^lall the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: ^mhe doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and ⁿno man can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me, and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellence and majesty was added ^ounto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, ^pall whose works are true, and his ways judgment: ^qand that he that walk in pride he is able to abase.

CHAPTER 5.

Belshazzar's impious feast: 5 a hand writing troubles him: 17 Daniel reproves the king for pride, profaneness, and idolatry.

BELSHAZZAR the king ^amade a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before a thousand.

Belshazzar, while he tasted the golden vessels, commanded to bring the silver and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had ²taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might ^bdrink therein.

Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

They drank wine, ^cand praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

[¶] In ^dthe same hour came forth the light of a man's hand, and wrote upon the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

Then the king's ^ecountenance was changed, and his ^fthoughts troubled him, so that the ^gjoints of his loins were loosed, and his ^hknees smote one against another.

The king cried ⁱaloud to bring the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king ^jsaid, and said to the wise men of Babel, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, ^kand shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Then came in all the king's wise men: but ^lthey could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his ^mcountenance was changed in him, and his lords were confounded.

[¶] Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake, and said, O king, for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is a man in thy kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy ⁹father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy ¹⁰father, the king, I say, thy father, made ^kmaster of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

¹² Forasmuch ^las an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, ¹¹interpreting of dreams, and showing of hard sentences, and ¹²dissolving of ¹³doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

¹⁴ I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

¹⁵ And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not show the interpretation of the thing:

¹⁶ And I have heard of thee, that thou canst ¹⁵make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

¹⁷ [¶] Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy ¹⁶rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

¹⁸ O thou king, ^mthe most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

¹⁹ And for the majesty that he gave him, all ⁿpeople, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive, and whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down.

20 But ^owhen his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened ¹⁷in pride, he was ¹⁸deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was ^pdriven from the sons of men; and ¹⁹his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; ^qtill he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, ^rhast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast ^slifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see ^tnot, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, ^uand whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

25 ¶ And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath ^vnumbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TEKEL; ^wThou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the ^xMedes and ^yPersians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

1 Daniel's preferment: 10 the princes conspire against him, and he is cast into the den of lions: 18 he is miraculously saved.

IT pleased Darius to set ^aover the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these three presidents of whom ^bDaniel was first; that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, ^cbecause an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 ¶ Then ^dthe presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but ^ethey could find no occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find ^fit against him concerning the law of his country.

6 Then these presidents and princes ^gassembled together to take counsel against this Daniel, and said thus unto him, ^hKing Darius, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the principal counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall not obey the petition of any god or man, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish this decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which ⁱaltereth not.

9 Wherefore ^jking Darius signed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and, ^khis window being open in his chamber ^ltoward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees ^mthree times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before ⁿthe Lord, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then ^othey came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

Then answered they, and said before the king, That Daniel, ¹⁰ which of the children of the captivity of Judah, ¹¹ regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition four times a day.

Then the king, when he heard these words, ¹² was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God, whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

And ¹³ a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were ¹⁴ instruments of music brought before him: and ¹⁵ his sleep went from him.

Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, ¹⁶ is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

Then said Daniel unto the king, ¹⁷ O king, live for ever.

My God hath sent ¹⁸ his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, ²⁵ and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, ²⁶ their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Daniel's vision of the four beasts, 9 of God's kingdom: 15 the interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel ¹ had a dream and visions ² of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the ³ matters.

2 Daniel spake, and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts ⁴ came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was ⁵ like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, ⁶ and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And ⁷ behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and ⁸ it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, ever for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet.

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak great words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

7 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, ^a whose kingdom an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

8 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAPTER 8.

Daniel's vision of the ram and he-goat. 13 The two thousand three hundred days of suspension of the daily sacrifice. 15 His vision interpreted.

IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at ^a Shushan in the palace, which is in the province ^b of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than ¹ the other, and the higher came up last.

I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

And as I was considering, behold, the he-goat came from the west, on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the ram at had ³ a notable horn between his eyes.

And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and, when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up ^d four notable ones, toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward ^e the south, and toward the east, and toward the ^f pleasant land.

10 And ^g it waxed great, even ^h to the host of heaven: and ⁱ it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, ^j he magnified himself even ^k to the prince of the host, and ^l by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And ^m an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 ⁿ Then I heard ^o one saint speaking, and another saint said unto ^p that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression ^q of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred ^r days; then shall the sanctuary be ^s cleansed.

15 ^t And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, ^u Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was afraid, and ^v fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand. O son of man; for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and ^w set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors ¹³are come to the full, a king ^mof fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, ⁿbut not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the ¹⁴holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by ¹⁵peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be ^obroken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: ^pwherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days: afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to ^bJeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

6 Neither ^dhave we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness ²belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the me of Judah, and to the inhabitant of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel that are near, and that are far off through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To ^ethe Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judge us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet ³made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with mighty hand, and hast ⁴gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city ⁵ which is called by thy name: for we do not ⁶ present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly ⁷ swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth ⁸ to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the ⁹ commandment came forth, and I am come to show thee; for thou art ¹⁰ greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 ¹¹ Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people, and upon thy holy city, ¹² to finish the transgression, and ¹³ to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and ¹⁴ prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy.

CHAPTER 10.

¹ Daniel, having humbled himself, sees a glorious vision: ¹⁰ being troubled with fear, he is comforted by the angel.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was ¹ long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three ² full weeks.

3 I ate no ³ pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is ⁴ Hiddekel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold ⁵ a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my ⁶ comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And, behold, an hand touched me, which ⁷set me upon my knees and ⁸upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, ⁸a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and ⁹stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, ^aMichael, ¹⁰one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, ^bI set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men ^ctouched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can ¹¹the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me,

19 And said, O man greatly beloved, ^dfear not: peace be unto thee; be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

2 And now will I show thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And ^ca mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and ^ddo according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up ^ehis kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, ^fnor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they ¹shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make ²an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and ³he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her root shall one stand up ⁴in his estate which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail;

8 And shall also carry captive into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with ⁵their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than he king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons ⁶ shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, ⁹ and overflow, and pass through: ⁷ then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his ^h heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come ⁸ after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also ⁹ the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take ¹⁰ the most fenced cities; and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither ¹¹ his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the ¹² glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also ⁱ set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and ¹³ upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, ¹⁴ corrupting her; but she shall not stand on his side, ^k neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince ¹⁵ for his own behalf shall cause ¹⁶ the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

21 And ²⁰ in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; ^m yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter ²¹ peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall ²² forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And ²³ he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' ²⁴ hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the ²⁵ time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 For ⁿ the ships of Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they ⁹shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that ²⁰maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he ²⁷corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do ²know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And ⁴they that understand among the people shall instruct many; ⁷yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try ²⁸them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall ⁹exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, ⁶nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 ²⁹But ³⁰in his estate shall he honour the God of ³¹forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and ³²pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the ³³most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for ³⁴gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles. 5 Daniel informed of the times.

AND at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people; ^aand there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people ^bshall be delivered every one that shall be ^cfound written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, ^dsome to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And they that be ¹wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness ^eas the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 ¶ Then I Daniel looked, and behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the ²bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

HOSEA.

CHAPTER 1.

Hosea, to show God's judgment for spiritual whoredom, takes Gomer, and hath by her Jezreel. 10 Restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE ¹word of the LORD that came unto Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Nabash, king of Israel.
² The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.
³ So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.
⁴ And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will ¹avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Israel, ²and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.
⁵ And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.
⁶ ¹And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name ²Lo-ruhamah: for ³I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away.
⁷ But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by bare a son.

⁹ Then said God, Call his name ⁵Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.
¹⁰ Yet ⁶the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that ⁶in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are ⁴the sons of the living

6 ¶ Therefore, behold, ⁹I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and ⁴make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, ^hI will go and return to my ⁱfirst husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and ⁵wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, ⁶which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will ⁷recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her ⁸lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will ⁹destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and ^kI will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her ^lthe days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she ^mdecked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and ⁿbring her into the wilderness, and speak ¹⁰comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and ^othe valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 3.

1 By the prophet taking unto him an adulteress, ⁴is shown the desolation of Israel, and their restoration.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons ¹of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an ²half homer of barley.

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: as will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without ³an image, and without an ^bephod, and without a teraphim:

Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and ^cseek the LORD their God, and David ^dtheir king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the ^elatter days.

CHAPTER 4.

God's judgments against the sins of the people, 6 and of the priests. 15 Judah exhorted to take warning by Israel's calamity.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath ^aa controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because ^bthere is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge ^bof God in the land.

By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and ¹blood reacheth blood.

Therefore ^cshall the land mourn, and every ^done that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of the air; yea, the fishes of the sea shall be taken away.

Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people ^eare they ^ethat strive with the priest. Therefore shall thou fall ^fin the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

[¶] My people are ³destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will so forget thy children.

As they were increased, so they increased against me: ^{therefore} will I change their glory into shame.

They eat up the sin of my people, and they ⁴set their heart on their iniquity.

And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will ⁵punish them for their ways, and ⁶reward them their doings.

For ⁷they shall eat, and not have enough; they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase; because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

¹ Whoredom and wine and new wine take ^haway the heart.

[¶] My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff deceiveth unto them: for ^jthe spirit of whoredoms hath caused ^{them} to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

CHAPTER 5.

1 God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins, 15 until they repent.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment ^{is} toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolvers are profound to make slaughter, ¹though I have been a rebuker of them all.

4 ²They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms ^{is} in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity: Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD; for they have begotten strange children: now shall ^ba month devour them with their portions.

8 ¶ Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at ^cBeth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that ^dremove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after ^ethe commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as ^frottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent ^gto king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 I will go and return to my place, ^htill they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Exhortation to repentance: 4 complaint of their iniquity.

COME, and let us return unto the LORD: for ^ahe hath torn, and ^bhe will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then ^cshall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us ^das the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your ^egoodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

6 For I desired ^cmercy, and ^dnot sacrifice: and the ^eknowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But they, ³like men, have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is ⁴polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way ⁵by consent for they commit ⁶lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set harvest for thee, ⁷when I return the captivity of my people.

CHAPTER 7.

1 A reproof of manifold sins. 11 God's wrath against Israel for their hypocrisy and evil imaginations.

WHEN I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the truth cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without:

2 And they ³consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their ^aown doings have beset them about; they are ^bbefore my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the prince ^cwith their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, ^dhe ceaseth ^efrom raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick ⁶with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have ⁷made ready the heart like an oven, whilst they wait in wait: their baker sleepeth in the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; their kings ^dare fallen: ^ethere is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 ¶ Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; yea, grey hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Israel testified to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will ring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have edged from me; destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they bowed upon their beds; they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the Most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue. This shall be their decision in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 8.

Destruction threatened to Israel and Judah for their impiety and idolatry.

1 SET the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAPTER 9.

Distress and captivity of Israel for their sins, and especially their idolatry.

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every corn-floor.

2 The floor and the wine-press shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the LORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of ³destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: ⁴the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come: Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, ⁵the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred ⁶in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of ⁶Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first-ripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a ⁷miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolvers.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit; yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even ⁸the beloved fruit of their womb.

Israel reprov'd and threatened for their impiety and idolatry.

ISRAEL is ¹an empty vine, I bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made good ²images.

2 ³Their heart is divided; no shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgments springeth up as herlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of ^athe calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and ⁵the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to ^bking Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon ⁶the water.

8 The high places also of Aven ^cthe sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and ^dthe shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there thou stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, ⁷where they shall bind themselves in the two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon ⁸her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow ^eto yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy forresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled ⁹Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of ⁹your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER 11.

Ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits: 5 his judgment upon them: 8 his mercy.

WHEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, and ^acalled my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: ^cthey sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to raven images.

3 I ^dtaught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that ^eI healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was as they that ¹take off the yoke on their jaws, and I ^flaid mine hand upon them.

5 ¶ He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because ^gthey refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his ranches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

8 How ^hshall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Seboim? ^jMine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: ^kfor I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into thee.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Ephraim and Judah reprov'd. 3 They are exhorted to repent. 7 Ephraim's sins provoke God.

EPHRAIM feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; ^aand they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil ^bis carried into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will ¹punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 ¶ He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he ²had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in ^cBeth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

7 ¶ He is ³a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to ⁴oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich. I have found me out substance: ⁵in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me ⁶that were sin.

9 And I, that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feasts.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, ⁷by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in ^dGilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria; and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a prophet the LORD

Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorts to observe them, 8 and to mourn: 1 He prescribes a fast and prayer.

the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

¹⁴ Sanctify ²ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and ^aall the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD,

¹⁵ Alas ^rfor the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

¹⁶ Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, ^ajoy and gladness from the house of our God?

¹⁷ The ³seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

¹⁸ How do ^tthe beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

¹⁹ O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the ^upastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burnt all the trees of the field.

²⁰ The beasts of the field ^ucry also unto thee: for ^tthe rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ Terribleness of God's judgments: ¹² Joel exhorts to repentance, ¹⁵ prescribes a fast, ²¹ Zion graciously comforted.

BLLOW ye the ¹trumpet in Zion, and sound ^aan alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for ^bthe day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

² A ^cday of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: ^aa great people and a strong: ^cthere hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years ²of many generations.

³ A fire devoureth before them, and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained; ⁹all faces shall gather ³blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one trust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the ⁴sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great: for ^hhe is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and ⁱwho can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the LORD, Turn ^jye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning;

13 And ^krend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is ^lgracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 Who ^mknoweth if he will return and repent, and leave ⁿa blessing behind him, even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

15 ¶ Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly;

16 Gather the people, ^osanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, ^pgather the children, and those that suck the breasts; let ^qthe bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet:

BEHOLD, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

I ^awill also gather all nations, and will bring them down into ^bthe valley of Jehoshaphat, and ^cwill read with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

And they have ^dcast lots for my people; and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O ^eTyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? ^fwill ye render me a recompence? and if ye compensate me, swiftly and ^gspeedily will I return your recompence upon your own head;

Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly ^hpleasant things:

Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

AMOS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Time when Amos prophesied. 3 He shows God's judgments upon Syria, 6 the Philistines, 9 Tyrus, 11 Edom, 13 and Ammon.

THE words of Amos, who was among the ^aherdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel ^bin the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the ^cearthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD will roar from Zibn, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

3 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^dDamascus, ¹and for four, I will not ²turn away the punishment thereof; ^ebecause they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from ³the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ⁴the house of Eden: and ^fthe people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^gGaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they ⁵carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall ^hof Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not ⁱthe brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

1 Lamentation for Israel. 4 Exhortation to repentance. 21 God rejects their hypocritical service.

HEAR ye this word which ^aI take up against you, even lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The virgin of Israel is fallen: she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is no to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD: The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and the city which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, ^bSeek ye me, ^cand ye shall live:

5 But seek not ^dBeth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to ^eBeersheba: for Gilgal shall surely be into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire from the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it, Beth-el.

7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the ^fsevens stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that ^gcalleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; ^hthe LORD is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the ⁱspoils against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 They ^jhate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they ^kabhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as ye tread is upon the poor, and take from him burdens of wheat, ^kye have built houses of beauty with stone, but ye shall not dwell hem; ye have planted ²pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take ³a bribe, and they ⁴turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek ^mgood, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

15 Hate ^othe evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: ^pit may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Failing shall be in all streets; and ye shall say in all the highways, alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation shall be wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for ^rI will pass through them, saith the LORD.

18 Woe ^sunto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ¶ I ^thate, I despise your feasts, and I will not ^usmell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings I will not accept them; neither will I regard the ^vpeace offerings of your beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment ^wrun down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 Have ^xye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne ^ythe tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun

1 The wantonness of Israel: 7 shall be plagued with desolation: 12 their perversion of justice shall end in affliction.

WOE to them that ¹are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named ²chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass ye unto ^aCalneh, and see; and from thence go ye to ^bHamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 Ye that ^cput far away the evil day, and cause the ³seat of violence to come near;

7 ¶ Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The Lord God hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city, with all ⁸that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? And he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue; for ⁹we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with ¹⁰breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶ Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the ^dentering in of Hamath unto the ¹¹river of the wilderness.

1 The judgment of the grasshoppers, 4 and of the fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos. 7 By a wall and plumb-line is signified the rejection of Israel.

THUS hath the Lord GOD showed unto me; and, behold, he formed ¹grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: ²by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 The ^aLORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord GOD showed unto me; and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD ^brepented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 ¶ Thus he showed me; and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, ^cI will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: ^dI will not again pass by them any more:

10 ¶ Then Amaziah ^uthe priest of Beth-el sent to ^hJeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is unable to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, Thou seer, go, flee thee away in the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But ^tprophesy not again ^smore at Beth-el: for it is the king's ³chapel, and it is the ⁴king's court.

14 ¶ Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I ^ka prophet's son; ^qI was an herdman, and a gatherer of ⁵sycamore fruit:

15 And the LORD took me ⁶as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 Now therefore hear thou word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, ^mand drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore ⁿthus saith the LORD, Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by lightning, and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely be into captivity forth of his land.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Israel's end shown. 4 Oppression of the poor reproved. 11 A famine of the word threatened.

THUS hath the Lord GOD showed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, ^aThe end is come upon the people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall many dead bodies in every place: they shall cast them forth ²with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail, 5 Saying, When will the ³new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and ^bthe sabbath, that we may ^aset forth wheat, making ^cthe ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

The LORD hath sworn by ^dthe excellency of Jacob, Surely ^eI will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall /not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, ^gas by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, ^hthat I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; ⁱand I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 ^jBehold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that swear ^kby the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy God, O Dan, liveth; and, The ^lmanner of Beer-sheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER 1.

Jonah, sent to Nineveh, flees to Tarshish; ⁴he is overtaken by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto ^aJonah the son of Amitai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, that ^bgreat city, and cry against it; for ^ctheir wickedness, is come up before me.

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to ^eJoppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish / from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But the LORD ¹sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship ²was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, ⁹call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us ²cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

10 Then were the men ⁴exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea ⁵may be calm unto us? for the sea ⁶wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for ⁷my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men ⁷rowed hard to bring it to the land; ⁸but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the ⁴bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from ⁵corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: ^dand my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Jonah preaches to the Ninevites: 3 they repent.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an ¹exceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and ^acried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nineveh ^bbelieved God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, ^cand sat in ashes.

7 And ^dhe caused it to be proclaimed and ²published throughout Nineveh by the decree of the king and his ³nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock taste any thing; let them not feed nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God; yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

BUT ^ait displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, ^bremove this my saying when I was in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a ^bgracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore ^cnow, O LORD, take, beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, ¹Does thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared ²gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down ³a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria ^aas an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

3 Who also ^beat the flesh of man, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then ^cshall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD ^dconcerning the prophets that make men people err, that bite ^ewith their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him:

6 Therefore ^fnight shall be unto you, ¹that ye shall not have vision; and it shall be dark unto you, ²that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; yea, they shall all cover their ³lips: for ⁹there is no answer of God.

8 But truly I am full of power ^hby the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, ⁱto declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 ¶ Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 They build up Zion with ⁴blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and ^athe priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet ^lwill they lean upon the LORD, ⁵and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

BUT ^ain the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow into it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords ^cinto plowshares, and their spears ^linto pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, ^dneither shall they learn war any more.

4 But ^ethey shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of ⁹sheep; who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And ¹¹it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 Then ⁴she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now ⁵shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 ¶ In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also he shall come even to thee from Assyria, ⁶and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

13 ⁷Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 ¶ ⁸Feed thy people with thy rod; the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in ⁹the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I show unto him marvellous things.

16 The nations ^hshall see, and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay ⁱtheir hand upon ⁱtheir mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like ⁹worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.

18 ¶ Who ⁱis a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? ^khe retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will ^lsubdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20 Thou ^mwilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

NAHUM.

CHAPTER 1.

¹ The burden of Nineveh. ² Majesty of God, ⁷ in goodness to his people, ⁸ and severity against his enemies.

THE burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

² ¹ God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and ² is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

⁴ He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

⁵ The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

⁶ Who can stand before his indignation? and who can ³ abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

⁷ ¶ The LORD is good, a ⁴ strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

⁸ But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

⁹ What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: increase shall not rise up the second time.

¹⁰ For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

¹¹ There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.

¹³ For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

CHAPTER 2.

Judah and Israel being punished, God sends fearful armies against their enemies.

HE ¹ that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face; keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

² For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

³ The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are ³ in scarlet: the chariots shall be with ⁴ flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

⁴ The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways: ⁵ they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

⁵ He shall recount his ⁶ worthies: they shall stumble in their walk, they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the ⁷ defence shall be prepared.

⁶ The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be ⁸ dissolved.

⁷ And ⁹ Huzzab shall be ¹⁰ led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

⁸ But Nineveh is ¹¹ of old like a pool of water; yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall ¹² look back.

⁹ Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold; ¹³ for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the ¹⁴ pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste; and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions; and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER 3.

Miscrable ruin of Nineveh.

WOE to the ¹bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of sin, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

Because of the multitude of the fornications of the well-favoured whoret, the ^amistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her fornications, and families through her witchcrafts.

Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and ^bI will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will show the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazingstock.

And it shall come to pass, that they that look upon thee shall weep from thee, and say, Nineveh is id waste: who will bemoan her?

HABAKKUK.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, 5 is shown the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans.

THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou show me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore ¹wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 ¶ Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvelously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, ²I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the ³breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: ⁴their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more ⁵fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: ⁶their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 ¶ Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O ⁷mighty God, thou hast ⁸established them for correction.

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in the net, and gather them in the ¹⁰drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore ^athey sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat ¹¹plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore ¹²empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER 2.

1 Unto Habakkuk, waiting for an answer is shown that he must wait in faith. Judgment upon the Chaldeans for their sins.

I WILL stand upon my watch, and set me upon the ¹tower, and will watch to see what he will say ²unto me, and what I shall answer ³when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make plain upon tables, that he may read that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 ¶ Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but he shall just live by his faith.

5 ⁴Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, when he enlargeth his desire as hell, and as death, and cannot be satisfied: but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say ⁵Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

5 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

6 ¶ Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

7 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

8 ¶ For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

9 ¶ Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

10 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

11 ¶ For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

12 ¶ Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

13 Thou art filled with shame and glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

14 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of cities, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

15 ¶ What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath given it; the molten image, and a maker of lies, that the maker of sin work trusteth therein, to make himself idols?

16 ¶ Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

1 Habakkuk's prayer: 3 God's majesty in delivering his people. 17 Stability of the prophet's faith.

A PRAYER of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth.

2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

3 ¶ God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was as the light; he had horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses, and thy chariots of salvation.

9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages; they ¹³came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.

15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the ¹⁴heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the

3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the ³stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and ⁴I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the ^bChemarims with the priests;

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops; and them that worship and that swear ⁵by the LORD, and that swear ^cby Malcham;

13 Therefore their goods shall be come a booty, and their houses desolation: they shall also buy houses, but ⁹not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but ^hnot drink the wine thereof.

14 The ⁱgreat day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

6 A day of the trumpet and arm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

7 And I will bring distress upon ^{en}, that they shall walk like blind ^{en}, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

8 Neither ^ktheir silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he will make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai ⁶the prophet, saying,

4 *Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and the house lie waste?*

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; ³Consider your ways.

6 Ye have sown much, and brought forth little; ye eat, but ye are not filled: ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages, earneth wages ^{to} put it into a bag ^{with} holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and ye will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought home, I did blow ^{upon} it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore ^{do} the heaven over you stay from dew, and the earth stay from her fruit.

11 And I ^{called} for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and ^{upon} all the labour of the hands.

13 Then spake Haggai the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And ^{the} LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^{the} governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; ^{and} they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is ^{unclean} by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, ^{So} is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, ^{consider} from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the press-fat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I ²smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; ³yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am ^ajealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for ^oI was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in ^z, saith the LORD of hosts, and ^ane shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread broad; ^rand the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and ^sshall yet choose Jerusalem.

18 ¶ Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? and he answered me, 'These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD showed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to ray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which ^ulifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAPTER 2.

An angel sent to measure Jerusalem, and its flourishing state under God's protection foretold.

LIFTED up mine eyes again, and looked, and, behold, ^aa man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? and he said unto me, ^bTo measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

CHAPTER 3.

¹ Under the type of Joshua, the restoration of the church promised. 8 Christ the Branch promised.

AND he showed me ^aJoshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and ¹Satan standing at his right hand ²to resist him.

2 And ^bthe LORD said unto Satan, ^cThe LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that ^dhath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: ^eis not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

3 Now Joshua was clothed with ^ffilthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying,

Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, ^uand I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair ^amitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my ³charge, then thou shalt also ⁱjudge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee ⁴places to walk among these that stand by.

8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men ⁵wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth ^jmy servant ^kThe BRANCH.

9 For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; ^lupon one stone shall ^mbe seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and ⁿI will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under ^othe vine and under the fig tree.

CHAPTER 4.

AND the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, ^aas a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and, behold, ^ba candlestick all of gold, ¹with a bowl upon the top of it, ^cand his seven lamps thereon, and ^dseven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

3 And ^dtwo olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall ^aalso finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small things? ⁴for they shall rejoice, and shall see the ⁵plumbing line in the hand of Zerubbabel ⁶with those seven; ⁷they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a flying roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the ^acurse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for ¹every one that stealeth shall be cut off ²as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off ³as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the

ORD of hosts, and it shall enter to the house of the thief, and to the house of him that swear falsely by my name: and it shall main in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the number thereof and the stones thereof.

Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the years.

And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

And he said, This is Wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came at two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these carry the ephah?

And he said unto me, To build an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

AND I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

In the first chariot were red horses, and in the second chariot black horses,

And in the third chariot white horses, and in the fourth chariot griseled and bay horses.

Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the LORD of all the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest;

13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

15 And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD; and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The captives enquire of fasting: 4 Zechariah reproves their hypocritical fasting. 8 They are exhorted to repentance, etc.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto

Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu;

2 When they had sent unto the house of God Sherezer and Regem-melech, and their men, ¹to pray before the LORD,

3 And to ^a speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, ^beven those seventy years, did ye at all fast ^cunto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, ²did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 ³Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried ⁴by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited ^dthe south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, ⁵Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and ⁶pulled away the shoulder, and ⁷stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his Spirit ⁸by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was desolate after them,

1 Jerusalem's restoration. 9 They encouraged to the building by favour.

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

^a 2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ^aI was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: ^bJerusalem shall be called A city of truth; and ^cthe mountain of the LORD of hosts, ^dThe holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ^eThere shall yet old men and women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand ¹for age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If it be ²marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, ^fshould it also be marvel in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; ^gand they shall be a people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ^hLet your hands be strong, ye shall hear in these days these words of the mouth of ⁱthe prophets, which ^jwere in ^jthe day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days ^kthere was no hire for man, nor any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 For the seed shall be ⁵prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her crease, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause a remnant of this people to ⁶possess all these things.

3 And it shall come to pass, that ye were ⁴a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear ⁷not, let your hands be strong.

4 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; ⁵As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not:

5 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah: say ye not.

6 ¶ These are the things that ye all do; ⁷Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; ⁸execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

7 And ⁸let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I ⁹hate, saith the LORD.

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying, 9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the ninth, shall be to the house of Judah ¹⁰joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth, and peace.

10 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

11 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go ¹²speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I will go also.

12 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of the languages of the nations, even all take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you; for we have heard that the LORD is with you.

1 God defends his church. 9 Zion exhorted to rejoice for the coming of Christ.

THE burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and ²Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when ³the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

2 And ³Hamath also shall border thereby; ⁴Tyrus, and ⁵Zidon, though it be ⁶very wise.

3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite ⁵her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon ⁶shall see it, and fear; ⁷Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful; and Ekron, for her expectation, shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod; and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will take away his ¹blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God; and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And ⁹I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now ¹⁰have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoice ¹greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy ²King cometh unto thee: he is ³just, and ⁴having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off; and he shall speak ¹peace unto the heathen; and his dominion shall be ²from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, ³by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy ⁴prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare that I will render double unto thee;

13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and ⁴subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they ⁵shall be filled like bowls, and as ⁷the corners of the altar.

16 And ⁴the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for ⁴*they shall be as* the stones of a crown, lifted ⁷up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! Corn shall make the young men ⁶cheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAPTER 10.

¹ God to be sought unto, and not idols. ³ As he visited his flock for sin, so will he save and restore them.

ASK ye ^aof the LORD rain ^bin the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make ¹bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the ²idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they ³were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I ⁴punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts ^chath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

OPEN thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedar.

2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the ¹mighty is spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan, for ²the forest of the vintage come down.

3 ¶ There is a voice of the howl of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roar of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God: Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and ^ahold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them ^bsay, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall ^olook upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

11 In that day shall there be a ^hgreat mourning in Jerusalem, ^{as} the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 And the land shall mourn, ^{every} family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will ^bcut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause ^cthe prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then ^dhis father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear ²a rough garment ³to deceive:

1 Destruction of Jerusalem. 3 Coming of Christ, and graces of his kingdom. The remnant shall turn to the Lord.

BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For ^aI will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall be cut off from the city.

3 ¶ Then shall the LORD go forth and fight against those nations as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 And his feet shall stand in the day upon ^bthe mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst toward the east and toward the west, ^cand there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountains shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of ¹the mountains; ²for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azel: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the ^dearthquake of the days of Uzziah king of Judah; ^eand the LORD my God shall come and ^ffall the saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass hat day, ³that the light shall not be ⁴clear, nor ⁵dark:

7 But ⁶it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at ⁷evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters ⁸shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be King over all the earth: in that day shall there be ⁹one LORD, and his name ¹⁰one.

10 All the land shall be ¹¹turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and ¹²inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, ¹³and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's wine-presses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no ¹⁴more utter destruction; but Jerusalem ¹⁵shall be safely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that ¹⁶there shall be a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ The priests are sharply reprov'd for profaning the covenant given them: 11 and the people for strange marriages, treachery, and impiety.

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If ^aye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will ¹corrupt your seed, and ²spread dung upon your faces: even the dung of your solemn feasts; and ³one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My ^bcovenant was with him, of life and peace; and I gave them him ^cfor the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did ^dturn many away from iniquity.

7 For ^ethe priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should see the law at his mouth: ^ffor he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have ^gcaused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but ^hhave been partial in the law.

10 Have ⁱwe not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem, for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he ^jloved, and ^khath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, ^lthe master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles

Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And ^kdid not he make one? Yet had he the ^sresidue of the Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek ^aa godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal ¹⁰treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For ¹the LORD, the God of Israel, saith ¹¹that he hateth ¹²putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to our spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ¶ Ye have wearied the LORD with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth vil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; ^rWhere is the God of judgment?

BIBLICAL CHRONOLOGY, ETC.

OLD TESTAMENT CHRONOLOGY.

By the REV. OWEN C. WHITEHOUSE, M.A., Professor of Hebrew, Cheshunt College, near London.

the difficulty of arranging a satisfactory chronology of the Old Testament is very great. This is due to the various eras, or chronological starting points, that have been adopted for various periods by different nations for measuring the progress of time. In addition to this, such periods as the Regal Period of Jewish history and of the Judges in Israel are indefinite. The period of the Patriarchs fronts us with diverse traditions.

The few dates fixed by Scripture, and the very few definite periods indicated, only serve to make a tabular arrangement more difficult. However, with the assistance of the archaeology of Egypt and Assyria, an approximate chronology may be arranged, which is more exact as we descend the stream of time. This is set forth in the following tabulated form:—

Both Israel and Judah are hard pressed by the invasions of Hazael and of his successor, Benhadad, kings of Syria. But Jehovah, in response to the prayers of Jehoshaphat, sends a "deliverer." The Assyrian records show that this was Ramman-nirari III., who in 803 B.C. inflicted a crushing defeat on Benhadad. See Schrader's Cuneif. Insc. and Testaments, Vol. I., p. 203 foll.; Vol. II., p. 324, and comp. 2 Ki. xiii. 5.

the reign of Hezekiah we are confronted with a very serious difficulty in Chronology. In 2 Ki. xviii. 13 we are told that Sennacherib came up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them, in the fourteenth year of Hezekiah. This invasion, we know from the Assyrian documents, took place in 701 B.C. On the other hand, we read in 2 Ki. xviii. 10 that Samaria was captured in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which would place Hezekiah's accession in the year 727-6 B.C. There is a further subsidiary element which complicates the problem. From 2 Ki. xvi. 2 we learn that Ahaz was twenty years old at his accession, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. From 2 Ki. xviii. 1 we learn that Hezekiah was fifteen years old when he began to reign; consequently Ahaz was not more than twelve years old when Hezekiah was born. To those who know the conditions of Oriental life this itself constitutes no insuperable obstacle. Various methods have been adopted for clearing up the chronological difficulty indicated above. (1) It has been suggested that the date in 2 Ki. xviii. 13 is blending the invasion of Palestine, and capture of Ashdod by Sargon in 711 B.C., which would fall in the fourteenth year of Hezekiah's reign, with the invasion of Sennacherib, which happened ten years later. Comp. Sayce's Fresh Light from the Ancient Monuments, p. 136 foll. (2) It has been proposed to make 715 the year of Hezekiah's accession (Kamphausen). In addition to this, the present writer has suggested that, as in the case of Jotham (2 Ki. xv. 5), Hezekiah may have been associated with Ahaz in the year 726, and hence arose a double mode of reckoning, viz., from the year of the conjoint reign and from that of the sole reign of Hezekiah. (3) The most ingenious, and, perhaps, satisfactory solution of the problem, was that which was put forward by Dr. Hincks, a very eminent Assyriologist, in the Journal of Sacred Literature, October, 1858. "The text, as it originally stood, was probably to this effect: 2 Ki. xviii. 13a, 'Now, in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, the King of Assyria came up' (referring to the attack mentioned in Sargon's annals against Philistia and Ashdod, 711 B.C.), xx. 1-19. 'In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death,' etc. . . . xviii. 13b. 'And Sennacherib, King of Assyria, came up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them,' etc., . . . down to xix. 37."

the following table, based on Prof. Fritz Smell's history of Babylonia and Assyria, and his history, Wiedemann, and other authorities, will be found useful by students of the prophecies of Jeremiah and Ezekiel:—

Thirteenth year of Josiah, king of Judah.
Beginning of Jeremiah's prophetic ministry (Jer. i. 2; xxv. 3).

Eighteenth year of Josiah. Discovery of the book of the law—Deuteronomy (2 Ki. xxii. 3 foll.).

Thirty-first year of Josiah (comp. 2 Ki. xxii. 1). Josiah falls at the battle of Megiddo in conflict with Pharaoh Necho (2 Ki. xxiii. 29).

Jehoahaz reigns three months.

First year of Jehoiakim.

605-4 Fourth year of Jehoiakim. First year of Nebuchadrezzar (Nebuchadnezzar) (Jer. xxv. 1). Battle of Carchemish (Jer. xli. 2; comp. also Jer. xxvi. 1 and xlv. 1).

598-7 Eleventh year of Jehoiakim; in which he died (2 Ki. xxiv. 1).

597 Jehoiachin reigns three months, and is carried away by Nebuchadrezzar, with 10,000 of the Jewish population, to Babylon. Among these captives is the prophet Ezekiel (2 Ki. xxiv. 12). This was the eighth year of Nebuchadrezzar. Jer. xxiv. 1; xxxix. 1, 2.

597-6 First year of Zedekiah, and first of the deportation or exile of Jehoiachin. This is the event from which Ezekiel continually dates his events (2 Ki. xxiv. 17; comp. Jer. xxxvii. 1 and xlix. 34).

594-3 Fourth year of Zedekiah (Jer. xxviii. 1; li. 59).

593-2 Fifth year of Zedekiah and of the Exile—thirtieth year mentioned in Ezekiel i. 1 (according to Targum, "thirtieth year" dates from the discovery of the book of Deuteronomy, but this is doubtful).

Sixth year of Zedekiah and of the Exile (Ezek. viii. 1).

Seventh year of Zedekiah and of the Exile (Ezek. ix. 1).

Ninth year of Zedekiah and of the Exile; 10th Tebet, i.e., near the end of December, 589, beginning of the siege of Jerusalem (2 Ki. xxv. 1; Jer. lii. 4 and xxxix. 1, also Ezek. xxiv. 1 foll.).

Tenth year of Zedekiah, eighteenth of Nebuchadrezzar (Jer. xxxii. 1); the Babylonian army encamped before Jerusalem. Ezekiel's prophecy against Egypt (Ezek. xxix. 1) on 12th Tebet.

Eleventh year of Zedekiah; (9th Tammuz) capture of Jerusalem. Flight and capture of Zedekiah (2 Ki. xxv. 3 = Jer. lii. 6; Jer. xxxix. 2).

7th Ab, or July, 587—Nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar, Jerusalem destroyed (2 Ki. xxv. 8; Jer. lii. 12), with the precise date, 10th Ab.

5th Tebet (end of December), Ezekiel hears the news of the fall of Jerusalem (Ezek. xxxiii. 21).

1 Nisan [?], prophecy against Tyre after the fall of Jerusalem, Ezek. xxvi. 1, 2 (fall of Jerusalem referred to), etc.

7th Nisan (end of March, 586), new prophecy against Egypt (Ezek. xxx. 20).

1st Sivan (end of May), new prophecy against Egypt (Ezek. xxxi. 1).

Egypt.

590-570 Uaphris or Apries (Egypt. Uahabra, the Hophra of the Bible), rendered uneasy by the victorious inroads of the Babylonians in Palestine, makes a descent on Sidon and captures it, defeats the Cyprians and Tyrians in a naval battle, and urges Zedekiah to conclude an alliance (Jer. xxxvii. 3-10).

When Jerusalem, after a second siege, had been captured by Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Egypt opens the frontiers of his realm to receive the exiled inhabitants.

Babylonia.

605-562 Nebuchadrezzar (Nebuchadnezzar).

Tyre, besieged by the Babylonians, holds out successfully for thirteen years under Ethbaal II.
Comp. Ezek. xxvi. 1 foll.; xxviii. 16-18.

586-5 Twelfth year of the Exile—1st Adar (middle of February, 585), new prophecy against Egypt (Ezek. xxxii. 1).

15th Adar (beginning of March, 585), lamentation over the defeat of Egypt (Ezek. xxxii. 17).

573-2 Twenty-fifth year of Exile—10th Nisan (end of March, 572) = fourteenth year from the capture of Jerusalem (Ezek. xl. 1).

571-70 Twenty-seventh year of Exile—1st Nisan (March 21, 570), prophecy on Tyre and Egypt (Ezek. xxix. 27).

561-60 Thirty-seventh year of Exile—first official year of Evil-Merodach—27th Adar (middle of March, 560), Jehoiachin released from prison (2 Ki. xxv. 27).

550-536 The prophecies of Isaiah xl.-lxvi. mainly refer to the circumstances, events, and anticipations of this interval, and herald the coming restoration of the Jews by Cyrus II.

Note.—The beginning of the Exile served, to a limited extent, the purpose of an era. It is unfortunate, however, that that era was sometimes dated from the deportation of Jehoiachin (Ezek. i. 2; viii. 1; xx. 1; xxiv. 1; xxvi. 1; xxix. 1, 17; xxx. 20; xxxi. 1; xxxii. 1, 17; xxxiii. 21; xl. 1; 2 Ki. xxv. 27; Jer. lii. 31), from which the seventy years' Exile was originally reckoned (Jer. xxix. 10; comp. xxv. 11 foll.); and sometimes from the deportation from Jerusalem, when that city was destroyed eleven years later (Ezek. xl. 1; comp. Jer. 1. 3).

536 Cyrus' edict for the restoration of the Jews. First caravan journey of returning exiles under Zerubbabel and Joshua.

535 Rebuilding of the Temple commenced. It is opposed by the Samaritans.

529 A letter is sent to the Persian king in opposition to the rebuilding of the Temple.

522 The building is arrested by decree of the Persian king.

521 Edict of Cyrus to the Jews is reaffirmed by Darius, son of Hystaspes.

Egypt.

570-526 Amasis (Manetho: Amosis) or Aahmes, makes alliances with the Greek despot Polycrates of Samos.

Foreign colonists settle in Egypt.

Prosperity of the Greek Naucratis.

Invasion by the Babylonians (568).

526-525 Psamtik III. captured and slain by Cambyses.

xxvii. dynasty (Persians).

525-521 Cambyses. (See next column).

Babylonia.

568 Nebuchadnezzar vades Egypt in thirty-seventh year of his reign (comp. Ezek. xxix. 17; xxx. 19).

562 Evil-Merodach (Amil (Avil) Merodach) succeeds illustrious father. Decline of Babylonia under his successors, viz. (560), Belshazzar and Nabonaid (Nabonidus).

550 Cyrus II., son of Cambyses, conquers Media, Lydia, and subsequently Babylonia.

538 Capture of Babylon by Cyrus, and the fall of Babylonian Empire, and establishment of the Persian Dominion.

528-529 Cyrus.

529-521 Cambyses advances against Egypt; the only power that remained in opposition to the supremacy of Persia. Conquers Memphis, and captures Psamtik and puts him to death. Dies on the march of his army to suppress the rebellion of the Magians, who have given himself out to be Bartja (Smerdis), the king's brother who had been put to death some years previously.

0 Prophetic ministry of Haggai and Zechariah commences. Resumption of the building (Hag. i.).

5 Dedication of the Temple.

3 Artaxerxes commissions Ezra to go to Judea on a journey of inquiry, accompanied by seven royal counsellors and Israelites, priests and Levites (Ezra vii.). The work of reformation and reorganisation begins, and continues during the following year.

Foreign wives are put away (Ezra ix.).

New commission to Nehemiah, the royal cup-bearer, who obtains leave of absence, with letters to the governors west of the Euphrates. In spite of the opposition, plots, and accusations of Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite, and Geshem (Gashmu) the Arabian, the walls are rebuilt. The Book of the Law is read for seven days, and Festival of rejoicing held (Feast of Tabernacles), followed by a fast of humiliation and repentance.

Nehemiah returns to the Persian court, and again obtains permission to return to Jerusalem to reform the abuses which had sprung up in his absence. He abolishes the Sabbath trading, and checks the habit of mixed marriages. Prophetic ministry of Malachi.

Persia.

521-485 Darius, son of Hystaspes, an enlightened ruler, improves the commerce of his kingdom—completes a canal from the Nile to the Red Sea.

BRIEF CHRONOLOGICAL CONSPECTUS OF NEW TESTAMENT HISTORY.

By the REV. OWEN C. WHITEHOUSE, M.A., Professor of Hebrew
Cheshunt College, near London.

Note on the Birth of our Lord.—From Josephus (Antiq. xvii. 8, 1; Wars, i. 33, 8) we learn that Herod died in the thirty-seventh year of his reign. Now Herod was made king in the consulship of Cn. Domitius Calvinus and C. Asinius Pollio, i.e., B.C. 40 (714 A.V.C.). Most writers have supposed that the year is reckoned by Josephus from the month Nisan; moreover, we may conclude from Josephus (Antiq. xvii. 9, 3) that Herod died at the beginning of the thirty-seventh year, or immediately before Passover. Consequently we must add thirty-six years to 714 A.V.C. Hence we get 750 A.V.C. = B.C. 4 as the date of Herod's death, and since this took place subsequent to the birth of Jesus, B.C. 4 is the latest possible date that can be assigned to the birth of our Lord. (See Wieseler's "Chronological Synopsis of the four Gospels," sec. i. chap. 2.) See note on page 10.

Thus, our Christian era is really calculated from a wrong starting-point. This was derived from the defective chronology of Dionysius Exiguus (6th cent.), who made the year of our Lord's birth, or A.D. 1, to correspond to 754 A.V.C.

B.C. 4. Probable date of our Lord's birth. Herod's death. Archelaus becomes ethnarch of Judea, Samaria, and Idumæa.

A.D. 8. Jesus visits Jerusalem at the age of twelve, and converses with the rabbis in the Temple.

A.D. 26. Ministry of John the Baptist.

27. Baptism of Jesus Christ at the age of thirty. His temptation, and auguration of his ministry (Matt. iii. 1-6, 13-17; Mk. i. 1-11; Lk. 15-18, 21, 22). First miracle at Cana in Galilee (John ii. 1-11). Feasts of Passover (April 9). Discourse with Nicodemus (John iii. 1-21). John the Baptist is imprisoned. Herod, the Tetrarch of Galilee, detains John the Baptist (Lk. iii. 18-20). Christ leaves Judea for Galilee, and on the way visits Sychar. His discourse with the Samaritan woman; visit to Cana, and heals the nobleman's son (Matt. iv. 12; Mk. i. 14; J. iv. 46-54). Revisits Nazareth; dress at the Synagogue, and capes with his life (Lk. iv. 14). Gathers four disciples—Andrew, Simon, James, and John (Matt. iv. 18-22; Mk. i. 16-20). First Clean Circuit with the disciples (Matt. iv. 23-25; Mk. i. 35-39; J. iv. 42-44).

27-28. Sermon on the Mount (probably one, but separate discourses sayings collected). Subsequent miracles. Call of Levi or Matthew to be a disciple (Matt. v. ix. Mk. i. 40; ii. 14; Lk. v. 1-28).

28. March 29. Christ's Second Passover (John v.). Discussions with the Pharisees. Heals the man with a withered hand (Matt. xii. 1-13; Mk. ii. 23; iii. 6; Lk. vi. 1-11). Returns to Galilee and chooses the Apostles (Matt. x. 2-4; Mk. iii. 13-19; Lk. vi. 12-16). Further miracles. Message from John the Baptist (Matt. viii. 5-13; xi. 2-30; Lk. vii. 1-35).

Second Galilean Circuit (Lk. viii. 1-3). Christ's Parabolic teaching (Matt. xiii. 1-53; Mk. iv. 1-34; Lk. viii. 4-18). (These parables were delivered on separate occasions at intervals which cannot be determined.) Quelling of the storm. Heals the Gadarene demoniac and performs other miracles (Matt. viii. 18-34; ix. 18-34; Mk. v. 1-43; Lk. viii. 22-56).

29. Third Galilean Circuit (Matt. ix. 35 foll.; x. 1; Mk. vi. 7-13; Lk. ix. 1-6). Feeding of the 5000 (Matt. xiv. 13-23; Mk. vi. 30-46; Lk. ix. 10-17; John vi. 1-14). Jesus walks on the sea and quells the storm; afterwards returns to Capernaum and performs many acts of healing (Matt. xiv. 24-36; Mk. vi. 47-56; John vi. 16-24). Discourse in the Synagogue of Capernaum on the bread of life (John vi. 25-71).

Third Passover (April 16). Jesus stays in Galilee (John vii. 1). Controversy with Scribes and Pharisees sent from Jerusalem. Jesus heals the demoniac daughter of the Syro-Phœnician woman, and a dumb man (Matt. xv. 1-30; Mk. vii. 1-37). Feeding of the four thousand and voyage to Magdala (Matt. xv. 31-39; Mk. viii. 1-9). Jesus prophesies his coming death and resurrection, and subsequent persecution of his disciples. The transfiguration. Healing of a dumb demoniac (Matt. xvi. 21-23; xvii. 23; Mk. viii. 27; ix. 31; Lk. ix. 18-45). Seventy evangelists sent forth (Lk. x. 1-20).

[At this point in the life of our Lord it becomes especially difficult to arrange the events with any approximation to their actual sequence. We seem to be dependent on two gospels for the next series of events, viz., in the order:—(1) John vii. 2—viii. 59; (2) Lk. x. 25—xi. 13; (3) John ix. 1—xi. 54. According to Wieseler's Chronological Synopsis, p. 292, we have the following parallels:—(a) Lk. ix. 51—xiii. 21 runs parallel with John vii. 10—x. 42, the departure of our Lord in Lk. ix. 51, being the same as that referred to in John vii. 10. (b) Lk. xiii. 22—xvii. 10 is parallel with John xi. 1-54, both having certain common features. (c) Lk. xvii. 11—xix. 28 is parallel with John xi. 55—xii. 11.

A.D. 29

In this series of narratives Wieseler attempts to fix the following dates:—(1) our Lord leaves Galilee about the time of the Feast of the Tabernacles, 15th Tishri=October 12, A.D. 29. He reaches Jerusalem and teaches in the Temple in the middle of the feast (ver. 14) after having passed through Samaria and sent forth the seventy. On the sabbath of the feast occur the events described in John vii. 14-53, i.e., 22nd Tishri (October 19). On this sabbath also occurred the events of John viii. 1, 2, 12—x. 21. (2) John xi. 1-54 (comp. Lk. xiii. 22—xvii. 10) treats of our Lord's last journey but one to Judea. The following is the arrangement of the Synoptic narratives according to Wieseler:—

Lk. xvii. 11—xviii. 14.
Mk. x. 1-12 (=Matt. xix. 1-12).
Lk. xviii. 15-17 (=Mk. x. 13-16; Matt. xix. 13-15).
Lk. xviii. 18-30 (=Mk. x. 17-31; Matt. xix. 16-19, 30).
Matt. xx. 1-16.
Lk. xviii. 31-34 (=Mk. x. 32-34; Matt. xx. 17-19).
Mk. x. 35-45 (Matt. xx. 20-28).
Lk. xviii. 35-43 (Mk. x. 46-52; Matt. xx. 29-34).
Lk. xix. 1-10.
Lk. xix. 11-28 (Matt. xxv. 14-30).
Others would make the order (1) John vii. 2—xi. 54; (5) Lk. ix. 51—xviii. 14; but this is attended with difficulties.]

Feast of Tabernacles (October) (John vii. 2 foll.). Jesus goes to the feast privately.

Feast of Dedication (Dec.) John x. 22. Christ again visits Jerusalem.

30. Raising of Lazarus (John xi. 6-54).

March 30. Arrival in Bethany six days before the Passover (John xii. 1-9).

Christ anointed by Mary (Matt. xxvi. 6-13; Mk. xiv. 3-9; Lk. vii. 36-50).

Plot against Jesus and Lazarus (John xii. 10, 11). Christ enters Jerusalem and cleanses the Temple (Matt. xxi. 1-16; Mk. xi. 1-18; Lk. xix. 29-48).

Parables and Discourses (Matt. xxi. xxv.; Mk. xi. xiii.; Lk. xx., xxi).

Last Passover (April 5). (Matt. xxvi. 1-5; Mk. xiv. 1, 2; Lk. xxii. 1, 2).

Conspiracy of the Jews. Paschal Supper (Matt. xxvi. 1-35; Mk. xiv. 1-31; Lk. xxii. 1-39; John xiii. 1-38).

Discourses in John xiv.-xvii. Gethsemane, Betrayal, Trial, Crucifixion, Resurrection, and Ascension (Matt. xxvi. 36—xxviii.; Mk. xiv. 32—xvi.; Lk. xxii. 40—xxiv.; John xviii.—xxi.).

Ascension of Jesus Christ. Matthias appointed by lot to fill Judas' place (Acts i.).

- A.D. 30 Day of Pentecost and descent of the Holy Spirit (Acts ii.).
Imprisonment of Peter and John by order of Sanhedrim (Acts iv.).
31. Growth of the Christian community. Death of Ananias and Sapphira. Increasing activity and influence of the Christians awaken the hostility of the Sanhedrim. Imprisonment of the Apostles. They are miraculously liberated, and are ultimately allowed to depart by the Sanhedrim on the advice of Gamaliel.
36. Trial and Martyrdom of Stephen (Acts vi. 9-vii.).
Rapid growth in numbers of the Christians. They are persecuted by their Jewish brethren, in which persecution Saul takes an active part. Philip the deacon preaches in Samaria, whither St. Peter and St. John follow. Philip converts the Ethiopian eunuch (Acts viii.).
37. Conversion of Saul. He spends three years in Arabia.
40. Paul returns to Jerusalem. The Jews plot to take away his life. He departs for Tarsus (Acts ix.).
Cessation of persecution and increase of Christian believers.
Peter visits and baptises Cornelius, a Roman centurion. Christianity extended to the Gentiles (Acts x. -xi. 18).
41. Growth in numbers of the Gentile Christians in Antioch. They are visited by Barnabas. They are now first called Christians.
43. Paul brought by Barnabas from Tarsus, and they labour together at Antioch. Severe famine prophesied by Agabus (Acts xi. 21-30).
44. Herod Agrippa puts James, brother of John, to death, and imprisons Peter. He dies at Cæsarea (Acts xii.).
45. Paul and Barnabas set apart to preach to the Gentiles.
Their first missionary journey (Acts xiii., xiv.).
48. Dissensions awakened by the Judaisers at Antioch. Paul and Barnabas sent as representatives to Jerusalem. Decree in favour of Gentile liberty.
- 49-50. St. Paul's second missionary journey with Silas (Acts xv. xvii.).
51. After preaching in Phrygia, Galatia, Mysia, and Troas, he is joined by Luke, and crosses over into Macedonia, and visits Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea, whence Jewish opposition drives him to Athens.
52. Paul at Corinth with Aquila and Priscilla. Epistles to Thessalonians.
53. Proconsulship of Gallio in Achaia. Paul quits Corinth for Ephesus (Acts xviii. 1-22).
- 54-55. Paul at Jerusalem. Third missionary journey.
- 56-57. Sets out from Antioch for Galatia and Phrygia. Paul at Ephesus
- A.D. 56-57 for two years. Writes perhaps First Epistle to Corinthians, perhaps also Epistle to Galatians (see below).
Compelled by a tumult at Ephesus to leave for Macedonia (Acts xv. 23-xix.).
Writes Second Epistle to Corinthians (and about this time perhaps Epistle to Galatians). Paul reaches Corinth probably at the end of year.
58. Stays three months at Corinth. Epistle to the Romans. He quits Corinth in the early part of year, returns to Macedonia, visits Philippi in company with Luke, and departs after Passover (Acts xx. 1-6). Leaves Troas, farewells to Ephesian elders at Miletus (Acts xx. 7-38).
Visits Tyre, then Cæsarea, and arrives at Jerusalem before Pentecost. Violent outburst of feeling against Paul. He is rescued by Claudius Lysias at the head of troops. Defends himself before the Jews; is sent to Cæsarea. Defends himself before Festus (Acts xxi.-xxiv.).
60. Paul still prisoner at Cæsarea. Defends himself before Festus and Agrippa (xxv., xxvi.). He is delivered with other prisoners to the centurion Julius. Voyage to Rome. Shipwreck at Melita, where he winters.
61. Sails for Rome. Visits Syracuse, Rhegium, Puteoli. At length reaches Rome, and is placed in custody of the Pretorian Prefect Burrus. Lives two years in hired house (Acts xxvii., xxviii.).
- 62-63. Writes Epistles to the Ephesians and Colossians, to Philemon, to Philippians.
64. Neronian Persecution.
The martyrdom of St. Paul is placed by most authorities somewhere between 64 and 66 A.D. Conybeare and Howson place it in 64. This is complicated with another difficult question, viz., the date of the Pastoral Epistles. This, however, is too intricate a question to be discussed here.
- Note.—The chronological scheme set forth above can only be regarded as the best approximation that can be obtained from a careful examination of the facts of the narrative both of our Lord's life, described in the Gospels, and of the followers of our Lord as related in the Acts of the Apostles, supplemented by occasional references in the Epistles. Particular importance belongs to all allusion to the occurrence of Jewish festivals as a mode of marking the progress of time. The occasional mention of the name of the reigning Roman Emperor at any rate furnishes certain time limits. A few of the more important indications of date arising out of the Scripture narrative may here be specified.
(1.) The reference to Herod's death (Matthew 1-19) has been already discussed in a note at the beginning of the section.

HARMONY OF THE GOSPELS.

on New Testament chronology. Mr. Lewis would place our Lord's birth as early as B.C. 6. This seems to be supported by the fact that the census of Palestine conducted under the legatus, C. Sentius Saturninus, cannot be placed later than A.D. 6.

2.) Lk. iii. 1, "fifteenth year of Tiberius" would, if taken according to Roman usage, mean A.D. 28-29. According to Jewish usage, it might perhaps signify the year beginning 1st Tishri, 27 A.D.

3.) John ii. 20, "Forty and six years was this Temple building" hardly gives us a very definite clue, since the statements of Josephus (Antiq. xv. 11, 1, and Wars i. 21, 1) differ between the 15th and 18th year of Herod as the date of the commencement of the work of building. We may therefore make the 46th year as approximately 21-27 A.D.

4.) Acts xii. 3, Death of Herod Agrippa. This took place in A.D. 44 (comp. Josephus' Antiq. xviii. 8, 2; xix. 5, 1; Wars, ii. 11, 6).

5.) Acts xviii. 2, Decree for expulsion of Jews from Rome (comp. Suetonius, Claudius 25). We may connect this with the expulsion of astrologers (Chaldaei, mathematici, astrologi) referred to by Tacitus (Annals, xii. 52. Zonaras, in the summary compiled from Dion Cassius, places this immediately after the elevation of Agrippa (A.D. 49), and before the arrival of Caractacus in Rome (A.D. 50). But this is undoubtedly too early. We would follow Dr. Draeger, who, in his valuable annotated edition of Tacitus' Annals (vol. ii. p. 30) places, with other authorities, the expulsion of the astrologers in the year 52 A.D. Tacitus, who is careful in his notes of time, places this senatus consultum atrox et irritum in the consulship of Faustus Sulla and Salvius Otho.

On the Apostolic period the most valuable authority is the treatise by Wieseler on the "Chronology of the Apostolic Age." An Appendix (containing tables of dates) on the "Chronology of the Life of St. Paul," in Archdeacon Farrar's Life and Work of St. Paul, will be found useful. With regard to the Gospels, the problem is complicated by questions regarding the structure of the Gospels. On these the reader is referred to Prof. Sanday's article "Gospels," in the last edition of Smith's Dictionary of the Bible.

WEIGHTS, MONEY, AND MEASURES.

By the REV. OWEN C. WHITEHOUSE, M.A., Professor of Hebrew,
Cheshunt College, near London.

FROM GEN. xxiii. 16 we learn that the precious metals, when used in commercial transactions, were weighed out. Precisely the same practice and phraseology prevailed among the Assyrians and Babylonians. The Hebrews, we know, possessed also standard weights. Thus we read of the "royal weight" (lit. stone) in 2 Sam. xiv. 26. Dr. Schrader points out (Cuneiform Inscriptions and the Old Testament, Vol. 1, p. 128) that in the imperial or standard weights discovered at Nineveh, in the form of figures of lions, ducks, etc., the weight is designated as imperial by the phrase "of the king," e.g. "mina (or maneh) of the king." The following tables of weights money will present as clearly as possible that can be ascertained on this obscure subject by the highest authorities. Among the of these authorities may be mentioned Brandis, Das Münz, Maas und Gewichtsw in Vorderasien; and the various articles tributed by Mr. F. W. Madden, M.R. The figures furnished by the latter have the main, been followed by us. In the history of Israel silver appears to have been the prevailing medium of commerce, mention of gold being comparatively rare incidental (Gen. xiii. 2; xxiv. 35).

MEASURES OF CAPACITY AND LENGTH.

Respecting measures of liquid and dry capacity, it is impossible to give an accurate standard of content: for Rabbinic authorities measure an ephah or bath as four gallons, while Josephus assigns it double this measure.

Assuming, then, 8 gallons as an approximate hypothetical estimate for the content of an ephah, we obtain the following table of Hebrew measures of capacity:—

1 Log,	-	-	-	-	-	-	7 pint.
1 Cab=4 logs,	-	-	-	-	-	-	3½ pints.
1 Hin=3 cabs,	-	-	-	-	-	-	1½ gallon.
1 Omer=1½ cabs,	-	-	-	-	-	-	6 pints.
1 Seah=3½ omers,	-	-	-	-	-	-	2½ gallons.
1 Ephah or Bath=3 seahs,	-	-	-	-	-	-	8 gallons.
1 Lethech=5 ephahs,	-	-	-	-	-	-	40 gallons.
1 Homer=10 ephahs,	-	-	-	-	-	-	80 gallons.

Similarly, respecting measures of length, we have insufficient data to enable us to do more than present the following approximations:—

1 Digit,	-	-	-	-	-	-	¼ of an inch.
1 Palm=4 digits,	-	-	-	-	-	-	3 inches.
1 Span=3 palms,	-	-	-	-	-	-	9 inches.
1 Cubit=2 spans,	-	-	-	-	-	-	1½ feet.
1 Reed=6 cubits,	-	-	-	-	-	-	9 feet.

In the Greek and Roman periods the following measures of distance prevailed in common use:—

A Roman foot,	-	-	-	-	-	-	11·65 inches.
A Greek foot,	-	-	-	-	-	-	1 foot 0·135 inches.
A Roman passus,	-	-	-	-	-	-	4 feet 10½ inches.
A Greek fathom (ὀργυσία),	-	-	-	-	-	-	6 feet 1 inch.
A Greek furlong (στάδιον),	-	-	-	-	-	-	202 yards.
A Roman mile,	-	-	-	-	-	-	92 English mile, or about 1615 yards.
A Persian parasang,	-	-	-	-	-	-	3½ miles (nearly).

BIBLICAL GAZETTEER

AND

INDEX TO SCRIPTURE ATLAS.

This concise Gazetteer and Index is intended to assist the Biblical student in determining the geographical position of the various places, and to give a practical knowledge of incidents connected with each place mentioned in the Bible.

It is impossible, however, to minutely describe all the places of minor importance, but explanation of certain of the terms and contractions used may be found of service.

n or En before a place means fountain of.
h " " " house of.
sk " " " well of.
et " " " lake of.
ir " " " convent of.
Jeb, or Jebel " " " a mountain.

Kefr before a place means a small village.
Kh, or Khan " " " a caravansary.
